Campus Organization Committee Charter

Purpose

To serve and advise the President as directed in matters pertaining to the operations and organization of the University.

Charge

The Campus Organization Committee (COC) is responsible for conducting non-academic program evaluations at the direction of the President, reviewing the University's committee structure and efficacy, and making recommendations to the President regarding committee classifications and appointments.

Membership

The COC is chaired by the President's Chief of Staff. Other members include a single representative from each division (Academic Affairs, Administration, Advancement, Health Affairs, Legal Affairs, Research, and Student Success) as well as the president or their designee from Faculty Senate, Staff Senate, and Student Government. The Chair may appoint other non-voting members as necessary to conduct committee business. The current members are listed below:

Role	Term	Position Affiliation	Name
Chair	Ex-Officio	Chief of Staff	Ms. Stephanie Fenter
Member	2023-2025	Academic Affairs Representative	Dr. Colleen Swain

Member	Ex-Officio	Staff Senate President	Mr. Bruce Bettinger

Committee members are expected to devote sufficient time to participate in and contribute to the Committee activities. Committee members are required to adhere to the Committee Charter and assume and complete assignments as designated.

Chair Responsibilities

The Committee Chair is responsible for leading and facilitating the work of the Committee including, but not limited to, calling meetings of the Committee, setting agendas, directing activities and assignments as needed and overseeing communication with Committee members and with the President.

Recommendations and Reporting

The COC will provide an annual report to the President in the summer with nominations for appointments to Executive Committees and any recommended revisions to committee classifications or structure. Other formal recommendations or reports will be provided as needed and at the direction of the President.

Appointment and Term Limits

Ex-Officio members may appoint a designee to serve in their place. If a designee is appointed, they satisfy all of the requirements that may have been met by the nature of the position they are representing. Other positions are filled by the Chair in consultation with senior leadership in each area. Regular member terms are two years, and a member may not serve for more than two consecutive terms. Ex-Officio terms are for the duration of service in their position. An Ex-Officio designee may not serve more than two consecutive years.

Charter Revisions

This charter may not be revised unless directed by the President.

Conflict of Interest Committee Overview
