COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is an Independent Study course for MFA candidates; therefore candidates must have been accepted into the MFA program, be in good standing, and gained permission from the Graduate Coordinator as well as the candidate's Graduate Committee in order to participate. Candidates are expected to have established a strong direction for their work, and be prepared to function at a high level within the conservatory tradition. The intent of this course is to provide candidate's opportunity to develop technical, conceptual, methodological, and formal possibilities in response to the candidate's existing tendencies. Candidates are expected to accept the challenges of developing multiple works simultaneously, which could be considered as variations on the form.

Candidates must develop thorough bodies of works, which endeavor to expand the degrees of sophistication, complexity, and experimentation. Candidates are expected to push themselves to become more informed contemporary artists. We expect candidates to make an impressive quantity of work.

EACH MEETING, CANDIDATES WILL BE EXPECTED TO DEFINE THE STATUS OF THEIR CURRENT WORK, TO DEVELOP QUESTIONS FOR THE PROFESSOR/COMMITTEE CONCERNING THE WORK, AND BE OPEN AND RESPONSIVE TO QUESTIONS, COMMENTS, AND INSTRUCTION OF THE PROFESSOR/COMMITTEE.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS

The number of required works depends greatly on the complexity and scale of each "cycle" of work. Students are required to produce multiple related works simultaneously.

Students will have the opportunity for individual critiques by the professor, as well as scheduled group critiques. Please take advantage of conversation outside of the scheduled studio time, by communicating with the professor and your peers. Schedule an individual discussion, email ideas/questions, call. Benefit from your artistic community by challenging yourself and your colleagues to push one another to improve.

GRADUATE COMMITTEE CRITIQUES/UPDATES

Graduate students are required to schedule regular critiques/updates by members of their graduate committee at least once every month during each semester in which the candidate is registered for credit (it is important to realize that these critiques/updates may be with individual committee members, and need not be formal critiques. The critique/update is intended to maintain an appropriate level of communication between student and committee members). It is the candidate's responsibility to schedule these critiques/updates and to maintain a critique confirmation form signed by the professor who conducts the critique/update. This form must be turned in to the graduate coordinator at the end of each semester.

SEMESTER FINAL REVIEWS

Each semester the graduate student will schedule a final review at which time the entire MFA Graduate Committee will review the work and interview the student, this review is open to the entire faculty and student cohort. It is required that every MFA candidate will participate by the showing of current work at the date and time scheduled.

*Although the primary responsibility rests with the professor of record, all graduate committee members may make recommendations as to the grades assigned.
