Course Objectives

This course focuses on the cultural context of art produced during the Medieval Era in Europe—beginning with the period of Late Antiquity, and including the art of the Byzantine Empire. Through discussion and lecture, we will explore different media, historical context, and the stylistic and theoretical trends that have dominated art production in the western world during the Middle Ages.

Required Textbook: Luttikhuisen and Verkerk, Snyder's Medieval Art, 2nd edition.

Attendance Policy

This course is lecture and discussion based, so student attendance and participation is required. Students are expected to do the required readings, attend class, take notes, and contribute to class discussions. Lectures are the single most important source for information on the subject at hand as well as on test formats, paper assignments, and changes in schedule.

Grading Policy

Grades will be based on one midterm exam (30%), a non-cumulative final exam (30%), and a research paper (30%). Participation and attendance will also be considered in formulating your final grade (10%).

Research Paper

All graduate students will be required to complete a 12-20 page research paper. The topic of the paper should be chosen in consultation with me. Regular meetings outside of class are expected.
