The iconography, stylistic development, cultural and historical context of various sculptures, paintings, prints, architecture, videos and installations will be studied, as well as their function and meaning within society.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: This course aims to provide a chronological account of the history of art. It seeks to develop visual literacy through the analysis of works of art, and to develop critical thinking skills through lectures, readings, writing assignments and class discussions. Three examinations will test the student's general knowledge of information gained from class lectures and text. There are two papers, a group project and an attendance and participation grade.

Core Course Student Learning Outcomes are: by the end of this course students should be able to...
