

History 1301: US History to 1877

Introduction:

In this course, we will discuss the social and political changes in the United States from pre-colonization to the Civil War. At times throughout the semester you may have some questions or concerns, please feel free to email me. Below I have listed all of the important information you will need in order to contact me outside of class.

Instructor: M. Rhys Dotson Email: mdotson@uttyler.edu
Office: CAS 117 Office Hours: TBA or by appointment

Note on office hours: Each week, I will host a virtual office hour for this course. As it is impossible to select a time that benefits everyone, I will randomly select a day each week. You will be notified of the selected time the previous week. As always, if you need to speak with me, we can arrange a private zoom session that accommodates your schedule.

The best way to reach me is by email. During the week I will return emails within 24 hours and on the weekend within 72 hours. Weekends begin at 5:00 pm on Fridays and conclude at 8:00 am on Mondays.

Required Text:

American Stories, vol. 1 by H. W. Brands, et. al. (Pearson Revel access is required.)

Course Objectives:

Following the completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. Identify and evaluate significant individuals and events in the United States.
2. Recognize and analyze political, social, and economic changes in the United States.
3. Identify and evaluate causes and effects of domestic and international issues and events in the United States.

Expectations and Etiquette:

It is expected that everyone in this course, including the instructor, will maintain respect for one another. I encourage you to form your own opinions and thoughts surrounding the course material, but note that not everyone will share all of your sentiments. You can disagree with someone, but it should be done in a manner that is not insulting, degrading, or personal. If your behavior is deemed inappropriate you will be warned. Further offenses can impact your grade, your enrollment in this course, and/or may be forwarded to the appropriate campus administrator.

Methods of Evaluation:

Exams: This course has four major examinations. The exams will contain information presented in the form of video lectures, online videos, podcasts, and information from your textbook. Please note that exams are due on specific dates. Please make note of these dates as examinations will not be made available for any reason past their due date. You will have limited time to complete the exams (60 minutes) and make-up examinations are only given in the direst circumstances. The professor has complete authority to grant or deny access to a make-up exam.

Quizzes/Assignments: Each week you will be assigned chapter quiz(zes) that cover your readings within the online textbook. Assignments open at 12:01 am at the start of the week (Monday) and are due by 11:59 pm at the end of the week (Sunday). Because you have an entire week to complete these assignments, it is your responsibility to see that they are completed. Therefore, any assignments missed during the week will not be re-opened to be completed at a later time and date.

EDEN Film Series: For the past two academic years, the Political Science and History Department has hosted the EDEN (Exploring Diverse Experiences and Narratives) Film Series. This series of film screenings are designed to promote ‘inclusiveness’, as a first step toward the goal of making higher education look, sound, and feel the way the world does. This semester the department will screen four films via zoom. For this course, you are required to attend three of those virtual viewings. After each screening, you will complete a short assignment that covers the topics and information covered within the film. As soon as the dates are released for these films, I will post an announcement on Canvas and will place the information within the appropriate module.

Quizzes – 30%

EDEN Film Series – 25%

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies:

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)

- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment

- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid State-Mandated Course Drop Policy Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions. Disability/Accessibility Services

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities:

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time, the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number.
