Please go through the schedule in the above syllabus carefully and mark your calendars now. I know it is summer and people have vacation plans, but you need to make plans for this course you committed to and ensure that you can complete all assignments on their due date. There will be no accommodations made due to vacation/travel.

You will find Cengage (CNOW) information in the next module. CNOW is the only requirement for this course as it comes with a free ebook but you are welcome to purchase or rent a physical copy if you want. Cengage is embedded in this course so you can just access it through the Cengage link on the left.
