Purpose

This class will examine a broad variety of art movements and schools from Impressionism onward. Students will learn about the key players and personalities of each movement, as well as the specific artistic goals of those movements. Further, these artistic developments will be situated in their historical context so the student can understand why artists were motivated to do what they did.
BA Program Student Learning Outcomes

CRITICAL WRITING  Students will be able to write research papers that demonstrate a thoughtful and critical approach to analysis of a work of art.

CRITICAL THINKING  Students will be able to demonstrate extemporaneous critical thinking about works of art.

HISTORICAL IDENTIFICATION  Students will be able to identify major art styles and movements over the course of human history.

SYNTHESIZE KNOWLEDGE  Students will be able to write research papers that integrate history, formal analysis, and contemporary scholarship in order to develop original scholarship of their own.

Assignments and Assessment

Readings: Students will prepare for each class with a reading from the assigned survey text, History of Modern Art. Also, attendance is extremely important. In addition to being a part of your final grade, students who attend every class will know which parts of the lecture I emphasized, and will therefore be more prepared for tests and quizzes.

Quizzes: At the end of each section, a quiz will be posted to Blackboard dealing with the main themes and ideas of that chapter. These quizzes will be in the form of a Word document; the student will download the quiz, answer inside that document, then save and email the completed quiz to the instructor before the beginning of the next class. In addition to being part of your grade, these quizzes are essential study guides, as they will summarize the information covered on the tests.

Tests: There will be four tests. The format will be roughly the same for each, and the final will not be cumulative. For each test the student will be required to identify several of the most important works of art discussed in the chapters covered in that test (artist, title, date, style). The questions will largely be short essays and compare-and-contrast.

Attendance and participation are important. I will multiply the percentage of classes attended (not counting excused absences) by your participation grade (A = 1.00, B = .90, C = .80).

Final Essay: A final essay will comprise a significant portion of the overall grade. Your total final essay grade will consist of the grade you get on the actual essay combined with grades on assignments related to that essay (write an outline, write the introduction, etc.). The exact nature of this essay will be determined in class, but the goal is to look at the big picture in Modern art and tie together the information in several chapters. Due dates for graduates and undergraduates will be the same, although the essay requirements will be significantly more rigorous for graduate students.

Course Policies

• Students are expected to attend class. You will receive points for attending class, and I will take attendance into account when determining a student’s final grade—perfect attendance will boost a student’s final grade. Five or more unexcused absences will result in course failure.

• Please turn off cell phones for the duration of the class. Because we are in a darkened room I can easily see when someone’s phone lights up, which can be very distracting. Computers should only be used for purposes directly related to class—note-taking and looking at images.

• Please do not come to class if you have any sort of contagion. Notify me by email before class, sending documentation as necessary.

• Missed exams can be made up at the professor’s discretion. Work can be submitted late, again at my discretion, with a deduction of 10% of the grade per calendar day late. Barring exceptional circumstances, you must notify me of any problems before the test or due date to be considered for an extension.

• All work should be the student’s own. Academic dishonesty results in course failure. Plagiarism will result in a failing grade, and will be dealt with through UT Tyler Judicial Affairs. Their policies can be found here: http://www.uttyler.edu/judicialaffairs/scholasticdishonesty.php

• I reserve the right to adjust this syllabus during the semester to account for any contingencies that may arise (emergencies, snow days, improving assignments, etc.)

Past students have succeeded by doing the following:

• Read the material assigned for any given class before the class meeting.
• Make and use paper flashcards of the key monuments discussed in class.
• Memorize the images over the course of a few days—it is easier and more effective to learn visual information this way.
• Take the chapter quizzes immediately after we have concluded our work on the given chapter.
• Stop me if something’s not making sense.
• Attend every single class that you can.
University Policies: On the last page of this syllabus is a list of UT Tyler academic policies.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies
Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include:
- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy
Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Disability Services
In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA) the University offers accommodations to students with learning, physical and/or psychiatric disabilities. If you have a disability, including non-visible disabilities such as chronic diseases, learning disabilities, head injury, PTSD or ADHD, or you have a history of modifications or accommodations in a previous educational environment you are encouraged to contact the Student Accessibility and Resources office and schedule an interview with the Accessibility Case Manager/ADA Coordinator, Cynthia Lowery Staples. If you are unsure if the above criteria applies to you, but have questions or concerns please contact the SAR office. For more information or to set up an appointment please visit the SAR office located in the University Center, Room 3150 or call 903.566.7079. You may also send an email to cstaples@uttyler.edu

Student Absence due to Religious Observance
Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities
If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement:
It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Emergency Exits and Evacuation:
Everyone is required to exit the building when a fire alarm goes off. Follow your instructor’s directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform your instructor in the first week of class. Do not re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire department, or Fire Prevention Services.
