

COURSE OVERVIEW

Students will expand on painting techniques in oil in order to support an advanced artistic exploration through the semester that is consistent with an upper level art studio course. Students should be knowledgeable of painting techniques, color mixing, canvas preparation, and painting practices prior to taking this class. Beginning Painting is a prerequisite for this class. Students will begin the semester with canvas preparation and begin a thesis development/ direction for the remainder of the semester that meets the standards of production and quality level for a 4000 level painting course. For grade assessment, students must turn in a CD of completed images of paintings created during the semester, title of inventory list, and an artist/thesis statement.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

2. Conceptually proficiency

The student will develop and assemble a conceptually proficient body of art work that demonstrates conceptual proficiency within his or her chosen concentration (2D or 3D), as well as general proficiency in the greater arena of all mediums.

3. Historical context

The student will develop an understanding of how his or her work relates to art history.

4. Contemporary trends

The student will develop an understanding of how his or her work relates to current trends in contemporary art.

5. Written analysis

The student will engage in written critical analysis of their artwork.

6. Verbal analysis

The student will engage in critical verbal analysis of their artwork.

ATTENDANCE and PUNCTUALITY POLICY:

Attendance is mandatory. After missing 2 classes you may be dropped a full letter grade from your semester GPA, after 3 classes you may be a candidate for failure of the course! Continual tardiness will also have an affect on the overall grade. If you are more than 30 minutes late to class (or if you leave 30 minutes early), you will be marked absent. If you are unprepared for class you will be marked absent. Three days of tardiness or leaving early is equal to one absence. You must be present for each class and critique!

Please note: students are expected to spend at least 7-14 hours outside of class on course work in order to keep up with the class pace. It may not be possible to pass this course by working in class only. Often times we will be critiquing during class time. You MUST schedule additional time to work outside of class.

GRADING PROCESS:

The student is graded on attendance, preparation, dedication to the course, and painting quality and production. Students are encouraged to ask questions and are expected to commit outside time. Please note: By simply completing the above requirements (i.e. perfect attendance, punctuality, preparation, and completion of all course material and expectations etc.) you may earn the average letter grade of C. You must go above and beyond the basic requirements of the course to earn yourself a grade that is above and beyond average.

*It is expected that you attend all gallery openings and any art lectures (unless excused)

Students will have access every day of the week Sunday-Monday from 7am-10pm once safety trainings are completed and Art Student Safety Agreements have been signed and turned in with Gail Andrews (FAC 2009) Students working after hours need to sign in and out on the sheets provided near the doors to Art Studios I and II. Please note that any abuse of access privileges will result in the loss of after-hour studio access.

*Clean up is an imperative part of this class. You are expected to do your part in keeping the classroom organized, safe, and flowing smoothly! Policy of clean up will be discussed with the class on a case by case base

STUDIO SAFETY AND ACCESS INFORMATION:

1. For access and use of the art studio at The University of Texas at Tyler after hours, you must have on file a signed Department of Art Safety Agreement and follow all requirements and guidelines stated in the safety agreement.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT TYLER STUDENT INFORMATION AND POLICIES

Students Rights and Responsibilities

To know and understand the policies that affect your rights and responsibilities as a student at UT Tyler, please follow this link:

<http://www.uttyler.edu/wellness/StudentRightsandResponsibilities.html>

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness

If you are repeating this course for a grade replacement, you must file an intent to receive grade forgiveness with the registrar by the 12th day of class. Failure to do so will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average.

Undergraduates will receive grade forgiveness (grade replacement) for only three course repeats; graduates, for two course repeats during his/her career at UT Tyler.

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the 12th day of class (See Schedule of Classes for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule include, but are not limited to, the following: totally withdrawing from the university; being administratively dropped from a course; dropping a course for a personal emergency; dropping a course for documented change of work schedule; or dropping a course for active duty service with the U.S. armed forces or Texas National Guard. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Registrar's Office and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Registrar's Office if you have any questions.

Disability Services

In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodation must provide documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Support Services counselor. If you have a disability, including a learning disability, for which you request an accommodation, please contact Ida MacDonald in the Disability Support Services office in UC 282, or call (903) 566-7079.

Student Absence due to Religious Observance

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.
