SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS

Texas Lutheran began their season with a loss to Trinity, 65-57. TLU got 17 points from sophomore wing Nate Walton, and freshman post J.C. Herebia added 13 points on 4-of-6 shooting for the Bulldogs. TLU made just four field goals in the final 11 minutes of play and went 0-for-11 from the three-point line in the second half.

Last Saturday, the Bulldogs made game-tying baskets three times to force overtimes, but fell in the third OT to Southwestern University, 75-72. TLU's Josh Scott hit three-pointers to force the first and second overtimes, and led TLU with a career-high 20 points. Nate Walton and J.C. Herebia added 18 and 16 points, respectively. Walton collected a career-best 10 rebounds.

Texas Lutheran University is located in Seguin, Texas, about 40 miles northeast of San Antonio.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Contact

The contact for UT Tyler basketball is Sports Information Director Peyton Low. During normal business hours, Low can be reached at (903) 565-5559.

Interviews

Interviews with head coaches and players must be arranged through the Sports Information Office. Coaches and players are normally available before and after practice each day. Please call the Sports Information Office for practice times.

Post-Game Procedures

Coaches will be available after a ten-minute cooling off period in the media/hospitality area on the floor level. Up to two players may be requested for post-game interviews. UT Tyler's locker rooms are not open for interviews at any time.

THE AMAZING REESE...

Sophomore Anthony Reese led the Patriots in scoring in the opener with 12 points against Jarvis. That was a college career-high for Reese, who transferred from Midwestern State University and averaged 2.3 points per game there last year.

PRE-SEASON PICKS...

UT Tyler's men's basketball team was picked fifth in the East Division of the American Southwest Conference in the 2006-07 season. ASC head coaches, sports information directors and media representatives voted in the preseason poll, which gave last year's champion Mississippi College the clear nod to repeat. The Patriots were picked fifth in a crowded field, with 18 points separating the 2nd through the 5th picks.

WEASBY GOES SHORT...

Senior Brandon Weasby was held to just five points in the season opener, his fourth-worst game ever. Here are Weasby's best and worst games as a Patriot.

Men's Head Coach Matthew Wallis

When it came time to hire their first basketball coach, the University of Texas at Tyler trusted their program to Matt Wallis, a coach who knew exactly what it took to be successful in the American Southwest Conference. Wallis was an ASC Champion as both a player and as an assistant coach, and also helped guide teams to playoff spots in high school and conference championships in college.

Wallis, a player and assistant coach at former ASC rival Austin College, was hired as the first Patriots head coach in 2002, and spent his first year and a half recruiting for the college. His Patriots won for the first time on December 3, 2003, beating Hardin-Simmons 76-64 in triple-overtime. The Patriots finished that year 8-17, 6-8 in the ASC. The second year of the program saw the Patriots rise above the break-even point, going 13-12 on the season and 13-9 in a very competitive ASC. In year three, Wallis' Patriots finished 9-16, and 9-13 in the ASC with three players named to the All-ASC Honorable Mention team.

Under Wallis' direction, the Patriots now enter their fourth season, and final year of provisional NCAA membership. Wallis has always shown that his Patriots will play the strongest competition available, playing nine Division I opponents in their first three years. The 2006-2007 season will feature a road trip to Louisiana to face the University of New Orleans, who shared the Patriot Center with UT Tyler last season.

Wallis began his career at Austin College, where he was a captain and three-year letterman for the Kangaroos. Wallis was a three-time ASC Player of the Week, and ranked in the top five in the country in Field Goal Percentage his senior year. Austin College won the American Southwest Conference championship that season, and Wallis tallied 13.5 points and 9.7 rebounds per game. Wallis graduated from Austin College with a Bachelor of Arts in 1997, and received his Masters of Science in Kinesiology from Texas A&M Commerce in 1998.

Prior to coming to UT Tyler, Wallis served as head coach at 2A Tom Bean High School, leading the Tomcats to their first post-season win in eleven years. Wallis also served as first assistant coach for the NCAA D-I Montana State University women's basketball program in 2001-2002, helping MSU to a Big Sky Conference title that season.

Jarvis Christian 83, UT Tyler 76 (OT)
 11/20/06

The University of Texas at Tyler took Jarvis Christian into overtime, but fell 83-76 in their home opener before more than 1900 people on "Fans In The Stands" night.

In front of a raucous, packed house, both teams traded leads, with Jarvis holding a one-point advantage at halftime. The Bulldogs tied the game with 22 seconds remaining when senior Neville Storer hit one of two free throws to know the score. A Patriots possession ended with a missed three-pointer at the buzzer, and UT Tyler went to overtime.

The Patriots were outscored 12-5 in the extra frame, and Jarvis claimed the win. After the game, Patriots coach Matt Wallis lamented the squandered opportunity.

"Just a tough loss for us," Wallis said. "We fought hard, but didn't execute down the stretch like I'd hoped. I thought it would be a close game, and looking back now at what happened, we needed to execute at the end of regulation."

The Patriots were led in scoring by Anthony Reese (SO/Longview, TX) with 12 points, and 10 from Jake White (SR/Longview, TX). The Patriots main offensive threat, senior Brandon Weasby (SR, Houston, TX) was held to only 5 points on the night, shooting 1-8 from three-point range. Weasby was scoreless in the first half.

"It's kind of a rare night for Brandon Weasby," Wallis said, "but that's the way it goes sometimes. That gave a chance for some other guys to step up, we've just got to get in the gym and shoot a little bit more and work on that."

Wallis points to two factors in the overtime loss, starting with a 33-46 deficit in rebounding.

"Rebounding, that's the thing we have to stress. We didn't box out, and we didn't shoot very well from the free throw line. We were 12 for 25, which is horrendous, so we've got to work on that."

"It's just a couple of things, but those missed box-outs down the stretch are what hurt us."

The Patriots leading rebounders were Reese and Marlon Hill (JR/Port Arthur, TX), who each had 6.

UT Tyler used starting center Kevin Byrne (SR/Canton, MS), with Keven Prather (SO/Corpus Christi, TX) and Anthony Hightower (JR/Houston, TX) to try and neutralize Jarvis's Neville Storer. Storer held the edge, fouling out Byrne and putting Prather in foul trouble with three calls in less than two minutes in the first half.

Storer finished with 21 points and 15 rebounds to lead all players in both categories.

Previous Game vs. Texas Lutheran:
UT Tyler 58, Texas Lutheran 55
 12/03/05

SEGUIN, Texas - Trailing by one with less than 10 seconds to play, UT-Tyler's Joe Henderson drove for a game-winning layup in a 58-55 road victory over Texas Lutheran.

Saturday afternoon at TLU's Memorial Gymnasium, Texas Lutheran led 55-51 with 1:16 remaining before UT-Tyler rallied to score the final seven points of the game.

The Bulldogs' Jason Morales had a chance to tie the game or give TLU a 1-point lead when he was fouled with three seconds to go. But Morales missed the front end of a 1-and-1, and UT-Tyler's Jamal Vanderbilt secured the rebound and made both of his free throws after being fouled.

Hunter Holsonback's desperation three at the buzzer bounced off the side of the rim.

UT-Tyler improved to 3-2 overall and to 3-1 in the American Southwest Conference.

Texas Lutheran fell to 2-4 overall and to 1-3 in the ASC.

Patrick Branche led the Patriots with 16 points. Henderson added 10 points, eight rebounds and five assists.

Matt Nelson scored 17 points and collected eight rebounds for the Bulldogs. Thomas Osborn added 10 points and a game-high 11 rebounds.
