Men's Head Coach Matthew Wallis

When it came time to hire their first basketball coach, the University of Texas at Tyler trusted their program to Matt Wallis, a coach who knew exactly what it took to be successful in the American Southwest Conference. Wallis was an ASC Champion as both a player and as an assistant coach, and also helped guide teams to playoff spots in high school and conference championships in college.

Wallis, a player and assistant coach at former ASC rival Austin College, was hired as the first Patriots head coach in 2002, and spent his first year and a half recruiting for the college. His Patriots won for the first time on December 3, 2003, beating Hardin-Simmons 76-64 in triple-overtime. The Patriots finished that year 8-17, 6-8 in the ASC. The second year of the program saw the Patriots rise above the break-even point, going 13-12 on the season and 13-9 in a very competitive ASC. In year three, Wallis' Patriots finished 9-16, and 9-13 in the ASC with three players named to the All-ASC Honorable Mention team.

Under Wallis' direction, the Patriots now enter their fourth season, and final year of provisional NCAA membership. Wallis has always shown that his Patriots will play the strongest competition available, playing nine Division I opponents in their first three years. The 2006-2007 season will feature a road trip to Louisiana to face the University of New Orleans, who shared the Patriot Center with UT Tyler last season.

Wallis began his career at Austin College, where he was a captain and three-year letterman for the Kangaroos. Wallis was a three-time ASC Player of the Week, and ranked in the top five in the country in Field Goal Percentage his senior year. Austin College won the American Southwest Conference championship that season, and Wallis tallied 13.5 points and 9.7 rebounds per game. Wallis graduated from Austin College with a Bachelor of Arts in 1997, and received his Masters of Science in Kinesiology from Texas A&M Commerce in 1998.

Prior to coming to UT Tyler, Wallis served as head coach at 2A Tom Bean High School, leading the Tomcats to their first post-season win in eleven years. Wallis also served as first assistant coach for the NCAA D-I Montana State University women's basketball program in 2001-2002, helping MSU to a Big Sky Conference title that season.

Howard Payne 78, UT Tyler 67
 12/9/06

TYLER – Visiting Howard Payne University hit more of their shots from behind the three-point arc than inside in the first half, burying The University of Texas at Tyler 78-67.

The Patriots (1-6, 1-4 ASC) had trimmed an eight-point Yellowjacket lead down to one with less than a minute to go, but Howard Payne answered with five points from John Bryant and a three from Josh Weatherred to stretch the halftime lead back to nine and force the Patriots to chase for the entire second half.

“We really did,” Patriots head coach Matt Wallis said. “It was just poor clock management at the end of the second half. We should have held for the last shot, but we forced up an early shot and they hit a three to close out the first half, and that took away a lot of momentum.”

In all, Howard Payne shot twenty three-pointers, hitting half of them. In the first half, of their thirteen baskets from the floor, eight were threes.

“We didn’t do a good job of pressuring the ball, and allowed them to pick us apart in the first half.”

The Patriots were led by Mirada Reed (SO/Cleveland, TX) with 13 points on 6-for-14 shooting. Josh Twine (FR/Hemphill, TX) added six rebounds and three assists in just twelve minutes off the bench.

For the second straight game, the Patriots were playing without all-time leading scorer Brandon Weasby (SR/Houston, TX). Weasby is out with a knee injury, but expected to return after the Christmas break.

The Patriots got six boards each from Twine, Kevin Byrne (SR/Clinton, MS), and Jeff Cotton (JR/Allen, TX) and outrebounded the Yellowjackets 40-32.

“We did a good job on the boards, but it comes down to the little things again,” Wallis said. “Poor clock management, we didn’t get to the free throw line, turnovers, you can’t do those things.”

The Patriots were 7-for-9 at the free throw line, but didn’t shoot a single one of those in the first half. UT Tyler also had 21 turnovers.

THE AMERICAN SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE

The Patriots play in the American Southwest Conference, which was formed in May of 1996. The ASC plays in cities like Dallas, Austin, Tyler, and Abilene, and in four states, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Arkansas.

UT Tyler is in the ASC East Division, which contains ETBU, LeTourneau, UT Dallas, University of the Ozarks, Mississippi College, and Louisiana College. The ASC East was formerly balanced, but Austin College left the ASC following the 2005-2006 season.

The ASC schedule is set up for each member team to play everyone in their division twice, home and away, and to play everyone in the opposite division once. UT Tyler will play one alternating home game every season with the West Division, which is composed of Hardin-Simmons, Howard Payne, Mary Hardin-Baylor, Schreiner, Concordia, Sul Ross, McMurry, and Texas Lutheran.

UT TYLER, THE NCAA, AND THE PLAYOFF SITUATION

The University of Texas at Tyler is finishing its fourth and final season of provisional NCAA membership. As a new Division III program, the Patriots had to complete the standard provisional period before becoming eligible for the NCAA playoffs. As a result, UT Tyler was also ineligible for any conference tournament that resulted in an automatic berth in an NCAA Championship tournament.

Next season, for the first time, UT Tyler will be fully eligible with the NCAA.
