PATRIOTS BASKETBALL

ON THE COURT...

After a week on the road, the Patriots return home to host the University of Dallas. Dallas is a former member of the American Southwest Conference, but currently is an independent NCAA Division III school.

The Patriots are still riding a three-game winning streak at home.

THE SERIES (1-0 Dallas)

This is the second meeting between the Patriots and the Crusaders. The University of Dallas won the previous meeting February 28, 2004, by the score of 92-84.

THE SEASON:

RECORD :	OVERALL	HOME	AWAY	NEUTRAL
ALL GAMES	(4-13)	(4-3)	(0-10)	(0-0)
CONFERENCE	(4-9)	(4-1)	(0-8)	(0-0)
NON-CONFERENCE	(0-4)	(0-2)	(0-2)	(0-0)

SCOUTING THE CRUSADERS...

The University of Dallas is 10-10 on the season. They have played two ASC schools, losing to UT Dallas 90-56 and beating Ozarks 86-85 early on in the season.

The Crusaders are led in scoring by Jason Basset with 12.3 points per game. Basset also leads the team in rebounds with 5.2 per game, and blocks with 17 in his 18 games.

The University of Dallas is actually located in Irving, Texas. It is a private Catholic liberal arts university with 1188 undergraduate students and 1753 graduate students.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Contact

The contact for UT Tyler basketball is Sports Information Director Peyton Low. During normal business hours, Low can be reached at (903) 565-5559.

Interviews

Interviews with head coaches and players must be arranged through the Sports Information Office. Coaches and players are normally available before and after practice each day. Please call the Sports Information Office for practice times.

Post-Game Procedures

Coaches will be available after a ten-minute cooling off period in the media/hospitality area on the floor level. Up to two players may be requested for post-game interviews. UT Tyler's locker rooms are not open for interviews at any time.

HOME SWEET HOME...

UT Tyler still has a three-game winning streak at home. They defeated Sul Ross on December 18, 2006, then spent the next month in Christmas break and on the road before coming back to beat LeTourneau 70-67 and ETBU 66-62. UT Tyler is 4-3 at home.

HELLO, LARRY...

Point guard Larry Ware had a breakthrough performance against LeTourneau, scoring as many points as he had in his previous six games combined. Ware had sixteen points and played 34 minutes, both career highs.

ASC HONORS...

Anthony Reese was the American Southwest Conference East Division men's basketball player of the week last week. The sophomore from Longview, Texas helped the Patriots secure their first back-to-back conference wins of the season by averaging 15 points, 6.5 rebounds and 4.5 steals in wins over LeTourneau and East Texas Baptist.

REED ABOUT IT...

Mirada Reed has a habit of following single-digit scoring games with double-figure performances. Reed didn't score against UT Dallas, but responded with a team-high thirteen against Ozarks. Reed still leads the team with 11.2 points per game.

PRE-SEASON PICKS...

UT Tyler's men's basketball team was picked fifth in the East Division of the American Southwest Conference in the 2006-07 season. ASC head coaches, sports information directors and media representatives voted in the preseason poll, which gave last year's champion Mississippi College the clear nod to repeat.

BLOCK PARTY...

The Patriots have outblocked their opponents this season 53-34, led by Marlon Hill's nine and Mike Smith's eight rejections.

FOUL PLAY...

The Patriots have had ten players foul out of games this season, but have not had an opponent foul out yet.

CLEANING THE GLASS...

The Patriots are outrebounding opponents this year 35.4 to 33.1 per game. Freshman Josh Twine leads the team with 4.4 per game.

NEXT UP...

UT Tyler will play Ozarks at home on Saturday at three. That game will be live on the UT Tyler Sports Network.

Men's Head Coach Matthew Wallis

When it came time to hire their first basketball coach, the University of Texas at Tyler trusted their program to Matt Wallis, a coach who knew exactly what it took to be successful in the American Southwest Conference. Wallis was an ASC Champion as both a player and as an assistant coach, and also helped guide teams to playoff spots in high school and conference championships in college.

Wallis, a player and assistant coach at former ASC rival Austin College, was hired as the first Patriots head coach in 2002, and spent his first year and a half recruiting for the college. His Patriots won for the first time on December 3, 2003, beating Hardin-Simmons 76-64 in triple-overtime. The Patriots finished that year 8-17, 6-8 in the ASC. The second year of the program saw the Patriots rise above the break-even point, going 13-12 on the season and 13-9 in a very competitive ASC. In year three, Wallis' Patriots finished 9-16, and 9-13 in the ASC with three players named to the All-ASC Honorable Mention team.

Under Wallis' direction, the Patriots now enter their fourth season, and final year of provisional NCAA membership. Wallis has always shown that his Patriots will play the strongest competition available, playing nine Division I opponents in their first three years. The 2006-2007 season will feature a road trip to Louisiana to face the University of New Orleans, who shared the Patriot Center with UT Tyler last season.

Wallis began his career at Austin College, where he was a captain and three-year letterman for the Kangaroos. Wallis was a three-time ASC Player of the Week, and ranked in the top five in the country in Field Goal Percentage his senior year. Austin College won the American Southwest Conference championship that season, and Wallis tallied 13.5 points and 9.7 rebounds per game. Wallis graduated from Austin College with a Bachelor of Arts in 1997, and received his Masters of Science in Kinesiology from Texas A&M Commerce in 1998.

Prior to coming to UT Tyler, Wallis served as head coach at 2A Tom Bean High School, leading the Tomcats to their first post-season win in eleven years. Wallis also served as first assistant coach for the NCAA D-I Montana State University women's basketball program in 2001-2002, helping MSU to a Big Sky Conference title that season.

Previous Game:
Ozarks 66, UT Tyler 57
 1/27/06

CLARKSVILLE, AR – The University of Texas at Tyler turned up the pressure in the second half to erase a thirteen-point lead, but University of the Ozarks never surrendered the lead and won 66-57.

The Patriots (4-13, 4-10 ASC) trailed by ten at the half but used a full-court press to draw the game to a second half tie before falling behind again.

After the game, a frustrated coach Matt Wallis said his team's first half doomed them.

"It was just a tough game," he said. "We didn't play the entire forty minutes. It's difficult at the college level to go play twenty minutes a game and expect to win. When you show up and basically goof off for twenty minutes and then to expect to turn it on and win, it's not going to happen in college."

"It's just inconsistency. We tried to do different things defensively from pressing, to going zone, to man-to-man, just different things. We're not executing any of the above for the most part. Bottom line is, you've got to be able to have pride and hustle and do those things for forty minutes and we just don't do them right now."

The Patriots tied the game up with 8:21 remaining and stayed withing one, but a technical foul called on Marlon Hill (JR/Port Arthur, TX) proved to be the turnaround in the game. Blake Belford hit a free throw and Chris Clark followed on the possession with a dunk, and the Eagles would maintain their lead the rest of the way.

UT Tyler was led by scoring by Mirada Reed (JR/Cleveland, TX) with thirteen points. ASC East Player of the Week Anthony Reese (SO/Longview, TX) added nine points, six rebounds, two assists, and two steals.

Point guard Larry Ware (SO/San Antonio, TX) played a team-high 33 minutes and led the team with 4 assists. Wallis said Ware handled his position well, but didn't have much backup.

"I thought Larry did a pretty good job managing the game down the stretch but we just have to have solid play from all of our point guards. They have to do a lot better, we demand that from them and right now we're not getting consistent play from all of them. They've got to step up and do a better job."

Hill and Josh Twine (FR/Hemphill, TX) each had eight points.

THE AMERICAN SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE

The Patriots play in the American Southwest Conference, which was formed in May of 1996. The ASC plays in cities like Dallas, Austin, Tyler, and Abilene, and in four states, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Arkansas.

UT Tyler is in the ASC East Division, which contains ETBU, LeTourneau, UT Dallas, University of the Ozarks, Mississippi College, and Louisiana College. The ASC East was formerly balanced, but Austin College left the ASC following the 2005-2006 season.

The ASC schedule is set up for each member team to play everyone in their division twice, home and away, and to play everyone in the opposite division once. UT Tyler will play one alternating home game every season with the West Division, which is composed of Hardin-Simmons, Howard Payne, Mary Hardin-Baylor, Schreiner, Concordia, Sul Ross, McMurry, and Texas Lutheran.

UT TYLER, THE NCAA, AND THE PLAYOFF SITUATION

The University of Texas at Tyler is finishing its fourth and final season of provisional NCAA membership. As a new Division III program, the Patriots had to complete the standard provisional period before becoming eligible for the NCAA playoffs. As a result, UT Tyler was also ineligible for any conference tournament that resulted in an automatic berth in an NCAA Championship tournament.

Next season, for the first time, UT Tyler will be fully eligible with the NCAA.
