FROM THE EDITOR

I would once again like to thank all of the people who have jumped on board and submitted information. Without the assistance from the Sports Information Directors (SID's) from around the country, this newsletter couldn't reach its full potential.

With that being said, please encourage some of your colleagues to also send some of their superlatives, feature ideas and other information to d3softball@gmail.com. If conference personnel could include our email (d3softball@gmail.com) on your weekly media list, that would be greatly appreciated.

Enclosed with this newsletter, you will find a regional Player of the Week nomination form. The form is due to D3softball@gmail.com by 5 p.m. EST Monday.

Thanks,

J. Ameer Rasheed

Division III Softball - The Newsletter Weekly Poll #1

The top two spots in the Division III Softball - The Newsletter weekly poll remained unchanged as Louisiana College and DePauw are first and second, respectively.

That was about the only thing that stayed the same as six new teams, led by Emory, appeared in the Week One poll. The Eagles jumped all the way to tenth after posting a 14-1 record to start the season.

After only receiving four of 16 first-place votes in the inaugural poll, Louisiana earned all but two this week to solidify its top spot. The Wildcats were followed by DePauw, Texas-Tyler and two Wisconsin teams - Eau Claire and Whitewater to round out the top five.

2008 National runner-up Warhawks lost all five of their first-place votes despite not playing yet this season.

The second five features Linfield, St. Thomas, Ithaca, Wartburg and newcomer Emory.

Endicott and Rhode Island kick off the second 10, followed by Montclair State, Simpson, SUNY Cortland, Redlands and Lynchburg.

The Polar Bears of Ohio Northern start the run of five newcomers as East Texas Baptist, Roanoke, Adrian and John Carroll all make its initial appearance in the poll.

The final three members of the poll are Ramapo, which is tied at 22nd with John Carroll, Rochester at 24 and another newcomer, Christopher Newport, rounding out the 25.

Perennial national power Muskingum plummeted from grace, so to speak, going from fifth to unranked after splitting its first 10 games of the season.

Wash U's Voris hurls perfect game

Sophomore Claire Voris struck out 10 and tossed a perfect game as the Washington University in St. Louis softball team posted a 10-0 victory in five innings over Case Western Reserve University in both team's University Athletic Association (UAA) opener on March 9 in Altamonte Springs, Fla.

Voris, who picked up her second win of the season, registered the eighth perfect game in school history and 19th overall no-hitter. She faced the minimum 15 batters and allowed three fly balls and two groundouts.

The Bears scored three runs in the top of the first to build a commanding 3-0 lead. Junior Ashton Hitchcock, senior Lindsay Cavarra and junior Caitlyn Hoffman each had an RBI in the first. Cavarra doubled in the third inning to drive in Voris and push the lead to 4-0.

Washington U. added two more runs in the fourth on a two-RBI triple by freshman Alyssa Abramoski. With two outs, junior Carter Malouf singled scoring Abramoski to push the lead to 7-0. In the top of the fifth, Voris doubled scoring two runners, and then Abramoski recorded a sacrifice fly to make it 10-0.

Cavarra finished the contest 3-for-3 with two RBI, while Hitchcock and Malouf added two hits apiece. The Bears had 11 hits off

Case Western Reserve (3-2, 0-1 UAA) starter Ruth Sagartz, who allowed 10 earned runs in five innings pitched. Sagartz is the younger sister of four-time Washington University all-American, Laurel Sagartz (2004-07).

Four coaches earn first wins

As the 2009 season kicks off, the Division III Softball - The Newsletter has been notified of at least four Division III coaches to earn their first career coaching victories.

Lacey Lister (Washington College), Lindsay Bramhall (Thomas More), Chris Eaton (Webster) and Melissa Hurley (Maryville, MO) have all led their teams to victories this season.

East beats West in ASC First Pitch

THE NEWSLETTER PRE-SEASON ALL-AMERICANS McCASLIN CARSON (LOUISIANA COLLEGE) AND MEGAN "ROO" RICHARDSON (TEXAS-TYLER) HELPED LEAD THEIR RESPECTIVE TEAMS TO PERFECT RECORDS IN THE AMERICAN SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE FIRST PITCH TOURNAMENT.

FARMERS BRANCH, TX – The East Division won bragging rights over the West Division by totaling a 16-12 advantage at the annual American Southwest Conference First Pitch Softball Tournament at Oran Good Park over the weekend (March 6-7).

All 14 of the league's teams played four games – two each day – against teams from the opposite division. Games did not count toward conference standings, just overall and in-region. The divisions split their games 7-7 on Saturday, but the East's 9-5 mark on Friday sealed the victory.

Top-ranked Louisiana College and No. 3 Texas-Tyler were the only clubs to make a perfect 4-0 run through the tournament. LC, which recorded two shutouts and got a no-hitter from all-American senior right-hander McCaslin Carson, extended its record-winning streak at the ASC First Pitch Tournament to 23 games. UT Tyler, which plated 66 runs, pushed its consecutive win total to 13. Both LC and UT Tyler improved to 10-0 on the season.

No. 19 East Texas Baptist (12-2) and Mississippi College (5-2) went 3-1 to also help fuel the East Division. The West Division had three teams go 3-1: Howard Payne (10-2), Mary Hardin-Baylor (7-3) and Schreiner (7-2).
