

We need OFFICE VOLUNTEERS for the American Cancer Society

The American Cancer Society is the nationwide, community-based, voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives and diminishing suffering from cancer, through research, education, advocacy, and service.

What we need your help with:

- Answering phones and helping customers
- Fundraising mail-outs
- Light office duties
- Lending an extra hand in the office during events

What we will offer you:

- A fun atmosphere to volunteer and great people to get to know
- Satisfaction of knowing you are helping your community
- We offer flexibility. We're available when YOU are available.
- Appreciation

We welcome seniors, students, and those wanting to re-enter the workforce.
