

Longview Nursing Students Achieve 100 Percent Pass Rate on NCLEX

“The UT Tyler Longview University Center is home to one of the top nursing programs in the region,” said Dr. Van Patterson director of the LUC. “This was clearly demonstrated by our 2013 December graduates who all passed the National Council Licensure Examination.”

“We are very proud of our students and of this major accomplishment,” said Dr. Helene Hakim, director of UT Tyler Longview nursing programs. “Students can obtain their bachelor’s degree in nursing, but until they pass the NCLEX they cannot practice as registered nurses.”
