POINTS

The Attendance Incentive

Certain events during Greek Week 2012 will be based solely on attendance. As we are a diverse Greek community, there will be a unique system in place by which points are awarded.

Attendance Incentive:

At least 10 active members in attendance = 50 points

75% of active membership in attendance = 100 BONUS POINTS

Double attendance incentive:

At least 10 active members in attendance = 100 points

75% of active membership in attendance = 200 BONUS POINTS

Class Schedule Accommodations: The president or appointed representative of each fraternity/sorority is expected to submit all excused absences for ALL Greek Week events by 12:00 p.m. on Monday, March 26. The excused list shall be broken down by day and by event. If no excuses are turned in by the deadline, every person listed as active on your roster will be counted and you will receive a -50 point deduction from your total.
CAR WINDOW PAINTING

Date: Monday, March 26
Time: 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.
Location: Ornelas Parking Lot 18

Description of event:
What is Greek Week without a decorated car? Bring your car and your friends to get your windows painted for the week and show your Greek Week spirit!

Points:
Points for the Window Painting Station will be based on amount of cars painted per group. There will be a maximum of 12 cars that may be painted for a point value. Each car will be worth 10 points. If a fraternity/sorority is able to obtain the maximum amount of 12 cars painted, 20 bonus points will be awarded. Each fraternity/sorority is expected to paint its respective letters, colors, etc. on cars of its own members.

Painting the maximum point amount of 12 cars will result in a 20 point bonus.

Points per car: 10 points each for up to 12 cars

CAN CASTLE

Date: Thursday, March 29
Time: 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.
Location: UCN Patio outside of the MET

Description of event:
On your mark, get set, BUILD! Groups will be collecting canned foods that will be donated to the East Texas Food Bank. At 1:30 p.m., each group will bring their cans to the UCN Patio (outside of the MET) and build a “castle” to display their cans!

- Each group will be assigned an area to create their can structure
- Cans MUST be brought in boxes (so the East Texas Food Bank can load them)
- Cans will first be counted by a member of the Greek Week Steering Committee
- Out of the brought cans, only 500 cans may be used for the structure. Each team may choose which cans are used, but no more than 500 cans.
- When the whistle blows, each group will have 20 minutes to create their structure
- Structures will be judged upon creativity, size, and organization
- Cans must be self-sustaining/supported
- No props are allowed, even if they are used for decoration

Points:
There are two levels of competition for the Can Castle contest. The first level of points is based upon the number of cans collected. The second level of points depends on the actual structure built. Judging will be the responsibility of the Greek Advisor and/or appointed judge.

Points for # cans:

Time: 6:30 p.m.
Location: UC Theater

Description of event:
The lip sync competition will help to end an awesome week with some great entertainment! Lip Sync is an opportunity for each Greek organization to perform to the song of their choice and show the audience that everybody can step up and dance! The choreographed performance does NOT have to reflect the Greek Week 2012 theme: ‘Patriots with Letters do it Better’.

Points:
Lip Sync team performance (only 1 judged group allowed)

1st Place  600 points
2nd Place  400 points
3rd Place  200 points

Judging Criteria:
Originality and creativity of music selection
Enthusiasm and energy
Lip readability
Synchronization of movements with music
Crowd appeal

Rules for Participation:
• Each organization may submit one team of 5-15 members to perform to a song or compilation of songs of their choice

• More than one group may participate, however, only one group per organization will be judged for points.
  o The organization must note which group will be judged at the point where CD’s are turned in.
• All participants must be available for dress rehearsal between 4:00-7:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 29 in the UC Theater.

• All performing groups (judged/non-judged) must submit a CD with the chosen song(s), a roster of performing members, printed lyrics of song, costume ideas, theme, and prop ideas must be submitted to Brittany Childs no later than 12:00 p.m. on Monday, March 5.

  o Songs are chosen based upon when they are turned in (i.e. if more than one group turns in the same song, the group that turned it in first gets to keep it pending approval from Greek Coordinator).
  o Once the submitted items have been turned in and approved, no changes shall be made.
  o Songs that are chosen must be the “clean” version. No exceptions.

• There will be 40 point deduction for not turning in songs, a roster of performing members, printed lyrics of song(s), costume ideas, theme, prop ideas, and receipts on time.

• Each organization has a budget of $150 to use for costumes props, etc. if they choose. All props must be made/purchased/owned by fraternity/sorority. There will be a 40 point deduction if University property is used.

  o Copies of receipts used to purchase items for Greek SING must be submitted to Brittany Childs no later than 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 30.
  o Any group that goes over the $150 limit will receive a penalty of -40 points.
  o Any group that does not submit receipts will receive a penalty of -40 points.
  o Materials already in the organization’s possession may be used.

• All costumes must be worn appropriately and cover all necessary parts of body (no bikinis, overly tight-fitting garments, etc.)

  o All necessary undergarments must be worn.
  o Organizations in violation of this rule will receive a penalty of -40 points.*

• No balloons, large signs, or anything else that could potentially block those behind you will be allowed in the audience.

• Inclusion of profanity, lewd conduct, obscene gestures or scenes, vulgar themes, inappropriate dancing, and unacceptable behavior will result in immediate disqualification from the event and a penalty of -40 points. NO EXCEPTIONS.

• No contact between performers and judges/spectators is allowed.
- This includes but is not limited to physical contact, distribution of props (candy, beads, etc.)

- No glitter, confetti, or streamers are allowed.

- If any items are thrown into the air, they must land on the stage (must not float into the audience). The stage/performing area must be cleaned up immediately following the conclusion to that performance, all debris cleaned from floor.

- No one is allowed “backstage” before their allotted time slot.

- Small props are allowed onstage (anything that can be carried by hand), but all items must be cleared off of the stage after the group performs.

- Teams will be given 10 minutes to set up, perform, and remove all props from the stage.
  - In this 10 minute time frame, the actual “act” shall last no longer than 5 minutes.

This is at the discretion of the Greek Coordinator, faculty/staff representative, judges, and/or Greek Week Steering Committee members.

GREEK WEEK AWARDS

Date: Friday, March 30
Time: During Lip Sync
Location: UC Theater

Description:
During Greek Week, the Greek Week Steering Committee will be watching to see which chapters exhibit characteristics of the Greek Week Awards. During Lip Sync, the winners of the Service Award, Sportsmanship Award, and Chapter Pride Award will be announced.

The criteria are as follows:

Service Award- attendance at Greeks Give Back and work-ethic during Sportsmanship Award- positive attitude and encouragement towards all during the week
Chapter Pride Award- the chapter that has the most pride overall.

The committee will be watching...
