ANSWERS TO COMMONLY ASKED COURSE POLICY QUESTIONS

1. What if I miss an assignment/test/paper, etc.?

If you miss an assignment for an excused reason, you must email me appropriate documentation within 48 hours of missing the assignment.

I will not respond to emails about missed assignments/tests/paper, etc. unless the documentation is attached in the email.

Acceptable reasons (not limited to):

- Doctor's documented illness (note must include the days to be excused)
- You are a university athlete and have a game (you know how to document

this if it is you)

- Funeral of immediate family member (Notify me in advance and bring funeral program for documentation)

It is up to the instructor's discretion to amend this policy at any time. However, it is unlikely. If the documentation is submitted within 48 hours of missing the assignment, the instructor will reply with a timeline to makeup the assignment.

Unacceptable reasons:

- Not limited to: Internet outage, woke up feeling bad, car wouldn't start,
- booked a vacation, wedding, birth of a baby (unless it's your own), zombie apocalypse, you were at a rally for higher teacher pay

2. What if I am having an internet outage?

If you are experiencing an internet outage, here are some acceptable alternative:
All 3 of our UTTYLER campuses have computers and internet.

- Find a local retailer (coffee shop, restaurant) that offers free WiFi
- Go to your public library

Please do not email me if you are having an internet outage. I will not respond as there are many other reliable options for internet access.

3. What if I'm having trouble with Canvas and can't get my assignment/test/paper, etc. to submit?

- The only way I will accept an assignment via email is if it is accompanied by screen shots showing the completed assignment, the time stamp from your computer, AND the error message on Canvas. I will not accept it after the due date or without the above mentioned documentation. Please do not ask for special consideration.
- Forgetting your password is not an acceptable reason for having Canvas issues.

4. Will you round my grade up?

Simply put, no. I have to have somewhere to cut off. Please do not ask me to round your grade. If I afforded you that luxury, I'd have to do the same for everyone else. My goal is to be fair.

5. Do you give extra credit?

Yes! I will send out an extra credit assignment the week before exams. It goes to everyone. That way, it is an equal opportunity assignment. Everyone gets the chance to earn the same number of extra points. If you email me asking for a separate extra credit assignment just for you, I will void all extra credit for you in the course.

6. Will you move an assignment/test/paper, etc. due date for me?

I'd love to make accommodations for everyone who asks. However, I have so many students and do not want to be put in the position to decide whose event is more important that would warrant a change in date. I do offer a drop grade (see syllabus for more details) that will help if you miss an assignment for an unexcused reason (see above). P.S. I am not allowed to move the final exam date AT ALL. The university sets those dates.

Please note, most all assignments are open for an entire week. Please start early. I'm not standing by on the weekends to help with submissions or technical problems.

The book report is open for almost the entire semester. There should be no reason this assignment is tardy.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies:

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid State-Mandated Course Drop Policy:

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
