It is important to take the necessary precautions to ensure a healthy and successful year. UT Tyler continues to urge you to protect yourselves against the flu, COVID and any new threats that may be developing. Be diligent about preventive measures such as washing hands, covering sneezes/coughs, social distancing and vaccinations, which have proven to be successful in slowing the spread of viruses. Encourage those who don't feel well to stay home, and if they show symptoms, ask them to get tested for the flu or COVID. Self-isolation is important to reduce exposure (CDC quarantine/isolation guidelinesLinks to an external site.). Please work with your faculty members to maintain coursework and please consult existing campus resourcesLinks to an external site. for support.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Art 2303 is an introductory survey course focusing on artworks from Prehistoric, Mesopotamian, Egyptian, Greek, Roman, Early Christian, Byzantine, Islamic, and Early to Late Medieval European cultures. The iconography, stylistic development, cultural and historical context of various sculptures, paintings and architecture will be studied, as well as their religious and material functions within society. The course will consist of lectures by the professor (responded to by students in discussion), assigned readings, papers, quizzes and a group assignment. Bonus assignments will be available for extra credit. No exams.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: This course aims to provide a chronological account of the history of art. It seeks to develop visual literacy through the analysis of works of art, and to develop critical thinking skills through lectures, readings, writing assignments and online discussions. Quizzes, a group project and two writing assignments, including a formal analysis, will test the student's general knowledge of information gained from course lectures and text.

Core Course Student Learning Outcomes are: by the end of this course students should be able to...

- THINK CRITICALLY: Critical thinking skills include (but are not limited to) creative thinking, innovation, inquiry and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
 - Students will learn to critically analyze works of art and architecture from the Pre-Historic to the Late Medieval period. They will learn how to analyze form (composition, technique, color, light/shadow) to determine how these elements work together to create meaning in art and architecture. Critical thinking skills will be assessed through two short papers and quiz questions.

- COMMUNICATE ABOUT ART USING ART HISTORICAL METHODOLOGIES: Communication skills include (but are not limited to) effective development, interpretation and extemporaneous expression of ideas through written and oral communication.
 - Students will analyze works of art, current scholarship, and contemporary methodologies through assigned readings and class discussion. Students will be assessed through quiz questions.

- WORK IN TEAMS: Teamwork skills include (but are not limited to) the ability to consider different points of view and work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.
 - Students will be organized into groups to prepare and present an online exhibition of sculpture in order to compare and contrast works of art and demonstrate an understanding of formal elements and historical context. Teamwork skills will be assessed through the group project and self / peer assessment.

- BE SOCIALLY RESPONSIBLE BY UNDERSTANDING ART WITHIN CULTURAL AND HISTORICAL CONTEXTS: Social responsibility skills include (but are not limited to) intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities. Students will recognize the historical/cultural importance of objects, buildings, or place and the necessity of preservation.

- Students will develop a knowledge base of multiple cultures and understand how ethnic, racial, cultural, and gender issues are present within works of art. Students will be assessed through class discussion and quiz questions.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION: Attending class, viewing of the video lectures, and participation in online and in-class discussions are required. Students should attend class and participate in discussion. Students will lose points if they do not contribute to class discussions (earn a zero). The professor will ask questions in class or in the video lectures, students will respond to the questions, or with a relevant comment. Discussion responses are graded on a scale of 0 – 5 points. Total participation grade is 20% of the semester end grade. Students who miss a class or do not watch ALL OF THE ONLINE VIDEO and respond to discussion will earn zero points for that assignment.

READING ASSIGNMENTS: should be completed before the lectures for which they are assigned. A course calendar with assigned readings will not be handed out in class because they are posted on Canvas. Be prepared to discuss the readings in class.

QUIZZES: There will be nine (9) quizzes (5% each, totaling 45% of the final grade). Quizzes will be done on CANVAS and consist of image identification, multiple choice questions, true/ false questions, and possibly comparisons and/or short essays. For the ID section, students will need to be able to identify the following about architecture/ artworks: (1) title, (2) artist/architect/patron, (3) date, (4) period (Early Classical Greek, Roman Republic, Gothic, etc.), (5) materials, and (6) location (if in situ). Each quiz will cover only the material since the previous quiz (in other words, no cumulative exams or final). A study sheet with a list of images is posted on CANVAS. See course calendar or "Modules" section of Canvas for dates of the quizzes.

TWO PAPERS: One Critical Response Paper on extra reading assignments (10 % of total grade, length: 2-3 pages). Reading will be posted on Canvas, AND

One Formal Analysis Paper (15% of final grade) of an artwork, seen in-person or by visiting an approved museum gallery website; guidelines will be provided, approx. 8 pages – single spaced using template. NO LATE PAPERS ARE ACCEPTED.

GROUP PROJECT: A group project will be assigned and take place in class. Students may request which group they would like to be in; however, ultimately the instructor will assign group participants. In addition to participating in the group project, students must complete a self-assessment to receive credit for the group assignment. (10%)

SUBMISSION OF ASSIGNMENTS: Students are expected to keep an extra copy of all assignments turned into the instructor on their computers. The professor will only accept papers uploaded onto Canvas in the assignment area, which checks for plagiarism with Turn-it-in.com. Please do not email any assignments to the instructor.

A course calendar with quiz and assignment due dates is located on CANVAS.

1. "Verbal harassment may consist of threats, insults, epithets, ridicule, personal attacks, or the categories of harassing sexual speech set forth in Series 200 of the Handbook of Operating Procedures, and is often based on the victim's appearance, personal characteristics, or group membership, including but not limited to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, disability, citizenship, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, ideology, political views, or political affiliation."
1. "The harassment that this section prohibits does not exhaust the category of speech that is unnecessary and inappropriate to vigorous debate in a diverse community of educated people. An essential part of higher education is to learn to separate substantive argument from personal offense, and to express even the deepest disagreements within standards of civility that reflect mutual respect, understanding, and sensitivity among the diverse population within the University and in the larger society."

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: all cheating and/or plagiarism will be treated with the utmost severity as per UT Tyler policy. Using artificial intelligence (A.I.), such as CHAT GPT (or any other AI chatbot), is considered plagiarism as it is not your own work. DO NOT USE

A.I.! THIS COURSE IS INTENDED TO DEVELOP CRITICAL THINKING AND RESEARCH SKILLS – THEREFORE YOU NEED TO DO THE WORK YOURSELF! Please consult A Student Guide to Conduct and Discipline at UT Tyler (available in the Office of Student Affairs) for university regulations regarding academic dishonesty: “3.22 Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts.” PLAGIARIZED PAPERS (any amount) WILL RECEIVE AN AUTOMATIC ZERO “0”- NO CREDIT !

Plagiarize \ˈpla-je-,riz also j - -\ vb -rized; -riz-ing vt [plagiary]: to steal and pass off (the ideas or words of another) as one's own : use (a created production) without crediting the source vi: to commit literary theft: present as new and original an idea or product derived from an existing source - pla-gia-riz-er n

From: Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary 9th ed, (Springfield, Ma: Merriam 1981), 870.

- It is unacceptable to copy something out of a book, newspaper, journal, Internet site or any printed source without citing your source. The most blatant example of this is directly copying something word for word. This includes artificial intelligence programs. It does not matter if it is only a phrase. If it is not yours, you must either not use it or place it in quotes and reference it.
- If you paraphrase another person's words or ideas, you still must cite them as a source. Do not put a paraphrase in quotes, but be sure to give the author's name, the text and the page where you found the idea. (Use normal citation format.)
- In the “Critical Response Papers” in which all citations are from one single source given to you by the professor, you still must use Chicago Manual citation format in a footnote to cite the author. You will be required to do some outside research to find out information about the author. This source must be cited, both in the footnote and in the bibliography. Online sources also require an accession date (date you viewed it)

IMPORTANT DATES:

September 8, 2025 Census Day: last day to withdraw from class and not receive a “w” on your transcript

November 4, 2025

Last day to drop classes (no refund of tuition or fees)
