Course Description:

The Undergraduate Internship Program is a 16 week internship with an approved professional art institution, such as The Tyler Museum or Art, other museum, art gallery or research facility, that provides for a learning experience in an off-campus environment. Students will participate in practical and general training experiences in the workplace, under the direction of on an external field supervisor in conjunction with the university instructor. It is intended to give the student an opportunity to apply theory, expand knowledge, and gain experience in the museum, gallery or research fields.

Course Requirements:

- 1) The course requires that the student work for 10 hours a week at an off-campus location. The internship may be paid or unpaid.
- 2) The course requires instructor consent and must be approved by the Department of Art & Art History Chair, as well as a field supervisor at the off-campus site.
- 3) The course is credit / no credit, 3 hours of undergraduate art history upper-level credit; may be repeated once using alternate course number.
- 4) Student must hold a 3.0 GPA in order to apply for the internship.

Course Prerequisites: consent of instructor

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Historical Identification: Students will be able to identify historical periods and stylistic development of significant artworks from the canon of historical periods customary in Western or Non-Western traditions.

Interpretation of Artworks: Students will be able to interpret works of art from formal or conceptual perspectives.

Analysis Using Art Historical Theory: Students will be able to apply art historical theory to an analysis of works of art.

Synthesize Knowledge: Students will be able to synthesize knowledge to incorporate different perspectives into their scholarship.

Scholarly Research Methods: Students will be able to conduct basic scholarly research utilizing standards and methods of the discipline.

Recommended Texts (not required):

Enrollment Procedure:

- 1) Consult with academic supervisor of the appropriate department before registration in order to define the goals and objectives of the proposed internship.
- 2) Fill out the Internship Application form and create a professional c.v. in consultation with your academic supervisor.
- 3) Attend an on-site interview with the field supervisor and obtain his or her signature on the Internship Application form.
- 4) Complete the Internship Agreement form by obtaining the signature of the department chair. Submit the completed form to the Department of Art + Art History.
- 5) Enroll for credit during the normal registration period.

Evaluation Process:

- 1) Student
 - a. Complete a written journal of activities during the internship period. This journal must contain the date and hours worked and include a summary of daily activities, skills acquired, tasks completed, insights gained, and reflections on the experience.
- 2) Academic Supervisor
 - a. Maintain close contact with student in order to help the intern maximize the learning experience, to provide consistency, and to aid the student in the critical evaluation of the internship experience.
 - b. Maintain contact with the field supervisor ordinarily through at least two on site visits and/or other contacts in order to aid in the evaluation of the student performance.
- 3) Field Supervisor
 - a. Provide written evaluations of the student's on-the-job performance at the conclusion of the internship period. (Evaluations should be forwarded to the academic supervisor.)

Final Grade:

This is a 'credit' / 'no-credit' course. The Academic Supervisor, in consultation with the Field Supervisor, will determine the final grade of 'credit' or 'no credit'. Excessive absences, tardiness, or unprofessional behavior are not acceptable professional practices and will result in a negative or 'no credit' final grade.
