Seminar Description (from the 2018 – 2019 Undergraduate/Graduate Catalog)

An examination of the relationship between communication and culture. The general concepts of intercultural communication, intercommunity communication, and relevant contrast-cultural and ethnic groups are examined. Designed to satisfy the multicultural requirements for elementary and secondary teachers.

Seminar Perspective

This course adopts an interpretive, or rhetorical, perspective to the investigation of intercultural communication. This is to say that the course proceeds from the assumption that “culture” is manifested and transmitted symbolically through language, media, and non-verbal communication and that symbolic markers of “culture” exist in context. As such, speeches, language patterns, films, and other signifiers are viewed in the course as indexes of cultural values, worldviews, and identities. Likewise, the seminar uses rhetorical perspectives to explore cultural meanings. The course attends especially to national, ethnic, racial, and religious expressions of culture. The course also introduces students to prominent theories in intercultural communication studies.

Required Seminar Materials

Gannon, M.J. and Pillai, R. K. (2016). Understanding Global Cultures: Metaphorical Journeys through 34 Nations, Clusters of Nations, & Diversity, 6th ed. Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage Publications.

Other required readings and videos are available on Canvas or by handout.

Student Learning Objectives

During this course, students should:

1. Become familiar with the study of intercultural communication from the interpretive perspective.
2. Discover the importance of the roles of context in ascribing meaning to intercultural communication.
3. Recognize the influence of their own cultural groups on intercultural communication interactions.
4. Apply intercultural communication concepts/theories to media representations of interactions involving members of different cultures.
5. Become more sensitive to the complexity of intercultural interactions.
6. Become more willing, self-reflective, flexible, and open communicators in intercultural communication interactions.

ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING (for Undergraduates)

(Guidelines for each of the assignments will be provided at the appropriate time.)

Chapter Responses	20%
Cultural Identity Narrative Analysis Paper and Presentation	20%

Values and Metaphoric Analysis Paper and Presentation	20%
Film Analysis	20%
Final Exam	20%
TOTAL:	100%

ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING (for Graduate Students)

(Guidelines for each of the assignments will be provided at the appropriate time.)

Chapter Responses	20%
Theory Presentation	20%
Values and Metaphoric Analysis Paper and Presentation	20%
Research Paper	20%
Final Exam	20%
TOTAL:	100%

For each graded assignment, students will receive an A, B, C, D, or F. Each of these letter grades corresponds with a number value: an A carries a numeric value of 4, a B is worth 3, C is worth 2, D is worth 1, and F is worth 0. To calculate your grade, multiply 4, 3, 2, 1, or 0 that corresponds with your letter grade by the percentage value (above) of a given exercise. For example, if you receive a B for the “Final Exam,” you would multiply 3—which corresponds with a B—by 20% and you would get a .60 for that assignment. At the end of the semester, to calculate your final grade, you would add each of the scores and divide by 100. Final grades will be awarded as follows:

Numeric Grade Values

A	=	4
B	=	3
C	=	2
D	=	1
F	=	0

If your grade falls between two numbers (e.g., between a 3 and a 2), you will receive the grade corresponding with the lower number (in this case, a C, corresponding with 2) since technically you will not have achieved a B (a 3.0)

Seminar Policies and Procedures

Attendance: Attendance will be assessed according to your completion of weekly assignments and other exercises by designated due dates.

Course Format:

This course is being administered online and asynchronously.

Course Assignments: (Expectations of particular assignments will be provided at the announcement of each respective assignment).

Academic Integrity: Honesty and integrity are essential values in interpersonal and intercultural understanding, and you are expected to maintain these same ethical standards in all of your work in this class. Any betrayal of these values violates a basic expectation of the student’s performance in this class. Therefore, a student engaging in ANY form of academic dishonesty shall receive an automatic F at minimum for that assignment or examination. For a statement of the University of Texas at Tyler's policy on academic integrity, see "Student Responsibilities" in the 2018 – 2019 Undergraduate/Graduate Catalog.

Regarding Late Work: I DO NOT ACCEPT UNEXCUSED LATE WORK. Since one of the primary objectives expressed in the University's mission statement is that students "will act with honesty and integrity," I will enforce rigorous standards of honesty and personal responsibility. Work is considered late if work is not presented on the date assigned. Unexcused work receives a "O." Any exceptions to this policy—which would be very rare!—would be at my discretion; in this case, the student:

- must submit to me a written petition requesting that his/her absence be excused
- must show official documentation verifying the basis for absence
- must be prepared to present the missed work at the very first opportunity I make available after the student's return
- must provide appropriate documentation that his/her failure to complete the assignment on the assigned date was unavoidable
- may be penalized for failure to present work as assigned.

If you know in advance that you will not be able to be present on a particular date on which work has been assigned, please let me know well in advance of the due date for the work. Likewise, if you experience COVID-related hardships, please let me know.

Audio/Video Recording of class lectures is prohibited without prior approval. However, on occasion the instructor may arrange recording for instructional purposes.

Oral and Written Work: Assignments may have an oral and/or written components. Especially since this is a communication class, grading of oral and written work will consider quality and thoroughness of analysis, style, adherence to format, and proper mechanics (grammar, spelling, organization, clarity, cohesiveness). All work submitted to me should be typed and double-spaced. The quality of both your written and oral work will figure into your grade for the assignment.

Reading Assignments: In class lectures, I will ordinarily highlight portions—not the entirety—of the chapters assigned in your readings. However, you are responsible for the entire contents of all chapters and may be tested on any portions of those readings.

"Outside" Participation: Because much of what this course teaches is learned in personal reflection and application, some activities or preparation for in-class activities take place outside of class.

Email Etiquette:

In an effort to restore civility in communication, I ask that you demonstrate courtesy in all of your correspondence with me by opening your email with a courteous salutation such as, "Hi, Dr. Cali," or "Good morning, Professor Cali" or something similar. Please do not send a message without such a greeting.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract. The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)

Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance.
