Assignment Policy

1. Assignments do have deadlines and these deadlines need to be met. You will need to submit each assignment via Canvas before the due time.
2. Assignments and due dates may be changed at the instructor's discretion with fair notice to students.
3. Some assignments stay open beyond the due date. If you submit an assignment late, your grade will be lowered by a set number of points each day that the assignment is late. The point values may vary depending on the assignment. See individual assignments for the length of time assignments stay open. Knowing when each assignment closes is your responsibility.

4. No make-up tests or quizzes will be allowed after tests close on Canvas.
5. Students must complete all assignments to pass the course. This does not mean that merely completing all assignments guarantees the student will pass the course.
6. Spelling, grammar, AP format, and neatness count.

Expectations and Classroom Etiquette (not all applicable to online course): We all approach courses with certain expectations. I expect you to:

1. Work hard – learning requires constant reading, researching, thinking, discussing, and working with your classmates and me. Everyone has something important to contribute. My job is to present new information and prepare a climate in which you can contribute your own special knowledge. Your job is to be prepared to contribute.
2. Participate – you must be an active part of the course to succeed. You will also have to give effort outside of class.
3. Display Classroom Courtesies
4. Talk, debate, ask questions, and challenge yourselves and each other, but stay on topic.
5. The use of cellphones is not allowed during class. I understand emergencies and the need to take a call or text. If you must take a call or respond to a text, please be discreet and quietly excuse yourself from the classroom. Scrolling through social media or utilizing other media during class is not allowed.
6. The use of cellphones for note taking is not allowed. Notes must be taken using a laptop or paper/pen/pencil. If I see you staring at a cellphone, I will ask you to put it away. The second time, I will remove your cellphone from your possession until the end of class.
7. Using class time to work on assignments for other classes or extracurricular activities is not permitted. Not only does this take away your presence in the class you are attending, it is disrespectful to both me as the professor and your other classmates. If it is found that you are utilizing my class time to work on assignments for other courses or extracurricular activities, you will be asked to stop. If the issue arises again, I reserve the right to ask you to leave the classroom for the remaining time.
8. I use Canvas and email to communicate, post assignments and readings, present feedback and provide a space for you to communicate with your classmates. I expect you to check both daily and stay aware of what is coming up.
9. Communicate - If you have a problem with anything throughout the semester... getting an assignment in on time, needing to be absent from a class, getting your book, checking out equipment, or anything I'm doing as a professor... talk to me about it.
10. Hold me to the same standards and expectations that I hold you to.

Attendance and Tardiness Policy: Lectures and participation are vital to the learning process in this course; therefore, students are expected to attend class. If you do not attend class, you cannot participate in group discussions and will miss important elements discussed during lectures. Additionally, if you miss a quiz due to an absence, the quiz will not be allowed to be made up unless the absence is due to extreme, uncontrollable circumstance. I expect you to handle your attendance in this course as a responsible adult.

Coming to class late or leaving early is distracting to your classmates and myself. Additionally, this results in you missing important information that might be provided during the beginning or end of the meeting. If you must come late or leave early, please be respectful to your classmates and myself and do so quietly and with as little distraction as possible.

See the current UT Tyler catalog for the university's policy on student responsibility for missed classes and assignments. Be familiar with the university's drop policy. Students who anticipate being absent from class due to religious observance or university-sponsored activities should inform the instructor by the second course meeting.

The university census date is January 27, 2020.

Academic Honesty Policy: Students will adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Anyone caught cheating will earn a "0" for that assignment and will be subject to academic and disciplinary action. Plagiarism (the use of written and oral words or ideas of another person, including another student, without the expressed acknowledgment of the speaker's or writer's indebtedness to that person) will not be tolerated. This includes the use of papers or other materials previously submitted to instructors in other classes, as well as video and audio recordings. Students caught plagiarizing will fail this class and be subject to academic and disciplinary action. PLAIGIARISM WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

Course Withdrawal: The last date to withdraw from classes without penalty is March 30, 2019.

H. Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies:

1. Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Spring, the Census Date is Jan. 27) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.
2. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.
3. The Census Date (Jan. 27th) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).
