

Marketable Skills for Academic Degree Programs

Degree and Major: MA in English

After completing the MA in English degree program at UT Tyler, the student can

Soft Skills:	Hard Skills:	Unique Features of Program (what separates UT Tyler's program from others)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Address challenging problems and issues through: creative thinking, inquiry, innovation, analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information including numerical data or observable facts. 	Advanced research and critical thinking skills Advanced skills of discovering problems Advanced skills of critical analysis of information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Capstone course where a student completes a publishable scholarly project under the mentorship of two faculty members. • Career supports throughout the entire degree program.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Respond in an ethical manner by connecting data, behavior, choices, consequences to ethical theories. 	Provide advanced data processing and interpretation of information Professionalism
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communicate ideas effectively through written, oral, and visual delivery modes. 	Advanced analytical writing skills Writing creatively Advanced skills in written communication
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work effectively in teams. 	Collaboration
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advance the human condition through learned international cultural competence, knowledge of civil responsibility, and a foundational knowledge of human behavior. 	Provide advanced analysis of human conditions and civilization Teach literature and writing at the college level.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Milestone program in College English Studies where students develop ability to teach college English courses, including literature and writing.

\