Course Descriptions and Learning Outcomes

Per the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board Lower-Division Academic Course Guide Manual Spring 2020:

Course Description

Intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing research-based expository and persuasive texts. Emphasis on effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry, including primary and secondary research methods; critical reading of verbal, visual, and multimedia texts; systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions.

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative research processes
- Develop ideas and synthesize primary and secondary sources within focused academic arguments, including one or more research-based essays
- Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence
- Write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action
- Apply the conventions of style manuals for specific academic disciplines (e.g., APA, CMS, MLA, etc.)

In compliance with the state mandated course description and learning outcomes, UT Tyler describes English 1302 as per the following:

Catalog Course Description

This course familiarizes students with writing in academic disciplines through critical reading and writing under supervision. Students develop writing skills through analysis and evaluation of rhetorical conventions of academic writing in and beyond their own disciplines.

Learning Outcomes from Reading and Writing about the Disciplines

Upon Completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Recognize the rhetorical conventions characteristic of writing in a discipline they wish to pursue as a major
- Review, analyze, and evaluate writing in the disciplines for a designated purpose
- Use the style of writing and documentation appropriate to the discipline
- Summarize, paraphrase, and synthesize texts accurately and effectively
- Select and incorporate material from sources professionally

Announcements in Canvas

I will use announcements in Canvas to communicate essential information. It is your responsibility to read and utilize information in announcements.

For a tutorial on announcements, click here. To manage notifications, click on “Canvas notifications” in the blue box at the top of the page. For help in resetting notifications, click on the help button on the left-hand side of your UTT Canvas home page (the question mark in a circle) and call the “Canvas Support Hotline (Students).”

Contacting Me

To contact me, use UTT email or Canvas messenger. Per the UTT Email Policy, I will not reply to emails sent from non-UTT email addresses.

Emails and Canvas messages should provide a succinct overview of the topic and be written using complete sentences and reasonably correct grammar. In the subject line list the class (ENGL-1302-your section number), your name, and a topic.

Course Grade

Table One: Course Grade Calculation

Component	Percent of Course Grade
Summary	10%
Rhetorical Analysis	15%
Compare & Contrast Rhetorical Analysis	20%
Proposal	5%
Rhetorical Review	25%
End-of—Semester Reflection	10%
Engagement	10%
Information Literacy Quizzes	5%
Total	100%

Course Grade Scale

- A 90% to 100% of possible points
- B 80% to 89% of possible points
- C 70% to 79% of possible points
- D 60% to 69% of possible points
- F 0% to 59% of possible points

The Projects

The summary is over a writing-related article. The rhetorical analysis is an analysis of a scholarly article in your field. The compare and contrast rhetorical analysis is an analysis of two scholarly articles. The proposal is on the topic for the rhetorical review. The rhetorical review is a review of recent scholarship on a topic that you are interested in. The end-of-semester reflection is a reflection on what you learned over the course of the semester. Detailed information on projects will be provided in class and via documents in Canvas.

Engagement Work

Engagement work is submitting drafts of the projects as required and contributing to discussion board threads. We will go over engagement work in video lectures.

Engagement work that meets expectations and is submitted on time is graded. Engagement work that does not meet expectations and/or is not submitted on time is graded as a zero.

Revision/Late Policy

We will work on projects incrementally leading to a graded draft. The initial graded drafts of the summary, rhetorical analysis, compare and contrast rhetorical analysis, and the proposal can be revised for a potential higher grade. The rhetorical review and end-of-semester reflection cannot be revised as those projects are at the end of the semester. I will not accept late work unless there are extenuating circumstances.

Exceptions

There may be situations, illness for example, which warrant an exception to the revision and late policy. When you know that you will submit an assignment that does not meet expectations, or that you will not submit by the deadline, notify me as soon as possible and tell me why. I will determine if an exception is appropriate.

Notifying me before the deadline and submitting work that is at least 50% complete makes an exception more likely. Recurring late or incomplete work precludes exceptions. Documentation from a health care provider may be required to verify that a student or someone who they care for is sick or must isolate.

Submitting Written Work

To be counted for a grade, written work has to be submitted as a Word document in the appropriate drop box in Canvas. If I cannot open your work, it is late. Do not zip your files or submit a PDF. For a free copy of Microsoft Office, including Word, click here.

Extra-Credit Work

There is no extra credit work in this course.

Academic Dishonesty & Disruptive Behavior

This class has a Zero Tolerance Policy for academic dishonesty. Any act of academic dishonesty will result in immediate failure of the entire course and will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Intervention.

Students who engage in disruptive behavior will be required to leave the class. Disruptive behavior will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Intervention. The policy on disruptive behavior applies to face-to-face and Zoom class sessions.

Disruptive behavior includes but is not limited to: using a cellphone, laptop, or other device for purposes other than working on the current class activity; not engaging in the current class activity; sleeping in class, talking with other students for purposes other than working on the current class activity; talking when the professor is addressing the class; excessive lateness; and leaving early.

For the UTT definition of “academic dishonesty,” go to the UT Tyler Syllabus Module in Canvas, click on “University Policies and Information,” scroll to the “Academic Honesty and Academic Misconduct” section, click on “Student Conduct and Discipline policy,” and read Section 8-802

“Academic Dishonesty.” For the UTT policy on disruptive behavior, see item number four, “Disruptive Behavior,” in section 8-804 (Certain Other Offenses) in the “Student Conduct and Discipline” policy.

Syllabus Changes

Per the UTT Syllabus policy: “The information contained in the syllabus, other than the grading criteria and absence and make-up policies, may be subject to change with reasonable advance notice as long as the change is without prejudice to the students.”
