No later than the 13th week of the semester preceding your GIS[1]—Recruit an ENGL 5397 (Graduate Integrative Study) Committee: two graduate faculty members whose names appear on the Approved List (see the EGSA website). Ask one member to serve as the director and the other as the reader of your GIS. Unless requested to do otherwise at the suggestion or with the permission of the director, the reader will participate only in evaluating the exit examination and the course paper.

_____ After April 1 of the preceding semester or November 1 of the preceding semester but no later than the 13th week of the preceding semester— Complete the GIS Permission to Enroll Form located on the EGSA website and email it to the graduate advisor, currently Dr. Carolyn Tilghman, at englishma@uttyler.edu. Upon receipt of the form, the graduate advisor will review your degree plan and verify that you are eligible to enroll. After verification of eligibility, the graduate advisor will forward your approved Permission to Enroll Form to the Department of Literature and Languages administrative assistant, currently Ms. Holland at mholland@uttyler.edu. Ms. Holland will then email you an individual course code for enrolling in your GIS section.

_____ During registration April/May for fall GIS enrollment or November/December for spring GIS enrollment— Enroll in ENGL 5397 GIS using the individual course code assigned to you by Ms. Holland.

_____ No later than the 15th week of the semester preceding your GIS—Provide your GIS director with a tentative reading list of approximately 20 works pertinent to the intended GIS research topic.² If you are using a seminar paper from an earlier graduate course as a springboard for your GIS paper, you may include texts cited in that paper.

During the Semester of the GIS:

_____ Week 1 or 2 of the semester of GIS enrollment³ – In conjunction with your director, submit a short paper proposal/plan (of approx. 250-500 words) for developing a GIS course paper if you are expanding and refining a seminar paper from a previous graduate course OR submit a brief paper proposal/plan for composing an original paper if you elect to write a new paper based on previous graduate English coursework rather than expand an earlier paper.

_____ Week 5—Submit a working annotated bibliography. (Typically, it consists of at least 20 texts that include primary sources and scholarly secondary sources such as books, book chapters, and scholarly articles).

_____ Week 7—Submit an 8-10 page polished draft of the historical-bibliographical essay (literature review).

_____ Week 10—Provide a substantive draft of an in-progress GIS paper if requested by your director.

_____ Submit an initial draft of five self-generated prompts/questions for the take-home GIS exit exam.

_____ Week 11—In conjunction with your director, submit the final draft of five potential prompts/questions for the take-home GIS exit exam.

_____ Week 12 (spring semester) or Week 11 or 13 (fall semester)⁴—The week before your scheduled GIS exit exam contact your director to ascertain if you have approval to sit for the exam.

_____ Week 13 (spring semester) or Week 12 or 14 (fall semester)⁴—An electronic copy of your GIS exit exam will be sent via email Friday at 5:00 pm. Make certain you know how to contact your director in the event you fail to receive the examination.

_____ Week 14—No later than 8:00 am Monday, submit electronic copy of your completed GIS exam per your director's instructions. Your director will forward a copy of the exam to your reader.

_____ Week 15—Submit the final draft of your GIS course paper per your director's instructions.

_____ Final week of the semester—Via email, submit a clean ELECTRONIC COPY of the completed GIS Course Portfolio to the Director of English Graduate Studies (currently Dr. Tilghman) at englishma@uttyler.edu. The Portfolio should include: GIS paper proposal, historical-bibliographic essay, annotated bibliography, five finalized exam prompts, copy of completed GIS exit exam, GIS course paper, and any other materials requested by your GIS director.

[1] Secure a director and a reader as early as possible.

² Assignments should be submitted only to your director who will forward them as required to your reader.

³ Scheduled due dates may be somewhat modified by your director.

⁴ Week 13 typically falls on Thanksgiving Break. In consultation with your director, the GIS exam may be scheduled for either Week 12 or Week 14 during the fall semester. Week 12 allows more time for the completion of the GIS paper.
