Course Description

Designed for students who have completed at least 6 hours of French or have equivalent competence in French. This course is accelerated and intended to reinforce the material learned in previous French courses. We will review all of the French grammar seen during the first year of French and build up vocabulary, conversation, reading, and writing skills. You will expand proficiency through coursework, homework, and practice using the target language. You will further develop a deeper understanding of the diverse aspects of societies and cultures in the Francophone world.

Course Structure

This course is 100% online and follows a 15-week schedule divided into five-unit modules.

Each module includes multiple lessons and assignments with weekly deadlines.

Expected Outcomes

By the end of the course, students should understand the main ideas of what they hear, see, and read in French. They should also be able to interact successfully on an intermediate level in both oral and written contexts. In addition to these linguistic skills, students should have a deeper understanding of the diverse aspects of societies and cultures in francophone areas of the world.

Reading: Understand texts that consist mainly of high-frequency everyday language. Understand the description of events, feelings, and wishes.

Writing: Write clear and detailed texts to defend their point of view on many subjects, describing experiences and impressions.

Listening: Understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters encountered in school, restaurants, leisure, doctor visits, vacations, etc.

Spoken interaction: Deal with most situations likely to arise while traveling in an area where French is spoken. They can enter unprepared into conversation on familiar topics.

Spoken production: Connect phrases to describe experiences/events and their dreams, hopes, and ambitions. They can briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.

Minimum Technology Requirements and required skills

This course includes required digital components. To participate, students need a reliable computer equipped with a speaker, webcam, and stable Internet access to view course videos on Canvas or YouTube. Students are expected to be proficient in using Canvas and Cengage MindTap (see the MindTap – Getting Started video on Canvas). This course contains numerous external links; students must contact the instructor immediately if they encounter any issues accessing any link.

MindTap Assignments : Students will complete short assignments via MindTap (Cengage). Learning a foreign language requires constant practice. MindTap will guide students through the material and position them to make the most of the instruction and interactions in the same fashion as during class meetings. MindTap will provide both iterative content which reveals errors and indicates areas of improvement and audio components which provide speaking and pronunciation practice.

Discussion Forums : Students will watch videos, read short paragraphs from our textbook related to world cultures and societies where French is spoken, and answer questions. After their initial response, students will engage in the discussion by asking questions or adding comments to their classmates' posts. Designed to keep students connected, discussions are in English and French and students are expected to respond using complete sentences with substantive contributions and accurate information. Students are expected to use a proper tone and respect their classmates' opinions and responses.

Reading Comprehension: Reading plays a critical role in learning a foreign language. Throughout the semester, students will be asked to read authentic documents in French and answer questions adapted to the curriculum level. An online dictionary will be provided, and the assignment is, for the most part, a multiple-choice assessment in English.

Chapter Reviews: At the end of each chapter/module, students will complete a chapter review, a multiple-choice assignment covering the chapter's grammar and vocabulary points. There are unlimited attempts and no time limit. A helpful strategy is to answer the questions at least once from memory before looking at notes or the textbook for help.

Module quizzes: Each module/chapter will have four or five quizzes, respectively, on grammar, conjugation, vocabulary, and writing. Students must complete the chapter reviews before starting the module quizzes. The module quizzes are timed assignments and allow only one attempt for each quiz. Students should be well prepared before starting.

Recording: Students will turn in all their recordings on Canvas. Students must have a computer with a camera. The recording is submitted using Media Recording, which is directly recorded in Canvas with the camera on. A recording submitted without a camera will result in a grade of zero. The recordings will help students with their pronunciation, allow me to provide constructive feedback, and provide preparation for oral exams.

Oral Exam: Students will record themselves speaking and demonstrate their oral ability and pronunciation by reading short French texts. They will also demonstrate their comprehension level by answering questions from the readings and understanding and explaining grammatical structures. A recording submitted without a camera will result in a grade of zero.

Movie exercises: This semester, students will watch two French movies. Each Movie will have two exercises (Avant le film and Après le film). These movies aim to provide a cultural education that enriches language comprehension by showing a more natural form of the language.

Pour Aller Plus Loin: At the end of each module, students will have the opportunity to explore a selection of YouTube videos related to French history, culture, fashion, music, and more. After viewing all of the videos, students must choose the one that interests them the most and write a 150-word essay in English as part of the Module – Culture Réflexion assignment.

Final Exam: Students will take their final exam during the last week of the semester and have the entire week to complete it. The exam is comprehensive and covers chapters 7, 8, 9, and 10.

Extra credit: Students may earn extra credit by participating in designated Kahoot review games.

Assignment Policy

All homework assignments are due online through Canvas. Assessments have been organized to follow a pattern and facilitate planning and organization. Students are responsible for checking due dates and completing assignments on time. To successfully complete the assignments, you must carefully manage your time. Please plan to complete them well ahead of the due date.

At the end of the semester, I will drop the following grades (via Canvas Gradebook function):

- The lowest (1) recording score
- The lowest three (3) scores of Module Activities
- The lowest three (3) scores of Module quizzes
- The nine (9) lowest grades of the MindTap assignments

Late Work

Deadlines are expected to be followed to ensure consistent progress and timely completion of the course. Extensions will be granted only upon submission and approval of appropriate documentation (e.g., a doctor's note or university-approved absence).

Instructor Responsibilities and Feedback

My goal in this course is to provide an environment conducive to your learning. I will be available during office hours via Zoom. I welcome questions about any part of the course and will gladly clarify any issues. Most homework assignments are automatically graded. I prioritize grading quizzes, but my experience suggests it can take up to a week to get them back to you.

Syllabus Change Policy

This syllabus is subject to change. Any changes will be announced, and the updated syllabus will be posted in Canvas.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (Sept. 1) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.

- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Student Accessibility and Resources

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA) the University offers accommodations to students with learning, physical and/or psychological disabilities. If you have a disability, including non-visible disabilities such as a learning disorder, chronic illness, TBI, PTSD, ADHD or you have a history of modifications or accommodations in a previous educational environment, you are encouraged to visit <https://hood.accessiblelearning.com/UTTYLER> and fill out the New Student application. Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Everyone is required to exit the building when a fire alarm goes off. Follow your instructor's directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform your instructor in the first week of class. Do not re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire department, or Fire Prevention Services.

Student Standards of Academic Conduct

Disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against any student who engages in scholastic dishonesty, including, but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts.
