

Texas Government

POLS 2306 –Spring 2026
Online
3 Credit Hours [No Prerequisites Required]

Instructor: Mrs. Jill “Nikki” Carter

Email: Jcarter@uttyler.edu [preferred contact]

- In your email, please note which class you are in (example POLS 2306.061)
- Expect a response within 24 hours M-F or 48 hours on the weekends
- I will only reply to email from an official UT-Tyler email account

Office Location: CAS 122

Office Hours: Monday and Tuesday 1pm -2:30pm. Virtual Appointments available upon request with a 24-hour notice. Email is the quickest way to communicate, and I will make every effort to get back to you promptly. I encourage you to reach out if you have questions, concerns, or need any help as office hours are better thought of as student hours to help you to be more successful or get one on one time with your professors.

“I greet you as the shapers of American society.” – Lyndon B. Johnson

“You may all go to hell and I will go to Texas.” - Davy Crockett said this angrily after losing his Tennessee bid for the U.S. Congress.

Canvas:

This online class will be conducted through Canvas. If you experience any problems logging into Canvas or any technical problems with the system you should seek help from Campus Computing. They can be reached via email at itsupport@patriots.uttyler.edu. Please include your full name, student ID number and date of birth in any communications you send to them. If you experience any issues in Canvas, such as a locked module, you need to reach out to Canvas support and email me as well.

Course Description:

This course is an examination of the Texas political system, including its intellectual foundations and the design of the Constitution. It includes study of the major institutional factors, the impact of interest groups and the media, and the processes of policy-making. It may be taken in fulfillment of statutory requirements for a baccalaureate degree.

Content Objectives:

The primary goal is to successfully complete a required course with minimal pain and suffering while gathering useful information. To that end, after successfully completing this course, students should be able to demonstrate:

- To acquaint you with the study of political science, and
- To improve your understanding of the institutions and processes that govern Texas and other states, as well as the localities (such as cities and counties) within them.
- The student will become familiar with the historical antecedents which make up the political culture and regions of Texas.
- The student will learn to characterize the trends in Texas’ political history.
- The student will be able to trace the changing political partisan face of Texas from a one-party Democratic state to a state with a strong Republican party.
- The student will become cognizant of the changes facing Texas in ethnic diversity and population growth.

Important Note:

I encourage you to meet or correspond with me regularly if you would like to discuss or clarify lecture material, videos, or readings, or simply to talk about government or history more broadly. Please keep this in mind as we move through the semester.

Some semesters, life circumstances intervene in ways none of us expect. If you encounter difficulties, I am more than willing to talk with you about your options and to connect you with appropriate resources. In some cases, the challenges may be significant enough that you need to consider withdrawing from one or more courses. Education is vitally important, but there are moments when other priorities must come first, and only you can make that decision.

While I will always try to support you, I cannot evaluate you on how you manage personal circumstances. Your grade reflects your academic performance in this course, not the difficulties you may be navigating outside of it. I hope we all have a semester where these issues do not arise, but please know that I am here to help if they do.

Attendance and Late Work Policy

Regular attendance and engagement are essential to success in this course. You are expected to log into Canvas each week to work through the module content and complete the graded assignments. Simply logging in without engaging with course materials or completing assignments does not count as attendance, as it does not contribute meaningfully to your learning.

Each unit is organized by week, with all assignments due on a specified weekly due date (Friday at 11:59pm). This structure offers flexibility in how you manage your time throughout the week, but it is not intended to encourage waiting until the last minute to complete everything. Consistent weekly engagement will help you stay on track, build effective time management skills, and reduce stress.

If unexpected circumstances arise—such as illness, travel, or emergencies—you may submit late work under the following conditions:

- Late assignments (not exams) will be accepted for up to three days past the due date.
- A 25% deduction will be applied for each day the assignment is late.
- Assignments submitted more than three days late will receive a grade of zero (0).
- Late exams are not accepted for a grade. There are no make-up exams or alternative assignments given once a test has been missed. There are 5 exams given over the semester and one of them is dropped. If you miss an exam, then that will be your dropped test grade.

You may also work ahead within a unit if that schedule works best for you. Submitting work early does not violate the attendance policy and is strongly encouraged. Late work is not accepted for full credit.

If you have a computer issue, internet issue, or any other issue on the date an assignment is due is not an excuse for not completing the assignment on time and no additional points will be granted for late work. If you do the work early and an issue presents itself, then there is time for us to work together and resolve it so that you can submit the work by the due date. Unfortunately, each semester I have students who put off everything until the due date and sometime comes up or they run out of time. This causes you stress and harms your grade, I strongly encourage you NOT to risk this, but if you do, then you must accept those consequences.

Also, there are no make-up exams or alternative assignments given once a test has been missed. There are 5 exams given over the semester and one of them is dropped. If you miss an exam, then that will be your dropped test grade. If you miss multiple exams that are open for an extended period because of an emergency situation then I encourage you to reach out to the CARE team on campus for that they can help you and determine the best course of action. No provisions are made in this course for missing more than one test in a semester. If you are going to miss an exam because of a school activity, you must take the exam prior to the day the exam will be given, as they are open the entire time the unit is.

Required Reading and Materials:

Textbook: The textbook is a free PDF – Uncovering Texas Politics. You will also be given book chapters and other materials that will be uploaded onto Canvas. They are a required part of the course and you are responsible for the information presented in them. There is no official textbook for you to purchase.

Course Structure:

This course will be conducted in four units and there will be one exam over the material in each unit. There is also a comprehensive final exam. Each unit will be available for a limited period of time and late work is for full credit is not accepted once that deadline passed. Please see the attance policy below for more detauls and check Canvas for due date for assignemnts.

To enourage your own success, I suggest you to log on each week and complete work in a current module..Waiting until the last minute to do the assignments is not advised, can cause adfitional stress, and have a negative impact on your grade and or course work. For example, having a computer issue, internet issue, Canvas issue, or any other issue on the end of the day that assignments due is not an excuse for not completing them on time and no additional time will be granted to earn full credit on those assignments. On the other hand, if you do the work early and an issue presents itself, then there is time for us to work together and resolve it so that you can submit the work by the due date. The university has computer labs for you to use and most places have wifi you can access. You can also use your cellphone as a hot spot in many cases (I recently had to do this to complete some of my work on time because of a storm).

Online Quizzes:

There will be 12 quizzes, each consisting of 20 multiple-choice and true/false over the lectures, textbook, and other content for each chapter module. Each quiz is worth 20 points. Quizzes are designed to help familiarize you with at least some of the important material that will be on the exams and to make sure you are reading. These quizzes are open book and open note and you have two chances to take them. These quizzes count for a total of 240 points.

Online Assignments:

There will be 16 of these over the course of the semester and they will be worth 3 points each. There is one assignment that is worth 2 points and one worth 5 points. Total points available is 55.

Online Exams:

There will be four-unit tests and a final exam (5 total). Each exam will consist of a mixture multiple choice and true/false questions for a total of 100 points. There is a study guide posted for each exam. If you miss a test, there are no make-up exams given for individual exams. At the end semester, students who missed an exam will take the final exam as a grade replacement. Students who did not miss one have the option to take the final to replace another test grade and try to improve their score. Basically, no matter how you make it work, there are 5 exams and 4 count towards your final grade. See schedule below for due dates. Test count for a total of 400 points.

An important note - Respondus lockdown browser software is required for exams (not quizzes) this semester. Exams are NOT open book or open note and outside resources, like google, are not allowed. To ensure academic honesty, you must complete the quizzes for each module before taking the exam, or else you will be given a 0 on the test. The exams are timed and once you answer a question, you cannot go back to it and there is a time limit.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Usage Statement:

UT Tyler is committed to exploring and using artificial intelligence (AI) tools as appropriate for the discipline and task undertaken. We encourage discussing AI tools' ethical, societal, philosophical, and disciplinary implications. All uses of AI should be acknowledged as this aligns with our commitment to honor and integrity, as noted in UT Tyler's Honor Code. Faculty and students must not use protected information, data, or copyrighted materials when using any AI tool. Additionally, users should be aware that AI tools rely on predictive models to generate content that may appear correct but is sometimes shown to be incomplete, inaccurate, taken without attribution from other sources, and/or biased. Consequently, an AI tool should not be considered a substitute for traditional approaches to research. You are ultimately responsible for the quality and content of the information you submit. Misusing AI tools that violate the guidelines specified for this course (see below) is considered a breach of academic integrity. The student will be subject to disciplinary actions as outlined in UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy.

AI Usage Policy for This Course

The use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools—such as ChatGPT, Microsoft Copilot, Grammarly, and similar technologies—is permitted only on assignments where AI use is explicitly allowed in the instructions.

Permitted Use

You may use AI tools only on assignments that clearly state AI assistance is allowed.

When AI use is permitted, you must follow all instructions regarding how to document your use (e.g., including the prompt, tool used, and how you used it).

Prohibited Use

AI tools are not allowed on any assignments, quizzes, or exams that assess your individual understanding of course content and materials.

This includes—but is not limited to—essays, exams, and take-home assessments unless otherwise specified.

Grammar and writing assistants (e.g., Grammarly) are also considered AI tools and are subject to the same restrictions.

Academic Integrity

Using AI tools on assignments where they are not permitted will be considered a violation of the academic integrity policy and may result in disciplinary action.

Couse Points Breakdown:

Online Quizzes: 240 pts

Online Assignments: 55pts

Four exams – 400 pts

690 points total

Final Grade Scale:

More than 89.5% of total points available = A
79.5% - 89.4% of pts = B
69.5% – 79.4% of pts = C
59.5% - 69.4% of pts = D
Below 59.5% of total points available = F

Course Schedule: Check Canvas for Due DatesGetting Started and UNIT 1*Readings:

- ! The Getting Started Module –Week 1
- ! Module 1: Texas Political Culture and Diversity – Week 2 and 3
- ! Module 2: Texas in the Federal System and the Texas Constitution and Exam #1- Week 3 and 4

Assignments and Exam: check Canvas for specific assignments for and due dates – 1st exam - Census date end of week 2

UNIT 2Readings:

- ! Module 3: Voting and Elections – Week 5
- ! Module 4: Political Parties – Week 6
- ! Module 5: Interest Groups and Exam #2 – Week 7

Assignments and Exam: check Canvas for specific assignments and due dates – 2nd exam

UNIT 3Readings:

- ! Module 7: The Legislature – Week 8
- ! Module 8: The Executive – Week 9
- ! Module 9: The Judiciary – Week 10

Assignments and Exam: check Canvas for specific assignments and due dates - 3rd exam - Last day to drop a class is 3/28

UNIT 4Readings:

- ! Module 10: Law and Due Process Week 11 and 12
- ! Module 11: Local Government – Week 13
- ! Module 12: Public Policy and Test 4 - Week 14

Assignments and Exam: check Canvas for specific assignments and due dates – 4th exam

Final exam – Required for students who missed another exam, optional for those who took all four Unit tests and want to try and replace another test. The final will not harm your grade! – Week 15

Online Classroom Conduct/Decorum:

Practice decorum and decency in all discussion posts and communication with fellow students and the instructor. More than one offense will result in possible dismissal from the class. For further reading on Internet decorum, I recommend that you take a look at UT-Tyler's "Netiquette" Guide.

Syllabus Notice:

The instructor reserves the right to alter the syllabus; however, students will be given ample warning to any possible changes.

Email Policy:

Per university request, I will only communicate with students via your Patriot email accounts. The university has had several problems reaching students with vital questions or information because they do not check their Patriot email, and they have asked faculty to require that students use their Patriot email accounts. All responses to student email will be sent only to your Patriot email account (even if you send the email from some other account). Email sent from any non-Patriot email account will not be answered.

Academic Honesty:

Please carefully read the course policies found in Canvas and the university policy for cheating and academic dishonesty at the following website: <http://www.uttyler.edu/judicialaffairs/scholasticdishonesty.php>