CRIJ 4312.060- (3.0 Credit Hours) Legal Issues in Juvenile Justice

Spring 2026

Location: Online

Class Meeting: Asynchronous online class format.

Instructor: Dr. Paul Thompson

Email: pthompson@uttyler.edu

Office Hours: Virtual – Zoom (by appointment only).

Course Description:

Juvenile offenders are legally distinct from adults and, consequently, are afforded specialized constitutional protections. This course provides a comprehensive analysis of the landmark U.S. Supreme Court cases that have defined the American juvenile justice system. Beginning with the foundational ruling in In re Gault (1967) and progressing through contemporary U.S. Supreme Court decisions, we will examine a different case each week. Our analysis will take a multi-dimensional approach by investigating the background and procedural path of each case to the Supreme Court, followed by a critical review of the legal arguments presented by both the petitioner and the respondent. Furthermore, we will explore the Court's judicial reasoning and prevailing legal theories while evaluating the broader systemic impact these rulings have had on the evolution of juvenile law. To provide a complete legal context, we will also examine relevant state and federal legislation to understand how statutory law intersects with judicial precedent.

Course Prerequisites:

CRIJ 1301 Introduction to Criminal Justice

Course Materials:

There is not a required textbook book for this class, but the reading assignments require access to the internet, which is imperative to the success of this course.

Internet Access:

This course is online therefore you must have reliable internet access. UTT learning management system, Canvas, can only be accessed online. The computer lab is available if you don't have access otherwise – please check the computer lab information for guidance on access this semester.

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the semester, students will be able to:

- Analyze Seminal Jurisprudence: Comprehend the judicial rulings of landmark cases that shaped the development of the juvenile justice system and established the legal protections afforded to juvenile offenders.
- Evaluate Systemic Impact: Explain how specific United States Supreme Court decisions have influenced the evolution and broader trajectory of the juvenile justice system over time.
- Deconstruct Legal Arguments: Critically dissect the core legal arguments and logic presented within the United States Supreme Court cases studied in this course.
- Compose Case Briefs: Synthesize complex legal information by writing professional case briefs on the foundational rulings relating to juvenile justice.

Attendance Policy:

This is an online course. This course offering is in an asynchronous mode, however, there may be sessions offered in asynchronous mode for the review of finals. Class participation is encouraged, which takes place with your consistent logging into the class, discussion participation, completion of assignments, and submission of required work on or before the due date and time. You must stay current if you want to be successful in the course.

Class Participation:

Your active participation will help enrich your course experience. The reading and thinking of course materials will add value to your class participation.

Missed Exams/Late Assignments:

Submitting late assignments is generally not accepted. However, exceptions may be granted for unforeseen and unavoidable traumatic events: 1. If an event is known and unavoidable, contact me within 24 hours of the event. 2. If an event is unforeseen and does not allow for time to contact, then contact me before the due date of the next assignment, with acceptable documentation. Stay informed and aware of the course schedule.

Make-up Tests:

The University Catalog does not establish make-up as a student right. Major tests are forecasted; therefore, no make-up opportunities are contemplated. Opportunities to make up missed examinations will be provided only for exceptional reasons and must be documented (e.g., hospital records, and obituaries). Make-up examinations may be in forms completely different from the original examinations and will be scheduled at the convenience of the instructor.

Student Expectations:

- The utilization of critical thinking.
- The discussion of ideas and respecting the ideas of other colleagues.
- Read the relevant information provided throughout this course.
- Prepared to participate in class based on knowledge gained through credible, relevant sources.
- The completion and submission of all assignments before or at the deadline.
- Access and stay current with Canvas.
- Check your email and Canvas Announcements.
- Ask for help, do not wait till the end of the semester. Send questions to pthompson@uttyler.edu.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE POLICY

UT Tyler is committed to exploring and using artificial intelligence (AI) tools as appropriate for the discipline and task undertaken. We encourage discussing AI tools' ethical, societal, philosophical, and disciplinary implications. All uses of AI should be acknowledged as this aligns with our commitment to honor and integrity, as noted in UT Tyler's Honor Code. Faculty and students must not use protected information, data, or copyrighted materials when using any AI tool. Additionally, users should be aware that AI tools rely on predictive models to generate content that may appear correct but is sometimes shown to be incomplete, inaccurate, taken without attribution from other sources, and/or biased. Consequently, an AI tool should not be considered a substitute for traditional approaches to research. You are ultimately responsible for the quality and content of the information you submit. Misusing AI tools that violate the guidelines specified for this course (see below) is considered a breach of academic integrity. The student will be subject to disciplinary actions as outlined in UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy.

You can use AI programs (ChatGPT, Copilot, etc.) in this course. These programs can be powerful tools for learning and other productive pursuits, including completing assignments in less time, helping you generate new ideas, or serving as a personalized learning tool. However, your ethical responsibilities as a student remain the same. You must follow UT Tyler's Honor Code and uphold the highest standards of academic honesty. This applies to all uncited or improperly cited content, whether created by a human or in collaboration with an AI tool. If you use an AI tool to develop content for an assignment, you must cite the tool's contribution to your work.

Citing AI Sources, you must acknowledge your use of Artificial Intelligence programs in your written work using proper APA format. See below.
