ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Because of the importance of your participation in this, you should attend each class session. You will be excused for university excused absences, but you should let me know before the event. Work related obligations and illnesses will also be excused but some evidence of the obligation/illness must be provided for my records. If you fail to log into the course as assigned, that work will not be factored in your assigned work grade.

Make-up presentations, quizzes, exams, or extra credit work will not be scheduled so please don't embarrass either of us by asking. .

CLASS POLICIES

- ✓ Class starts promptly at 6:00 PM. If you have a problem that prohibits you from arriving on time, please inform me as soon as possible. If this is a continuing issue, please select a seat near the entrance.
- ✓ If you must leave class before the end of the period, let me know as soon as possible and no later than the beginning of the class period.
- ✓ Electronic devices (phones, laptops, iPads, iPods, etc.) must be deactivated during class. Texting or surfing the www is not allowed and you will be dismissed from class.
- ✓ Textbooks, materials and calculators should be brought to class.
- ✓ Courtesy to the professor and other students is expected. The class will engage in open discussion. Side conversations are disrespectful to others and are inappropriate behavior.
- ✓ Dishonesty is unacceptable behavior and will not be tolerated.
- ✓ Class assignments are due at the beginning of the class period. If you wish to make notes or corrections on your work, bring two copies – one to submit and another for your use. Each submission contributes to your overall course grade and participation.
- ✓ Extra-credit assignments will not be available on an individual basis. Please do not embarrass yourself or me by asking.

CLASS LECTURE & READING ASSIGNMENTS

Chapters should be read prior to coming to class. All course lectures, in class activities, and discussions assume that you have completed the required reading prior to coming to class. Hanlon, Hodder, Nelson, Roulstone & Dragoo Intermediate Accounting: Reporting and Analysis, 2st edition, the required text for this class, is an essential part of your classroom experience and a key component to you being prepared and succeeding in this course. MyBusinessCourse contains an e-book for your utilization.

EXAMINATIONS (80% OF FINAL GRADE)

Three achievement exams and a final exam will be given during the semester. The content and format of the exams will vary but may include any of the following: multiple choice questions, problems, exercises, matching, or essays. During exams, only simple four-function calculators are allowed. Sharing a calculator is not permitted. No programmable calculators or cell phones are allowed during an examination.

Make-up exams are not provided. Under extenuating conditions (hospitalization, medical emergency, physical injury, or death of an immediate family member), a special time to take the exam before the exam results are discussed with the professor must be scheduled. You MUST bring proof of your medical issue (or death), in order to facilitate the special arrangement. All athletes must present (at the beginning of the semester) a schedule of approved absences in order to make up work.

If you believe there is an error in grading of an exam, bring it to my attention within two weeks of the date that the exam is graded by stating your reason in writing.

HOMEWORK AND REVIEW (10% OF FINAL GRADE)

Class assignments in written format must be submitted to fulfill this requirement. Students should understand that accounting is an applied discipline and working problems is essential to the learning of accounting. The assignments will require using the skills and knowledge you gained by reading the text, viewing the posted PPT and attending class. Submissions will be graded for completeness, accuracy, and professionalism. A wise person wrote – I hear and I forget, I see and I remember, I do and I understand.

Homework should be completed (attempted) prior to coming to class on the assigned date. Late chapter submissions will be accepted until the Exam covering that chapter with a reduced grade. Experience has shown that a clear understanding of accounting concepts and principles requires working through problems. While it can be difficult and even frustrating, the result of understanding will serve you well in the future. Consultation with others on the assigned problems is highly encouraged but you should not copy another student's work.

OTHER WORK AND PARTICIPATION (10% OF FINAL GRADE)

Other work, and brief written MBC critiques of the posted demos, highlights, reviews and tips constitute 10% of your final grade. Attendance will be noted for each class and will be considered when evaluating participation. Class participation is highly encouraged, and students will be called upon during class.

EOC homework assignments must be handwritten (no word or excel homework assignments will be accepted) and collected and graded for accuracy and completeness. Quizzes or in-class assignments may be administered. Assignments may not be made up and late assignments will be accepted with a reduced grade only until the Exam time covering that chapter.

CANVAS

All course material is available on Canvas. Announcements, assignments, grades, PPT slides, case projects, and activities are posted on Canvas. You should check Canvas regularly for updates. You are responsible for meeting deadlines and retrieving any information. Grades posted on Canvas throughout the semester are not weighted per the course evaluation schedule but are posted for your review. Final weighted grades will be posted on Canvas at the end of the semester using the weighting stated previously under Evaluation.

GRADE REPLACEMENT/FORGIVENESS

If you are repeating this course for a grade replacement, you must file an intent to receive grade forgiveness with the registrar by the 12th day of class. Failure to do so will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average.

Undergraduates will receive grade forgiveness (grade replacement) for only three course repeats during his/her career at UT Tyler.

STUDENTS RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

To know and understand the policies that affect your rights and responsibilities as a student at UT Tyler, please follow this link:

<http://www.uttyler.edu/wellness/StudentRightsandResponsibilities.html>

STATE-MANDATED COURSE DROP POLICY

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the 12th day of class.

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Registrar's Office and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstances. Please contact the Registrar's Office if you have any questions.

DISABILITY SERVICES

In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodation must provide documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Support Services counselor. If you have a disability, including a learning disability, for which you request an accommodation, please contact the Disability Support Services office in UC 282, or call (903) 566-7079.

STUDENT ABSENCE DUE TO RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the professor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

STUDENT ABSENCE FOR UNIVERSITY-SPONSORED EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

CAMPUS CARRY

We respect the right and privacy of students who are duly licensed to carry concealed weapons in this class. License holders are expected to behave responsible and keep a handgun secure and concealed. More information is available at <http://www.uttyler.edu/about/campus-carry/index.php>

SOCIAL SECURITY AND FERPA STATEMENT:

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

DISHONEST STATEMENT

Faculty expect student to perform at a high level of responsibility and academic honesty. Because the value of an academic degree depends upon the absolute integrity of the work deployed by the student for that degree, it is imperative that a student demonstrate a high standard of individual honor in his or her scholastic work.

Scholastic dishonesty include, but is not limited to, statements, acts or omissions related to admission for enrollment of the award of a degree, and/or the submission, as one's own work of material that is not one's own. As a general rule, scholastic dishonesty involves one of the following acts: cheating, plagiarism, collusion and/or falsifying academic records. Students found to be dishonest are subject to UT Tyler disciplinary proceedings.

EMERGENCY EXITS AND EVACUATION

Everyone is required to exit the building when a firm alarm goes off. Follow Dr. Fischer's directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform Dr. Fischer in the first week of class. DO NOT re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire Department or Fire Prevention Services.
