Course Objective

This is the second course in investments and portfolio management. It is designed to introduce students to more advanced financial securities such as options and futures. Other topics covered include issues associated with international investing and top-down analysis of securities. We conclude the course with an introduction to the basic concepts of behavioral finance and technical analysis.

Upon completion of the course you should be able to:

- Explain how options and futures can be used for hedging and speculation.
- Explain the advantages and disadvantages of international investing.
- Describe how to conduct a top-down analysis of a firm's common stock starting with the global economy, followed by domestic economy, target industry and finally the target firm.
- Describe the basic concepts and terms of behavioral finance and technical analysis.

Course Structure

The course begins with a general overview of derivative securities such as options, futures and swaps. We then look at the risks and rewards of international investing. Next we conduct a top-down analysis of the value of a firm's stock. Finally, we conclude with an introduction to the basic concepts and terms of behavioral finance and technical analysis. To achieve these goals, students will be required to:

1. Read assigned textbook chapters and Powerpoint course slides.
2. Attend lecture regularly
3. Visit course Canvas regularly.
4. Complete every homework assignment and take every unit quiz.

Textbook and Internet Access

- The required textbook is Investments by Bodie, Kane, and Marcus, 12th edition (2021), McGraw-Hill Education, ISBN 978-1260013832. Note: Many unit quiz questions will come straight from readings assigned in the text so you must purchase the book in order to do well in this course.
- Students should have basic Internet, word-processing, spreadsheet, and email skills. Frequent checking of Canvas announcements and postings is strongly encouraged.
- Class materials are generally in the form of Word, Powerpoint, Excel. Students can download Word, Excel or Powerpoint Viewer if they do not have Microsoft Word, Excel or Powerpoint installed on their computer.

Canvas Access

All class materials, course grades, and class announcements will be posted by Canvas. Your account on Canvas has already been created automatically by the Canvas administrator. The Canvas user name and password combination is the one you use for UT Tyler student email. For more detailed information, please visit UT Tyler's homepage and click on the link for "Current Students" and follow the link to Canvas. Please contact the Canvas administrator if you have any problem accessing Canvas. Students are required to maintain their current e-mail address with Canvas as it uses this address to send course-related electronic communications.

Four Unit Quizzes

Four unit quizzes each consisting of 20 multiple choice questions will be given via Canvas and you are required to take all of them. Each unit quiz is worth 100 points. You will have one hour (60 minutes) to complete each quiz during the five-day period shown in the course calendar at the end of this syllabus. Note each quiz period begins at 12:01 AM (central standard/daylight savings time) on a Thursday and ends at 11:59 PM (central standard/daylight savings time) on a Sunday so you have four days to complete it. Note there will be no other exams in this course.

All material covered in lectures, assigned textbook chapters, homework assignments and additional examples is fair game. You are advised to begin each unit by watching the ARC video lectures and then read the Powerpoint slides and assigned reading in the textbook for a more in-depth understanding of the topics covered in the unit. Note that you are allowed only two attempt per unit quiz so please make sure you study the unit material thoroughly before you begin and can devote sufficient time to complete the quiz using a stable Internet connection. Please note that each unit quiz will be only available for a limited time so check the course calendar and plan accordingly. Please make sure you study the unit material thoroughly before you begin and can devote sufficient time to complete the quiz because you will not be able to save a quiz and resume it later so you must finish each quiz in one sitting. Note that only one question will be shown at a time and you cannot go back and change the answer of a previous question. You will be able to see the answers you chose at the end of the quiz.

You are allowed two attempts for each unit quiz. However, keep in mind that if you take a quiz more than once, the score used to compute your course grade will be the higher of the two scores. As an example, if you received scores of 80 and 70, respectively on the two attempts for a unit quiz, then the quiz score used to compute the course grade will be 80. Please also remember that the questions on the two attempts will be different because each time you try to take a quiz, Canvas will randomly select the questions for your quiz attempt from a pool of questions the instructor uploaded for that particular unit. No one will be allowed to take any unit quiz more than twice for any reason except for cases of Canvas system-wide outage as reported and documented by the University's IT Support staff affecting both of the first two quiz attempts. Only then will a third attempt be allowed by the instructor, on a case-by-case basis. All other requests for more unit quiz attempts will be rejected.

When seeking email assistance from the instructor on a unit quiz for any reason, you must clearly state (1) the course you are enrolled in, (2) the unit quiz where you encountered difficulties and (3) a brief description of the difficulty. Any email missing any of the three items listed above will be ignored. You will be asked to provide the missing information by the instructor and no action will be taken until it is received.

Since you have a 4-day window to take a unit quiz from anywhere you have a fast and stable internet connection, no make-up unit quizzes will be given.

Four Homework Sets

A homework set worth 25 points will be assigned for each unit. Each set will contain five required problems worth five points each. Students are required to complete any three homework sets assigned throughout the course. You may complete an additional homework set to earn up to 25 points of extra credit. These problems are designed to both improve your proficiency in applying relevant course concepts and to help you prepare for unit quizzes which will contain problems involving very similar calculations. While you may discuss them with fellow classmates, you must submit your own answers. Credit will only be given if you follow the directions given on the top of each application carefully, use the format shown in the Homework Answer Template provided and your answers must be entered into Canvas by noon (central standard/daylight savings time) on the due dates (always a Wednesday) indicated in the course calendar found at the end of this syllabus.

Note: NO WORK NEED TO BE SHOWN as only the letter of your answer choice will be graded. No late submissions will be accepted. The only way to receive credit for this assignment is to directly enter your letter choice of the best answer for each problem in Canvas using the format shown in the Homework Answer Template by the deadline indicated below. No physical (paper), email or uploaded Word (or equivalent word processing) document submissions are accepted. The solution will generally be posted on Canvas for your reference shortly after the assignment is due and graded. Note that the homework assignment will be available on Canvas only until the time the answers are due and the solution will only remain on Canvas for seven days after it is posted. It is your responsibility to download the assignment and its solution while they are available on Canvas. All requests for either the assignment or its solution after they are no longer available on Canvas will be refused.

Course Information Quiz

This is a mandatory 15-minute multiple-choice quiz with 10 multiple choice or true/false questions designed to test your knowledge of the course requirements as explained in the syllabus. As an example, you may be asked how many unit quizzes are available and how many points they are worth as well as other course policies. It will be given via Canvas only between 12:01 AM Monday, Aug 21, 2023 and 11:59 PM (both central daylight savings time) Sunday, Aug 27, 2023. You may earn up to 50 points on this quiz and anything over 25 counts as extra credit. Note the rules governing the Course Information Quiz are identical to those for unit quizzes except the time limit is 15 instead of 60 minutes.

Grading

Points Possible	Assignment
25	Course Information Quiz (worth 50 points; scores over 25 count as extra credit)
75	4 Homework Sets (25 pts each; 3 required; 4 th is extra credit)
400	4 Unit Quizzes (All 4 are required)
500	Total
90.00% or above	→ A
80.00% to 89.99%	→ B
70.00% to 79.99%	→ C
60.00% to 69.99%	→ D
59.99% or below	→ F

Total points available: 50 from Course Information Quiz; 100 from all homework assignments and 400 from unit quizzes for a total of 550 which implies that there are 50 points of extra credit to be earned by completing all activities available in this course.

You can always estimate your grade in the course by adding up the total number of points earned from Course Information Quiz, all homework sets submitted by the deadline, all unit quizzes completed by the deadline and any extra credit points earned via lecture attendance as shown in Canvas. Then divide the sum you just found by total number of points possible shown above and use the grading scale shown above to convert it to a letter grade.

Note: You can always estimate your grade following the procedure outlined above and ALL EMAIL requests to confirm or verify grades will be IGNORED. The instructor is not allowed to disclose grades using email.

Canvas has a grade calculation feature that produces percentages which differ from what is shown above. In particular, extra credit assignments are factored in consideration of total number of points possible and it is also not possible to have a quiz dropped. The instructor has no control over how the feature does the grade calculations so you generally CANNOT rely on the grade shown in Canvas but must use the procedure described above to estimate your grade because they are unlikely to be the same except under some rare circumstances.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
