Covid-19 Adaptation

Information for Classrooms and Laboratories: Students are expected to wear face masks covering their nose and mouth in public settings (including classrooms and laboratories). The UT Tyler community of Patriots views adoption of these practices consistent with its Honor Code \(Links to an external site.\) and a sign of good citizenship and respectful care of fellow classmates, faculty, and staff.

Students who are feeling ill or experiencing symptoms such as sneezing, coughing, digestive issues (e.g. nausea, diarrhea), or a higher than normal temperature should stay at home and are encouraged to use the UT Tyler COVID-19 Information and Procedures \(Links to an external site.\) website to review protocols, check symptoms, and report possible exposure. Students needing additional accommodations may contact the Office of Student Accessibility and Resources at University Center 3150, or call (903) 566-7079 or email saroffice@uttyler.edu.

Although this course is offered face-to-face, the instructor has prepared a series of ARC videos covering the same course material available on Canvas. If you cannot or do not wish to come to class, watching these videos can be a reasonably good alternative to learning the material on your own. In addition, to minimize face-to-face contact and inevitable physical handling of quiz papers, all quizzes will be given and taken via Canvas (see more details under section titled Five Unit Quizzes and Course Information Quiz below).

Communications with the Instructor

I check email often on weekdays and will frequently be in my office. If you want to meet me for any reason outside of office hours shown above, please email for an appointment. For all email communications, you can expect a response within 24 hours except for those sent on holidays or between 5 pm on Friday and midnight on Sunday, when you can expect a response within 48 hours.

Email policy: As mandated by the University, I will only send emails to your Patriot email accounts. Emails from non-Patriot email accounts will NOT be answered

Course Objective

This is an introductory course in investments and portfolio management. It is designed to introduce students to the concept of financial securities and how they are traded.

Accordingly, the course will begin with a review of time value of money techniques needed for security valuation. Other topics covered include money market instruments, stocks (equities), bonds, options and futures contracts. We will also cover the basics of portfolio analysis and management.

Upon completion of the course you should be able to:

- Explain why financial securities and markets exist.
- Understand the distinction between debt and equity securities and find their values.
- Describe the historical relationship between risk and return.
- Form and analyze portfolios according to investor preferences and other constraints

Course Structure

The course begins with a general overview of financial securities and securities markets. We then look at modern portfolio theory. Finally, we explore alternative investments for inclusion in a portfolio such as fixed-income securities, stocks (equities), and derivative instruments such as futures and options. To achieve these goals, students will be required to:

1. Read assigned textbook chapters and Powerpoint course slides.
2. Attend lecture regularly
3. Visit course Canvas regularly.
4. Complete every homework assignment and take every unit quiz.

Textbook and Internet Access

- The required textbook is Investments by Bodie, Kane, and Marcus, 11th edition (2017), McGraw-Hill Education, ISBN 978-1259277177. Note: Many unit quiz questions will come straight from readings assigned in the text so you must purchase the book in order to do well in this course.
- Students should have basic Internet, word-processing, spreadsheet, and email skills. Frequent checking of Canvas announcements and postings is strongly encouraged.
- Class materials are generally in the form of Word, Powerpoint, Excel. Students can download Word, Excel or Powerpoint Viewer if they do not have Microsoft Word, Excel or Powerpoint installed on their computer.

Note on financial calculators: While a financial calculator will not be required for the course but it can make your life much easier both in this and future finance courses. To help you master your financial calculator, keystrokes needed to solve certain problems (using TI BA II Plus) will be shown in class and the lecture notes. You are welcome to use another brand/model of financial calculator, but then it is your responsibility to figure out how to solve these problems using the financial calculator of your choice.

Canvas Access

All class materials, course grades, and class announcements will be posted by Canvas. Your account on Canvas has already been created automatically by the Canvas administrator. The Canvas user name and password combination is the one you use for UT Tyler student email. For more detailed information, please visit UT Tyler's homepage and click on the link for "Current Students" and follow the link to Canvas. Please contact the Canvas administrator if you have any problem accessing Canvas. Students are required to maintain their current e-mail address with Canvas as it uses this address to send course-related electronic communications.

Five Unit Quizzes

Five unit quizzes consisting of 20 multiple choice questions will be given via Canvas but you are only required to take four of them. Each unit quiz is worth 100 points. You will have one hour (60 minutes) to complete each quiz during the five-day period shown in the course calendar at the end of this syllabus. Note each quiz period begins at 12:01 AM (central standard/daylight savings time) on a Wednesday and ends at 11:59 PM (central standard/daylight savings time) on a Sunday so you have five days to complete it. You are welcome to attempt more unit quizzes than what is required for extra credit. Note there will be no other exams in this course.

All material covered in lectures, assigned textbook chapters, ARC lectures, homework assignments and additional examples is fair game. You are advised to begin each unit by watching the ARC video lectures and then read the Powerpoint slides and assigned reading in the textbook for a more in-depth understanding of the topics covered in the unit. Please learn to use your financial calculator before taking the quizzes if you plan to use one. Note that you are allowed only two attempt per unit quiz so please make sure you study the unit material thoroughly before you begin and can devote sufficient time to complete the quiz using a stable Internet connection. Please note that each unit quiz will be only available for a limited time so check the course calendar and plan accordingly. Note that only one question will be shown at a time and you cannot go back and change the answer of a previous question. You will be able to see the answers you chose at the end of the quiz.

You are allowed two attempts for each unit quiz. However, keep in mind that if you take a quiz more than once, the score used to compute your course grade will be the higher of the two scores. As an example, if you received scores of 80 and 70, respectively on the two attempts for a unit quiz, then the quiz score used to compute the course grade will be 80. Please also remember that the questions on the two attempts will be different because each time you try to take a quiz, Canvas will randomly select the questions for your quiz from a pool of questions the instructor uploaded for that particular unit. No one will be allowed to take any of the unit quizzes more than twice for any reason except in cases of Canvas system-wide outage as reported and documented by the University's IT Support staff affecting both of the first two quiz attempts. Only then will a third attempt be allowed by the instructor, on a case-by-case basis, by clearing one of the previous attempts. All other requests to clear unit quiz attempts will be rejected.

When seeking email assistance from the instructor on a unit quiz for any reason, you must clearly state (1) the course you are enrolled in, (2) the unit quiz where you encountered difficulties and (3) a brief description of the difficulty. Any email missing any of the three items listed above will be ignored. You will be asked to provide the missing information by the instructor and no action will be taken until it is received.

Since only four unit quizzes are required and you have a 5-day window to take a unit quiz from anywhere you have a fast and stable internet connection, no make-up unit quizzes will be given.

Five Homework Sets

A homework set worth 25 points will be assigned for each unit. Each set will contain five required problems worth five points each. You are required to complete all five available homework sets. These problems are designed to both improve your proficiency in applying relevant course concepts and to help you prepare for unit quizzes which will contain problems involving very similar calculations. While you may discuss them with fellow classmates, you must submit your own answers. Your answers must be uploaded onto Canvas by noon (central standard/daylight savings time) on the due dates (which are always Tuesdays) indicated in the course calendar found at the end of this syllabus. Warning: Canvas does not always display certain homework questions correctly so you should always download the word document for each homework assignment and view the questions from that.

Note: NO WORK NEED TO BE SHOWN as only the letter of your answer choice will be graded. The only way to receive credit for this assignment is to directly enter your letter choice of the best answer for each problem to Canvas by the deadline indicated below. In other words, if you enter anything besides the letter choice of the correct answer for any problem, no credit will be given. No late submissions will be accepted. Neither physical (paper) nor email submissions are accepted. The solution will generally be posted on Canvas for your reference shortly after the assignment is due and graded. Note that the homework assignment will be available on Canvas only until the time the answers are due and the solution will only remain on Canvas for seven days after it is posted. It is your responsibility to download the assignment and its solution while they are available on Canvas. All requests for either the assignment or its solution after they are no longer available on Canvas will be refused.

Course Information Quiz

This is a mandatory 15-minute multiple-choice quiz designed to test your knowledge of the course requirements as explained in the syllabus. As an example, you may be asked how many unit quizzes are available and how many points they are worth as well as other course policies. It will be given via Canvas only between 12:01 AM Monday, Jan 10, 2022 and 11:59 PM (both central standard time) Tuesday, Jan 18, 2022. You may earn up to 50 points on this quiz. Note the rules governing the Course Information Quiz are identical to those for module quizzes except the time limit is 15 instead of 60 minutes.

Grading

Points Possible	Assignment
50	Course Information Quiz
125	5 Homework Sets (25 pts each)
400	5 Unit Quizzes (Only four are required; 5 th is extra credit)
575	Total
90.00% or above	→ A
80.00% to 89.99%	→ B
70.00% to 79.99%	→ C
60.00% to 69.99%	→ D
59.99% or below	→ F

Total points up grabs: 50 from Course Information Quiz; 125 from all homework assignments and 500 from unit quizzes for a total of 675 which implies that there are 100 points of extra credit to be earned by completing all activities available in this course.

You can always estimate your grade in the course by adding up the total number of points earned from Course Information Quiz, all homework sets submitted by the deadline, all unit quizzes completed by the deadline and any extra credit points earned via lecture attendance as shown in Canvas. Then divide the sum you just found by total number of points possible shown above and use the grading scale shown above to convert it to a letter grade.

Note: You can always estimate your grade following the procedure outlined above and ALL EMAIL requests to confirm or verify grades will be IGNORED. The instructor is not allowed to disclose grades using email.

Canvas has a grade calculation feature that produces percentages which differ from what is shown above. In particular, extra credit assignments are factored in consideration of total number of points possible and it is also not possible to have a quiz dropped. The instructor has no control over how the feature does the grade calculations so you generally CANNOT rely on the grade shown in Canvas but must use the procedure described above to estimate your grade because they are unlikely to be the same except under some rare circumstances.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.

- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
