Our Objectives

The HRD master's program provides students with the opportunity to combine study and related professional experiences to develop, apply, synthesize and evaluate HRD knowledge and address performance needs, issues and problems of both for-profit and not-for-profit organizations. Students also learn how to design, develop, deliver, and evaluate effective training and development programs. This program is delivered completely online.

Our Mission

The mission of the Department of HRD is to lead the HRD field through innovative scholarship, academic excellence and professional service.
