INTRODUCTION

This course is designed for Ph.D. students and highlights organizational intervention approaches. These interventions are designed to enhance an organization's functionality by influencing leadership styles, organizational structures, and behavioral patterns, all underpinned by substantive theoretical frameworks. Learners will apply the insights and theories gained from HRD 6366 toward making organizational intervention approaches practical.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

Cummings, T. G., & Worley, C. G. (2014). Organization Development and Change, 10th edition. Cengage learning. ISBN-13: 978-1133190455; ISBN-10: 1133190456

SUPPLEMENTAL RESOURCE

Supplemental articles and case studies will be provided by the instructor.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The objective of this course is to develop your knowledge in the following areas:

- By the end of the course, learners should be able to demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of various organizational intervention approaches aimed at enhancing organizational functionality.
- Learners will learn to apply substantive theoretical frameworks related to human sociality, organizational change and development, organizational culture, and transformational leadership to develop and support their organizational intervention plans.
- Learners will be able to analyze and evaluate different leadership styles and their impact on organizational dynamics and use this analysis to inform their intervention strategies.
- Learners will learn how to assess and critique organizational structures, identifying areas where intervention may be necessary to improve functionality.
- Learners will develop the ability to identify behavioral patterns within organizations and understand how these patterns can be modified or influenced through intervention approaches.
- By the end of the course, learners should be able to create detailed organizational intervention proposal that include the type and reason for intervention, scope, approach, and implementation strategies for specific intervention areas such as human process interventions, techno-structural interventions, human resource interventions, and strategic change interventions.

COURSE STRUCTURE

HRD 6314 Summer 2025 has 4 (four) class meetings. The scheduled time for each class is from 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm. The classroom location is COB 214.

Module #	Class Date(s)	Class Time
Introduction & Module #1	May 17th	1:00 – 5:00 pm
Module #2	June 7 th	1:00 – 5:00 pm
Module #3	June 28 th	1:00 – 5:00 pm
Module #4	July 26th	1:00 – 5:00 pm

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

This course focuses on organizational intervention approaches. These interventions are designed to enhance an organization's functionality by influencing leadership styles, organizational structures, and behavioral patterns, all underpinned by substantive theoretical frameworks. Learners will be evaluated based on the quality of their work. As this is a doctoral level course, the level of quality must be consistent with Ph.D. scholarly expectations. Additional information will be given regarding each assignment before the due date.

Learners will be evaluated based on the quantity, quality, and timeliness of the following efforts.

- Attendance and active participation in classes, including all online and classroom discussions and activities;
- Quality writing assignments;
- Clear and professional class presentations.

GRADING SCALE

A (90-100 %)	Excellent work and evidence of achieving each of the learning objectives at an expert level
B (80-89 %)	Good work and evidence of achieving each of the learning objectives at a mastery level
C (70-79 %)	Average work and evidence of achieving each of the learning objectives at a modest level
D (60-69 %)	Poor work and little or no evidence of achieving each of the learning objectives
F (59 % and below)	Unacceptable work and no evidence of achieving each of the learning objectives

MODULE 1

Introduction To Organizational Intervention Approaches

Module 1 highlights organizational intervention approaches, which are systematic, research-based processes designed to enhance an organization's functioning. These interventions seek to improve organizational leadership styles, organizational structures, and behavioral patterns, distinguishing them from ad hoc transformation efforts. The goal of this module is for the learner to gain a better understanding of organizational intervention as a multifaceted field that can often be categorized into four groups: human process interventions, techno-structural interventions, human resource interventions, and strategic change interventions. The outcome of the module equips learners with a comprehensive understanding of these interventions and their critical role in optimizing organizational effectiveness.

TOPIC(S):

1. Towards an understanding of human process interventions.
2. Towards and understanding of techno-structural interventions.
3. Towards and understanding of human resource interventions.
4. A theoretical primer on strategic change interventions.

PRE-CLASS ASSIGNMENT (required readings):

1. von Thiele Schwarz et al., (2021). How to design, implement and evaluate organizational interventions for maximum impact: The Sigtuna Principles. European Journal of Work and Organizational Psychology, 30(3), 415-427.
2. Nielsen, K. (2013). How can we make organizational interventions work? Employees and line managers as actively crafting interventions. Human Relations, 66(8), 1029-1050.
3. Nielsen, K., Taris, T. W., & Cox, T. (2010). The future of organizational interventions: Addressing the challenges of today's organizations. Work & Stress, 24(3), 219-233.

SUPPLEMENTARY READING:

1. Chapter 7: Designing Interventions
Cummings, T. G., & Worley, C. G. (2014). Organization Development and Change, 10th edition. Cengage Learning

MODULE 2Theoretical Approaches to Organizational Intervention

Module 2 highlights various theoretical frameworks, models, and concepts that provide a foundation for understanding, planning, and implementing interventions within organizations. These theoretical approaches are essential for guiding and informing the design and execution of organizational intervention, as they offer a structured and systematic way to analyze, diagnose, and address issues within an organization. By exploring various theoretical perspectives, this Module equips learners with a profound understanding of the theoretical underpinnings of such interventions, enabling them to grasp their pivotal role in shaping and optimizing organizational intervention effectiveness.

TOPIC(S):

1. An overview of theoretical approaches to organizational intervention
2. Towards an understanding of theoretical frameworks on organizational intervention.
3. Incorporating theory in shaping and optimizing organizational effectiveness.

PRE-CLASS ASSIGNMENT (required readings):

1. Fishbein, M., & Yzer, M. C. (2003). Using theory to design effective health behavior interventions. Communication Theory, 13(2), 164-183.
2. Braun, M. T., Kuljanin, G., Grand, J. A., Kozlowski, S. W., & Chao, G. T. (2022). The power of process theories to better understand and detect consequences of organizational interventions. Industrial and Organizational Psychology, 15(1), 99-104.
3. Porras, J. I., & Silvers, R. C. (1991). Organization development and transformation. Annual Review of Psychology, 42(1), 51-78.

SUPPLEMENTAL READINGS:

1. Chapter 2: The Nature of Planned Change
Cummings, T. G., & Worley, C. G. (2014). Organization Development and Change, 10th edition. Cengage Learning.

Making Organizational Intervention Approaches Practical

Module 3 is intended to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application in the domain of organizational intervention. While theoretical approaches provide a solid foundation for understanding organizational intervention, Module 3 focuses on translating those theories into actionable strategies that can be effectively implemented within real-world organizational settings through action research, action learning, and appreciative inquiry. This orientation equips learners with the skills and knowledge needed to navigate the challenges of improving organizational performance, ultimately fostering a deeper understanding of how theory can be translated into tangible results within organizations through action research. The module culminates with an overview of how to create an effective practical approach to organizational intervention.

TOPIC(S):

1. An overview of action research, action learning, and appreciative inquiry.
2. Translating theory into practical approaches to organization interventions.
3. Understanding how to create a practical organizational intervention approach.

PRE-CLASS ASSIGNMENT (required readings):

1. Chapter 4: Action Research, Action Learning, and Appreciative Inquiry: Interventions that Build Individual and Group Capacity. Hamlin, R. G., A. D. Ellinger, and J. Jones, eds. 2018. Evidence-based Initiatives for Organizational Change and Development. Hershey, PA: IGI Global.

SUPPLEMENTAL READINGS:

2. Chapter 9: Evaluating and Institutionalizing Organizational Development Interventions Cummings, T. G., & Worley, C. G. (2014). Organization Development and Change, 10th edition. Cengage Learning.

Application of Organizational Intervention Approaches

Module 4 is where you will apply organizational intervention approaches. Each learner will present their organizational intervention plan. This plan should include, at a minimum, the type and reason for organizational intervention, the scope of intervention, approach to intervention, and implementation strategies for at least one of the following: human process interventions, techno-structural interventions, human resource interventions, and strategic change interventions. Support your organizational intervention with theoretical assertions in various domains (e.g., human sociality, organizational change and development, organizational culture, transformational leadership).

ASSIGNMENT (group project)

Written (75 points)

1. Prepare a written organizational intervention proposal (minimum 20 pages).

Oral Presentation (25 points)

1. Organizational intervention proposal presentation and feedback.

COURSE CONDITIONS AND CONSTRAINTS

As a Ph.D. student, you must be able to demonstrate the following conditions and constraints to be successful in this course.

- Use scholarly (academic) voice to express your research and define the intellectual boundaries of your work;
- Demonstrate a clear focus in your work on the research phenomenon under investigation—be prepared to articulate your work at any time;
- Write clearly and concisely using APA 7th formatting guidelines;
- Retrieve articles using the various research repositories including the UT Tyler online library system, ProQuest, Google Scholar, etc;
- Cite sources, giving credit to where you obtain information—ALWAYS!
- Engage in academic discourse with others to understand their perspective and demonstrate scholarly professionalism when communicating;
- Make the commitment to spend the hours needed to successfully leave this course competent in the outlined learning objective.

MAKE-UP WORK AND LATE WORK

Make-Up work is allowed with a medical/official university business excuse without proper documentation. Otherwise, late work will not be accepted unless approved by the instructor ahead of time for special cases.

CLASS MEETING ATTENDANCE

Attending all five class sessions demonstrates the learner's personal commitment to learning. Therefore, physical attendance is expected for the accomplishment of course objectives. The facilitator recognizes that learners may have special issues and responsibilities that may impact physical attendance. If physical absences occur, the learner is responsible for contacting the facilitator in advance so that adjustments can be made to the instructional activities planned for a specific session. With approval from the instructor and the department chair, the learner may participate virtually. The instructor may provide limited access to the class through Zoom. However, it is the learner's responsibility to arrange with an in-class peer to provide virtual access to the class to ensure the quality of classroom learning. The learner is responsible for all work that is missed due to their absence from any class meeting, or portion thereof. It should be expected that physical absence from classes for reasons other than documented illnesses, emergencies, or other matters that prohibit the learner from traveling due to COVID restrictions may affect the final course grade. Excused absences for religious holy days or active military services are also permitted according to the policies outlined in the UT Tyler Graduate Handbook. One unexcused absence may result in a final grade reduced by one letter grade. Two or more unexcused absences from class will likely result in a grade of Incomplete (I) requiring the student to retake the course.

RECORDING OF CLASS SESSIONS

Class sessions may be recorded by the instructor for use by students enrolled in this course. Recordings that contain personally identifiable information or other information subject to FERPA shall not be shared with individuals not enrolled in this course unless appropriate consent is obtained from all relevant students. Class recordings are reserved only for the use of students enrolled in the course and only for educational purposes. Course recordings should not be shared outside of the course in any form without express permission.

UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE POLICIES:

College of Business Statement of Ethics

The ethical problems facing local, national, and global business communities are an ever-increasing challenge. It is essential the College of Business and Technology help students prepare for lives of personal integrity, responsible citizenship, and public service. In order to accomplish these goals, both students and faculty of the College of Business and Technology at The University of Texas at Tyler will:

- Ensure honesty in all behavior, never cheating or knowingly giving false information.
- Create an atmosphere of mutual respect for all students and faculty regardless of race, creed, gender, age or religion.
- Develop an environment conducive to learning.
- Encourage and support student organizations and activities.
- Protect property and personal information from theft, damage, and misuse.
- Conduct yourself in a professional manner both on and off campus.

College of Business & Technology Core Values

- Professional Proficiency
- Technological Competence
- Global Awareness
- Social Responsibility
- Ethical Courage

Academic Dishonesty Statement

The faculty expects from its students a high level of responsibility and academic honesty. Because the value of an academic degree depends upon the absolute integrity of the work done by the student for that degree, it is imperative that a student demonstrates a high standard of individual honor in his or her scholastic work.

Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, statements, acts, or omissions related to applications for enrollment of the award of a degree, and/or the submission, as one's own work of material that is not one's own. As a general rule, scholastic dishonesty involves one of the following acts: cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and/or falsifying academic records. Students suspected of academic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary proceedings.

University regulations require the instructor to report all suspected cases of academic dishonesty to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action. In the event disciplinary measures are imposed on the student, it becomes part of the students' official school records. Also, please note that the handbook obligates you to report all observed cases of academic dishonesty to the instructor.

See <http://www.uttyler.edu/judicialaffairs/scholasticdishonesty.php>

PLEASE NOTE: Academic honesty is expected in all work submitted to the course. Plagiarism and dishonesty will not be tolerated, and learners should be aware that all work is subject to full investigation by instructor including the examination of computer reports for suspicious patterns and the use of plagiarism detection software.

Campus Carry

We respect the right and privacy of students 21 and over who are duly licensed to carry concealed weapons in this class. License holders are expected to behave responsibly and keep a handgun secure and concealed. More information is available at <http://www.uttyler.edu/about/campus-carry/index.php>

UT Tyler a Tobacco-Free University

All forms of tobacco will not be permitted on the UT Tyler main campus, branch campuses, and any property owned by UT Tyler. This applies to all members of the University community, including students, faculty, staff, University affiliates, contractors, and visitors.

Forms of tobacco not permitted include cigarettes, cigars, pipes, water pipes (hookah), bidis, kreteks, electronic cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, snuff, chewing tobacco, and all other tobacco products.

There are several cessation programs available to students looking to quit smoking, including counseling, quitlines, and group support. For more information on cessation programs please visit www.uttyler.edu/tobacco-free.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Disability/Accessibility Services

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA) the University of Texas at Tyler offers accommodations to students with learning, physical and/or psychological disabilities. If you have a disability, including a non-visible diagnosis such as a learning disorder, chronic illness, TBI, PTSD, ADHD, or you have a history of modifications or accommodations in a previous educational environment, you are encouraged to visit <https://hood.accessiblelearning.com/UTTyler> and fill out the New Student application. The Student Accessibility and Resources (SAR) office will contact you when your application has been submitted and an appointment with the Assistant Director of Student Services/ADA Coordinator. For more information, including filling out an application for services, please visit the SAR webpage at <http://www.uttyler.edu/disabilityservices>, the SAR office located in the University Center, # 3150 or call 903.566.7079.

Student Absence due to Religious Observance

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Emergency Exits and Evacuation

Everyone is required to exit the building when a fire alarm goes off. Follow your instructor's directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform your instructor in the first week of class. Do not re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire department, or Fire Prevention Services.

Student Standards of Academic Conduct

Disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against any student who engages in scholastic dishonesty, including, but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts.

- I. "Cheating" includes, but is not limited to:
 - a. copying from another student's test paper;
 - b. using, during a test, materials not authorized by the person giving the test;
 - c. failure to comply with instructions given by the person administering the test;
 - d. possession during a test of materials which are not authorized by the person giving the test, such as class notes or specifically designed "crib notes". The presence of textbooks constitutes a violation if they have been specifically prohibited by the person administering the test;
 - e. using, buying, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program;
 - f. collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test or other assignment without authority;

- g. discussing the contents of an examination with another student who will take the examination;
- h. divulging the contents of an examination, for the purpose of preserving questions for use by another, when the instructors has designated that the examination is not to be removed from the examination room or not to be returned or to be kept by the student;
- i. substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for oneself to take a course, a test, or any course-related assignment;
- j. paying or offering money or other valuable thing to, or coercing another person to obtain an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program or information about an unadministered test, test key, home solution or computer program;
- k. falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other academic work offered for credit;
- l. taking, keeping, misplacing, or damaging the property of The University of Texas at Tyler, or of another, if the student knows or reasonably should know that an unfair academic advantage would be gained by such conduct; and
- m. misrepresenting facts, including providing false grades or resumes, for the purpose of obtaining an academic or financial benefit or injuring another student academically or financially.
- n. "Plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the appropriation, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another's work and the submission of it as one's own academic work offered for credit.
- o. "Collusion" includes, but is not limited to, the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any section of the rules on scholastic dishonesty.

II. All written work that is submitted will be subject to review by plagiarism software.
