This includes the exploration of national differences in political economy, culture, ethics, and their implications in international management; the impact of trade policies on companies' international strategies and risks; the key choices managers have in internationalization strategy, organizational architecture, production, marketing and HRM, and how to integrate such choices into a global strategy. REQUIRED TEXT: HILL, Charles W. L., & HULT, Tomas M. International Business: Competing in the Global Marketplace. McGraw-Hill/Irwin; 14th edition, 2022. (ISBN: 9781260387544). No Connect code is necessary.

You may order this text online from the UT Tyler Bookstore or call them at (903) 566-7070. Or you can buy it from any source you choose to (not mandatory to buy from UT Bookstore). I do STRONGLY recommend getting the e-book, as you can get it immediately. DO NOT RISK starting the course without it...!

The "free textbook" program by the UT Tyler Library has made available a few free copies for all students to use, but there are not many of them, and people will likely need to wait other students log out before they are able to see it. If you are interested in the free online version option and you don't mind waiting in line, this is how you use it: while logged in with your patriots credentials, access at <https://ebookcentral-proquest-com.ezproxy.uttyler.edu/lib/uttyler/detail.action?docID=6841339>

Other readings: Several other reading assignments, from numerous sources, will be made during the semester, and will constitute a part of the required readings. 60 – 69.9	=	D

Grade determination: YOU MUST HAVE A GRADE C (or better) ON YOUR FINAL GRADE TO PASS THE CLASS.

Grades will be posted on Canvas. Students have one week after grade posting to address any grading issues.

COURSE RULES AND POLICIES

This course has several key components and rules, each comprising a set of expectations. To participate in the course and to be allowed to take the exams, you MUST PASS (80% or better) A COURSE RULE QUIZ by a deadline established in the course schedule, which (when passed) constitutes your consent and acceptance of all course rules. Students will get 5 free attempts to pass it, and may request additional attempts to the instructor. Failure to take and/or timely pass this course rules quiz will mean exclusion from exams, and any course work. Lateness to pass such quiz by the date defined in the course schedule may subject you to up to 20 negative points in the 100-grade point scale.

Classes and Attendance: There will be no synchronous classes or meetings (other than non-mandatory Zoom Sessions – see below), and thus no attendance keeping. However, you will need to download/view all lectures in the timing predicted in the schedule, do all quizzes in the designated dates, and turn in all assignments by their due dates. Failure to do any of that will constitute lateness, and late policies will apply. Zoom sessions are recorded, but people attending do better.

Non-Mandatory Synchronous Zoom Sessions: The instructor will hold (NON-MANDATORY) synchronous zoom sessions, with the objective of helping interested students with their quizzes, as well as to answer general questions. Historically, students who prepare before the weekly Zoom Sessions and attend the zoom sessions regularly, have an easier time grasping the concepts. The dates and times for all Zoom Sessions are defined in the Schedule. The instructor may send emails advising about date and/or time changes via email if re-schedules are needed

Course internal communication and Access: To communicate with your instructor, use the email and/or telephone number provided on the first page of this Syllabus. As per University policies, all communications with students will be made via each student's patriot email accounts. No other email address will be used. It is the student's responsibility to constantly check their email account. Aside from announcements via Canvas, students may not expect their instructor to contact them using another medium. If students miss messages sent to their email, they are still responsible for all instructions and expectations such emails convey, and they must accept the consequences of any oversights on their part. Please include "MANA 5360-060" at the beginning of your email subject. Also, please always sign your name so your instructor knows which student it is coming from. If the instructor has not replied in 24 hours (with the exception of weekends, when he may take up to 48 hours), assume he did NOT get your email and try to contact him again, either by re-sending your email, or by calling him via cel phone. Please note the instructor cannot discuss grades over e-mail.

Academic Integrity Statement: If I believe an exam, a quiz or any type of assignment has been compromised, I reserve the right to retest the whole class, team, or any individual in the class. Violations of the course's honor code include, but are not limited to: possession of, or use of, unauthorized materials or equipment during quizzes and providing information to another student. Violations WILL result in academic penalties, including receiving an "F" in this course. All exam questions are proprietary: it is strictly forbidden to manually or digitally copy, photograph, print, or reproduce, any question in any form. Doing so will be regarded as a serious breach of academic ethics, and will not only make you fail the course, but will subject you to the most serious consequences allowed by University regulations.

Late Work and Missed Exams: Take home assignments: Late take home assignments will be discounted in 20% + 5% per extra day late, until a maximum of 4 (four) days late. Beyond 4 days late, take home assignments will not be accepted at all. Weekly Quizzes: Late weekly quizzes will be discounted in 20% + 3% per extra day late, but CAN be taken even if late until the last week of the course. No make-up exams or quizzes will be given as a default. With a "best 2 out of 3" exam grade policy, you can take 2 exams and still be fine. If you must miss an exam you feel you need to take, you must make every effort to contact me before the exam. Failure to do so may result in a zero for that exam. Make-up exams, if allowed by the instructor, must be taken prior to the scheduled exam. The format of any make-up exam, if granted, will be at the instructor's discretion

Keeping up with schedule changes: Schedule changes or updates may occur at any time, and the schedule will need to be adjusted accordingly. This syllabus may also require changes at any time. You are expected to be attentive to syllabus and to class schedule changes or updates (which you can know of via Canvas) that may affect your deadlines, or presentations dates. You are expected to agree with your classmates on adequate e-mail communications and material delivery protocols to handle the variations in class assignments: it is your responsibility to maintain yourself "reachable" through your patriot e-mail and via Canvas notifications and/or agreed communication protocols.

Course Schedule: See Tentative Schedule in Canvas. Schedule is "tentative" because all dates are subject to change, due to last minute changes. Please check frequently for updates on Canvas, or during classroom announcements.

INFORMATION AND GUIDES TO GRADE COMPONENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

We will have proctored EXAMS, non-proctored weekly quizzes, and take-home assignments in this course. Although all have pre-set due dates in the schedule, you CAN work ahead of schedule if you prefer, but only until the next exam, and then you need to wait for the class, as everyone must take the exams in the same two- or one-day time windows.

Information on Exams (Individual): We will have three exams in this course: two Intermediary Exams and one OPTIONAL FINAL Exam, but your "Exams" Grade will be calculated using the TWO BEST grades out of the three exams.

Therefore, note that the Final Exam is optional: if you do well in the two intermediary exams you can skip the Final (Comprehensive) Exam, assuming you are satisfied with your grade up to that point. Or conversely, it means that even if you did miss or not do well in an Interim Exam, that you can get that lower grade expunged by the two other exams you take. All of the exams may contain true vs. false, multiple choice, and/or essay questions, depending on many factors. The types of questions are very similar to the Post-Reading/Practice Quizzes discussed in the next section, and such quizzes are the best source to understanding what will be required in the exams and to preparing for all Exams.

I strongly recommend that before you take the first quiz, you watch the "TUTORIAL" on that sort of exam under the "Other Materials" tab in the Home Canvas page.

In this edition of the course, all Exams (meaning Interim Exam # 1, Interim Exam # 2 and Final Exam) will be taken online, via ProctorU, and will follow the COB's Exam Policy (see below). This means you must (a) register and take them with ProctorU.com; (b) arrange (schedule) all proctoring exam sessions with at least 5 full days in advance; (c) comply with all ProctorU's policies and requirements, which are considered part of this Syllabus. UT will pay for ProctorU's basic proctoring fee for all Exams. However, you will be billed for cancelling or rescheduling an exam per the provider's fee schedule. More instructions on ProctorU: see our Canvas's ProctorU tab for more general info.

All exams are individual, and all of them are CLOSED BOOK EXAMS. If a given question demands data to be responded, the data you need will be provided to you as an add-on to the question. When taking the exam remotely, using ProctorU, no other computer, smart phone/tablet or calculator use will be allowed. You will also not be allowed to consult the textbook or any class notes, or have access to other software, windows, or applications other than the ProctorU session.

You will be allowed to bring a previously prepared REFERENCE SHEET to take with you to the Interim Exams and to the Final Exam. These reference sheets must be pre-printed with ANY information YOU decide or want to take with you, as long as it is pre-printed (i.e., it cannot be handwritten). Interim Exams: up to ONE two-sided, pre-printed, reference sheet is allowed. Final Exam: up to TWO two-sided, pre-printed, reference sheets are allowed. In both Interims and Final, DO NOT bring sheets of paper that are larger than letter or A4. Do not bring pages printed on one side with the other side blank. If you cannot print on both sides, then glue them together. Please note you CANNOT use scrap paper, but may use a letter-sized dry-ink erasable whiteboard. Please avoid issues with all this at the time of the exam... deal with it in advance.

All three major exams will happen on the dates and time ranges set on the course schedule. The student registered in the course must arrange their schedules to be available on those pre-set dates and times. If the student is not sure if he/she can make either time, given personal, professional, or travel commitments, they should not take the course at this time. Unpredicted events will be treated at the discretion of the instructor. Those dates however may change at the university and the instructor's discretion, but most frequently they remain as initially scheduled.

Information on Post-Reading/Weekly Quizzes (Individual): You will have a practice quiz due every week. Their purpose is to prepare you for the exams and to test the efficiency of your reading and preparation in each segment of the course. I strongly suggest you take these quizzes only AFTER you have thoroughly read the assigned reading for that module, and watched any online content your instructor provided. Then take it as you would take an exam. This will best prepare you for our exams. If the student timely passes all quizzes (with a 60% or better), within their 5 free attempts they get for each quiz, they get to (a) see the next module's content; and (b) have the full average of their highest weekly quiz grades (meaning the average of the highest grade for Quiz 1, highest for quiz 2, etc.). And by "full", we mean that if the student passes (60%+) all weekly quizzes timely, their grade will not be discounted of lateness penalties.

Weekly Quizzes can generate TWO SOURCES of grade points:

- a) The "Pass Component" (up to 30 points): Student gets the full average of their highest weekly quiz grades if they timely pass ALL quizzes within their 5 free attempts per quiz. "Pass"=getting at least 60% correct answers
  - You get 5 free attempts per quiz. All attempts for all quizzes remain open until the deadline for the last quiz.
  - You can re-take the quiz several times, until you get 60% or better. After passing, unused attempts can be taken whenever (yes, even after their due date, until the "last date for quiz re-takes" [see course schedule], which is typically in the last content week of the course, coinciding with the deadline for the last weekly quiz).Highest grade goes: no penalty for getting a lower grade in re-takes after timely passing it.
  - If you fail to pass all weekly quizzes, you will not only not get the 30 points, but you may get up to 30 negative points. Late quizzes follow lateness policies, which increase per day of lateness.
- b) Extra Points (or Extra credit) for QUIZ RE-TAKES (up to 2 points in final grade):
  - * This component is an incentive for people to not merely pass the quizzes, but for people to do the best they can do, or to re-take them as they learn from their mistakes, as a means to improve and learn more.

* As an incentive, you can get up to 2 additional overall course points (meaning up to a 2% bump in your final grade!) To be eligible for the extra points, the student must have TIMELY passed quizzes they are attempting to re-take for extra points. A progressive extra point system will be applied to the FINAL COURSE grade, as an incentive for you to re-take the weekly quizzes (excludes the course rules quiz) trying to do as well as possible:

- 90%+ in at least 2 quizzes: extra 0.5 points, or 0.5% final course grade bump
- 90%+ in 3 or 4 quizzes: extra 1 point, or 1% final course grade bump
- 90%+ in 5 or 6 quizzes: extra 1.25 points, or 1.25% final course grade bump
- 90%+ in 7 or 8 quizzes: extra 1.5 points, or 1.5% final course grade bump
- 90%+ in 9 or 10 quizzes: extra 1.75 points, or 1.75% final course grade bump
- 90%+ in 11 or more quizzes: extra 2 points, or 2% final course grade bump

If you miss or if you do not attain at least 60% in any given quiz by its deadline (see schedule), the following module's materials will NOT automatically appear in your Canvas, and you will also not be entitled to extra points coming from that particular late quiz. In case you are late in any given quiz, you will need to complete it late, get the negative point hit for lateness (lateness penalties increase daily), and when you pass you will then finally be able to see the following module's materials. If you exhausted your 5 free attempts and have not passed the quiz, you need to request your instructor/tutor for more, which will cost 5% ea.

Information on Take Home Assignments: A separate document is available in Canvas (under the Assignments tab in the Home Page) detailing the requirements of this type of assignment. All requirements in such document are MANDATORY and should be understood as an integral part of this syllabus and of the course's rules and requirements. Please note, however, that instructor support to each student is contingent on them being timely in their course assignments, as well as in good standing in UT, and in the course.

THIS SYLLABUS IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

This is our course plan and main policies document. Nevertheless, due to unexpected events, the syllabus may be revised upon the discretion of the professor. It is the students' responsibility to stay abreast of any such modifications.

The UT Tyler community of Patriots views adoption of these practices consistent with its Honor Code and a sign of good citizenship and respectful care of fellow classmates, faculty, and staff.

Students who are feeling ill or experiencing symptoms such as sneezing, coughing, digestive issues (e.g. nausea, diarrhea), or a higher than normal temperature should stay at home and are encouraged to use the UT Tyler COVID-19 Information and Procedures website to review protocols, check symptoms, and report possible exposure. Students needing additional accommodations may contact the Office of Student Accessibility and Resources at University Center 3150, or call (903) 566-7079 or email saroffice@uttyler.edu.
