Exams

Exams are administered through canvas. You should refer to canvas for the availability of exams. You are allowed to use your book, notes and other materials during exams. You are not allowed to use another student or a copy of the exam, you must either know the answer or find it in your class resources. Exams are multiple choice and have limited time.

Quizzes

Quizzes will be administered through canvas. You should refer to canvas for the due dates of these assignments. You are allowed to use your book, notes and other materials during quizzes. You are not allowed to use another student or a copy of the quiz, you must either know the answer or find it in your class resources. Quizzes are timed with only 1 attempt. Quizzes will not be re-opened if you miss a quiz since all quizzes are available from the start of the semester. Additionally, quizzes are due before the exam and not weekly.

Data Analysis Project: Tableau/Excel

You will complete a data analysis project using Tableau or Microsoft Excel. This project will be worked on continuously throughout the semester individually. Full details are available in the Canvas assignment including example documents and rubrics.

Discussion Boards/Role Plays/Guest Speakers:

We will have multiple discussion board posts throughout the semester addressing several different topics. Topics include but are not limited to: role play experiences, guest speaker/video comments/reactions, case analysis, and/or current events. You should refer to each discussion board topic for details about how to complete the assignment. Instructions on how to reply should be included with the prompt/first post by the instructor. Example: How points are allocated in a discussion on a role play experience may be different from a discussion revolving around an on-going current event. Required breadth and depth of posts varies depending upon topic being discussed. You should refer to canvas for details about submission times for Discussion Boards/Role Plays & Guest Speaker assignments. You will be alerted via email when these assignments are available.

Late Work:

Submitting work late will result in points deducted at the discretion of the instructor. You should expect technology to not work completely the first time, and plan time to trouble such problems which typically arise during normal business activities. Some assignments will not be accepted late.

Reasonable Accommodations For Disabilities:

Should you need accommodation for anything, please contact Student Accessibility and Resources center at saroffice@uttyler.edu. I also encourage you to contact me with any issues, and I will be happy to work with you.
