Course Description: This course introduces students to the fundamental concepts, tools, and principles of strategy design, implementation and competitive analysis. It focuses on the managerial decisions and actions that affect the firm's financial performance and its likelihood of survival. The course focuses on the key information and data needed by managers, proper and sufficient analyses, the various organizational processes, and the skills and business assessments the decision makers must use to formulate the appropriate strategies, position their firms, and define firm boundaries and maximize long-term profits in the face of uncertainty and competition.

This is a Capstone course that integrates accounting, economics, law, finance, management, and marketing in the solution of an organization's problems. Focus on the problems and perspectives of the firm's top management team as they attempt to achieve and retain competitive advantages.

Strategic Management is an integrative and interdisciplinary course. It takes a comprehensive view of the firm's two environments: external that includes buyers, suppliers, competitors, technology, the economy, capital markets, government, and global forces, this external environment is assumed as constantly changing and therefore is characterized by uncertainty. In studying strategy, the course draws together and builds on all the ideas, concepts, and theories from your functional courses such as Accounting, Economics, Finance, Marketing, Organizational Behavior, and Statistics.

The course takes a general management perspective, perceiving the firm as a whole unit, and investigating how strategies in each functional area aggregates to embody the overall competitive strategy. The key strategic business decisions of concern in this course involve choosing competitive strategies, creating competitive advantages, taking advantage of external opportunities, securing and defending sustainable market positions, and allocating critical resources over long periods. Decisions such as these can only be made effectively by viewing a firm holistically, and over the long term.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this course are to develop

1. a clear understanding of the key concepts and principles of strategy formulation and competitive analysis,
2. a set of useful analytical skills, tools and techniques for analyzing a company strategically,
3. the ability to take a general management perspective in analyzing a particular company,
4. the ability to build on and integrate ideas, concepts, and theories from previously taken functional courses such as Accounting, Finance, and Marketing,
5. the ability to think critically and strategically,
6. the ability to understand how AI can be useful in strategy formulation and implementation
7. the ability to make the case for a particular set of strategic courses compellingly, recognizing that no one strategic solution for an organization is necessarily correct
8. the ability to work in teams, and
9. oral and written presentation skills through the analysis and reporting of case situations.

Announcements:

It is the students' responsibility to read every announcement as announcements are part of the course.

NO LATE WORK: The course in Canvas clearly states due dates for assignments and exams allowing time for all of you to work ahead of time and no excuses will be accepted whatsoever. Students should note that this is their responsibility since all assignments are accessible since the beginning of the semester.

COURSE FORMAT AND OPEN DISCUSSIONS METHOD

In this course, there will be several video lectures that cover the fundamental concepts in chapters 1-14. Those are broad concepts that are applicable in the real world. However, because each real-world case has its unique characteristics (for example Facebook is a tech company but it differs in its characteristics from other tech companies like Google), this means each case will have more customized concepts but these customized concepts will be derived from the general concept we study. It is through this derivative approach the learning process occurs. What we might apply on one case (firm) may not be applicable for other firms depending on how similar (different) they are and depending on a bundle of characteristics of these firms and their internal and external environment-specific factors and forces.

In order to achieve the objectives of the course, we will dedicate a significant portion of our class assigned cases, assignments, and discussions on the analysis and debate of selected managerial and competitive strategy cases. We will start with general discussions of the key theoretical models and frameworks in each chapter.

There will be four to six discussions on real-world cases and companies where you will have to be fully prepared to comment, respond to, and provide some unique insights to the discussion questions, you are REQUIRED TO engage in constructive debate using the theoretical frameworks discussed in the video lectures and that are extensively covered in the book, you are encouraged to gather as much information (additional to those in the lectures, PPT, and book) and also expected to use your prior knowledge in previous classes which were prerequisites for this course, and your critical thinking and analysis skills in all your assignments, cases, discussions responses and engagements, and any other work. A set of business cases has been highlighted on a range of companies from a variety of industry settings. Each case is proposed to provide some insights on something specific, yet each can teach us many things. We will not attempt to exhaust each case of all its learning experiences, but rather build up a "war chest" of analytical tools, skills and insights, progressively over all the selected cases. These cases are listed in the tentative schedule of the course and maybe edited at any time to accommodate real-world business affairs and issues as well as new business-strategy related developments.

The quality of your learning experience during our class discussions will be directly determined by: (1) your degree of preparation, active involvement in discussions, watching video lectures and communication with the instructor and your class-mates, and (2) your classmates' preparation, listening, and participation. Some will not agree with you, and you are expected to defend your argument. So long as criticism is directed at arguments and not at individuals, is relevant to the issues at hand and coherently argued, it is very much welcomed.

Please refer to the getting started module for a Guide to Case Analysis and to Guide to Article Analysis when working on cases and assignments. Please comply with the rubric. Please read the instructions of assignments and cases very thoroughly.

You are strongly encouraged to form study groups that regularly meet to share insights and ideas about the assigned cases. While this is voluntary, experience shows that satisfactory performance in this course, and a good grade, depend on it.

General Expectations for Written Assignments, cases, and analysis

- Each assignment will most likely have a set of questions, each question will address a certain concept we discussed in class. The concept, say for example the value chain analysis and its importance, will have several specific elements and components, so the student must incorporate all the specific details of the concept and provide practical examples from the examples in the book, real-world examples (PREFERRED), and then discuss briefly what the implications are for the company.
- Each work requires a thorough analysis that covers all the relevant aspects of the problem being discussed. For example, the internal analysis requires using VRIO and diamond models, along with the value chain analysis, and a brief comparison with the firm's major competitors.
- Each work requires supportive evidence such as numbers from the company's annual reports. For example, when discussing the first mover advantage or the R&D benefits or the learning curve experience and advantages you might want to look at the firm's annual report and see its cost of goods sold compared to its immediate competitors or later entrants to the same industry or you may want to compare the company's investments and spending on marketing compared to its competitors and see why one company spends more and generates less profit, or you may want to see the ROA for each firm and compare their sizes and spending on R&D and analyze why some benefit more than others from their R&D? these are some and not exhaustive examples.

- The terminology must be strategic and professional, not generic. This requires using proper terms and conceptualizations along with immediate practical examples from real-world cases
- The flow of the ideas must be organized as if it is intended for a professional meeting where your superiors are expecting a well-crafted report.
- The structure must follow the flow of the questions and must reflect the integration of the relevant ideas and grouping them together in a meaningful way.
- Any assignment that has greater than 10% of content similarity according to the reports generated by Canvas will be given a Zero grade. You may paraphrase and cite but cannot copy paste even with quotes more than 10%.
- APA formatting is required for all assignments and reports, for detailed guidelines please visit the following website:

https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/apa_style/apa_formatting_and_style_guide/general_format.html

Section: Effective Use of CHAT GPT for Enhanced Learning

Objective: The objective of this section is to guide students on how to effectively utilize CHAT GPT to enhance their learning experience in the course. By following these guidelines, students can optimize their interactions with CHAT GPT and ensure that the learning process occurs efficiently.

Understanding CHAT GPT:

Familiarize yourself with the capabilities and limitations of CHAT GPT.

Recognize that CHAT GPT is an AI language model designed to assist with generating text-based responses based on the input provided.

Keep in mind that CHAT GPT does not possess human-level understanding or reasoning abilities.

Asking Clear and Specific Questions:

Articulate your questions or prompts as clearly and specifically as possible.

Provide sufficient context to help CHAT GPT understand your query accurately.

Consider breaking down complex questions into smaller, more manageable parts to facilitate better responses.

Critical Thinking and Verification:

Exercise critical thinking when evaluating responses from CHAT GPT.

Remember that CHAT GPT generates responses based on patterns and information it has learned, but it may not always provide accurate or reliable answers.

Verify information obtained from CHAT GPT by consulting authoritative sources or seeking additional input from instructors or peers.

Iterative Learning Process:

Embrace an iterative approach to learning with CHAT GPT.

Engage in ongoing conversations and follow-up questions to delve deeper into topics or seek clarification.

Utilize CHAT GPT as a tool to explore new concepts, gain initial insights, and generate ideas for further research.

Supplemental Learning Tool:

Consider CHAT GPT as a supplemental learning tool rather than a substitute for human interaction or research.

Use CHAT GPT to complement your existing study methods, textbooks, and course materials.

Combine insights from CHAT GPT with other sources to form a well-rounded understanding of the subject matter.

Ethical Use and Respectful Interaction:

Interact with CHAT GPT in a respectful and appropriate manner.

Refrain from engaging in conversations that promote hate speech, discrimination, or unethical behavior.

Adhere to the course's code of conduct and ethical guidelines while using CHAT GPT.

Seeking Instructor and Peer Guidance:

Approach the instructor or teaching assistants with questions or concerns related to CHAT GPT usage.

Collaborate with peers to discuss and share insights gained from CHAT GPT interactions.

Seek guidance from instructors and peers to validate and discuss challenging or complex topics encountered during CHAT GPT interactions.

Remember, CHAT GPT is a powerful tool that can assist your learning journey, but it should be used in conjunction with other learning resources and human support. By following these guidelines, you can leverage CHAT GPT effectively, enhance your understanding of the course material, and engage in meaningful learning experiences.

any work with greater than 10% AI or similarity use will result in zero

Late assignments: No assignments will be accepted after the deadline. All assignments are open from the beginning of the semester so you can plan ahead of time and complete these before the deadline.

LockDown Browser + Webcam Requirement

This course requires the use of LockDown Browser and a webcam for online exams. The webcam can be the type that's built into your computer or one that plugs in with a USB cable.

Watch this brief video to get a basic understanding of LockDown Browser and the webcam feature.

<https://www.respondus.com/products/lockdown-browser/student-movie.shtml>

Download Instructions

- Select a quiz from the course
- If you have not already installed LockDown Browser, select the link to download the application and follow the installation instructions
- Return to the quiz page in a standard browser
- LockDown Browser will launch and the quiz will begin

Note: LockDown Browser only needs to be installed once per computer or device. It will start automatically from that point forward when a test requires it.

Guidelines

When taking an online exam, follow these guidelines:

- Select a location where you are comfortable having a video recording taken of yourself and your workspace environment. This area should be free of distractions and interruptions.
- Turn off all other devices (e.g. tablets, phones, second computers) and place them outside of your reach
- Before starting the test, know how much time is available for it, and also that you've allotted sufficient time to complete it
- Clear your desk or workspace of all external materials not permitted - books, papers, other devices

- Remain at your computer for the duration of the test
- If the computer, Wi-Fi, or location is different than what was used previously with the "Webcam Check" and "System & Network Check" in LockDown Browser, run the checks again prior to the exam
- To produce a good webcam video, do the following:
 - Avoid wearing baseball caps or hats with brims
 - Ensure your computer or device is on a firm surface (a desk or table). Do NOT have the computer on your lap, a bed, or other surface where the device (or you) are likely to move
 - If using a built-in webcam, avoid readjusting the tilt of the screen after the webcam setup is complete
 - Take the exam in a well-lit room, but avoid backlighting (such as sitting with your back to a window)
- Remember that LockDown Browser will prevent you from accessing other websites or applications; you will be unable to exit the test until all questions are completed and submitted

Getting Help

Several resources are available if you encounter problems with LockDown Browser:

- The Windows and Mac versions of LockDown Browser have a "Help Center" button located on the toolbar. Use the "System & Network Check" to troubleshoot issues. If an exam requires you to use a webcam, also run the "Webcam Check" from this area
- 24/7/365 Live Chat Support is also available from the Help Center, or from within the "it's not working" troubleshooter.
- [As applicable, insert information about your institution's help desk, including details about how to contact them. Some help desks want students to run the "System & Network Check" and the "Webcam Check" before they are contacted - and even, to forward the results of these checks at the time of opening a ticket.]
- Respondus has a Knowledge Base available from support.respondus.com. Select "LockDown Browser & Respondus Monitor" as the product to view helpful articles.

- If you're still unable to resolve a technical issue with LockDown Browser, go to support.respondus.com and select "Submit a Ticket". Provide detailed information about your problem and what steps you took to resolve it

VERY IMPORTANT Assignments and cases

Each chapter is associated with a case study. Your responsibility is to read the chapter and the case ahead of the lecture. Preferably start by reading the PowerPoint, then the book chapter text, and then finish with the case. This will help you easily digest the fundamentals of the chapter. However, you may be assigned some graded cases, in this case you will answer a series of questions related to the case at hand. All case answers MUST thoroughly address the question being answered and the use of what you have learned from reading the book, the lecture, and from any credible external sources (e.g., internet, company website, etc). I do not set a minimum or maximum pages for the assignments and case assignments, as long as you thoroughly address the questions and provide meaningful answers and insights supported by the proper use of theory in book, frameworks in the book, and any evidence such as key financial ratios which I have posted a summary of under the getting started materials. For the assignments, you will need to use the information in each relevant chapter, the PPT notes available in each module, and the concepts discussed in the materials (textbook chapters, videos associated with each chapter, company website, internet credible sources...etc).

College of Business STATEMENT OF ETHICS:

The ethical problems facing local, national and global business communities are an ever-increasing challenge. It is essential the Soules College of Business help students prepare for lives of personal integrity, responsible citizenship, and public service. In order to accomplish these goals, both students and faculty of the College of Business at The University of Texas at Tyler will:

- Ensure honesty in all behavior, never cheating or knowingly giving false information.
- Create an atmosphere of mutual respect for all students and faculty regardless of race, creed, gender, age or religion.
- Develop an environment conducive to learning.
- Encourage and support student organizations and activities.
- Protect property and personal information from theft, damage and misuse.
- Conduct yourself in a professional manner both on and off campus.

For the summer, it is more of a self-paced course with predetermined due dates for assignments.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar> (Links to an external site.). Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Disability Services

In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodation must provide documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services counselor. If you have a disability, including a learning disability, for which you request an accommodation, please contact the Disability Services office in UC 3150, or call (903) 566-7079.

Student Absence due to Religious Observance

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Emergency Exits and Evacuation

Everyone is required to exit the building when a fire alarm goes off. Follow your instructor's directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform your instructor in the first week of class. Do not re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire department, or Fire Prevention Services.

Concealed Weapons

We respect the right and privacy of students who are duly licensed to carry concealed weapons in this class. License holders are expected to behave responsibly and keep a handgun secure and concealed. More information is available at <http://www.uttyler.edu/about/campus-carry/index.php> (Links to an external site.).

UT Tyler a Tobacco-Free University

All forms of tobacco will not be permitted on the UT Tyler main campus, branch campuses, and any property owned by UT Tyler. This applies to all members of the University community, including students, faculty, staff, University affiliates, contractors, and visitors.

Forms of tobacco not permitted include cigarettes, cigars, pipes, water pipes (hookah), bidis, kreteks, electronic cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, snuff, chewing tobacco, and all other tobacco products.

There are several cessation programs available to students looking to quit smoking, including counseling, quitlines, and group support. For more information on cessation programs please visit www.uttyler.edu/tobacco-free (Links to an external site.).
