EDSI 6322: Culturally Responsive Practices for School Improvement

Instructor: Teresa J. Kennedy, Ph.D.
Office location: BEP: 229F
Phone: 903-566-7448
E-mail address: tkennedy@uttyler.edu

Term: Summer 2024 – Long Summer Session (13 weeks)

Course Description

This course provides an overview of strategies aimed at meeting the needs of the evolving diversity of public-school settings and facilitating the development of school cultures that promote high achievement. This includes awareness of self, cultural responsiveness, and sensitivity about cultures, concepts and methods in society, communities, and in educational settings, while exploring the challenges faced by educational leaders in an increasingly diverse society.

Program Goals

- a. Produce the next generation of educational leaders who understand the philosophical and historical perspectives of school reform, diversity, learning opportunities for all, and can address educational issues using a variety of strategies.
- b. Develop critical reasoning and a deep understanding of change theory to address challenges in school improvement contexts. This will include the skills to provide transformative leadership to schools that are failing to meet academic, social, and emotional standards.
- c. Provide opportunities to develop doctoral students' ability to approach challenges in innovative data-driven ways, including the use of interdisciplinary teams, as well as expand their problem-solving, creative design, communication, and collaboration skills.
- d. Challenge the norms within educational systems using data and the engagement of other educators and stakeholders in professional learning to lead disruptive change through interdisciplinary work with experts in other educational fields.
- e. Conduct research of practice and responsiveness to improve teaching and learning experiences, counseling and support services, school leadership, educational organizations and structures, and all other educational disciplines.
- f. Prepare the next generation of educators with the knowledge, skills and tools to utilize data to guide school improvement and policy and to improve learning outcomes leading to college and career readiness.
- g. Prepare educators with a deep understanding of assessment and accountability systems.
- h. Produce scholar practitioners that have a P-20 perspective of the education system to address school improvement in the broader perspective including educator preparation, teaching and learning.

Student Learning Outcomes

The student will...

- a. Engage in self-exploration and reflection of personal attitudes, beliefs, and assumptions regarding diversity and equity. (Program Goals A, B, H)
- b. Analyze the historical context of inequity in schools. (Program Goals A, H)
- c. Examine restorative practices as processes to improve and repair relationships between people and communities. (Program Goal B)
- d. Describe the principles, elements, and tools of Cultural Proficiency (CP). (Program Goals A, B)
- e. Discuss CP as an approach to leading and managing the dynamics of diversity and equity. (Program Goals A, B)
- f. Discuss the relationship between the CP approach and increasing student achievement, including consideration for ELLs. (Program Goals A, B)
- g. Utilize Equity Audits and related benchmarks to determine whether their school or educational institution is implementing multicultural education in its best and deepest sense. (Program Goal E)
- h. Create a Restorative Multicultural and Cultural Proficiency Action Plan. (Program Goal E)
- i. Apply the CP approach to their school and district planning, practice, and policymaking. (Program Goal E)

Course Policies:

Canvas. Students will access all components of the course through Canvas. Any changes to the course schedule, schedule of assignments, or any special assignments will be posted on Canvas. Students are expected to regularly check Canvas for updates and to download class handouts and materials. Online participation is imperative to the success in this online course. Students are expected to regularly review the course management system, check email, and contribute to course assignments.

Make-Up Discussions and Quizzes. All assignments are due on or before the dates indicated on the course outline. There will be NO make-up activities or projects for this course unless missing online work is due to an emergency or other reason previously discussed with the professor. Submission deadlines are final and access to links are removed after deadlines have expired. NO LATE assignments will be accepted unless a valid pre-approved or medical reason has been discussed with the professor. All late assignments or non-submitted assignments will receive a score of zero points.

Safe Zone. The professor considers this online classroom to be a place where all students will be treated with respect as a human being - regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, political beliefs, age, or ability. Additionally, diversity of thought is appreciated and encouraged, provided you can agree to disagree. It is the professor's expectation that ALL students consider our online classroom a safe environment.

Academic Discussion. When responding to peers, students are expected to maintain a high level of professionalism and add additional information or suggestions cited from the materials covered in each module and additional information found outside of the class. While it is fine to disagree and discuss alternative views, flaming” (hostile, insulting and/or disrespectful online interactions) or other inappropriate posts will not be tolerated, and will receive zero credit. Students are expected to follow the course goal and ground rules for academic discussions/conversations at all times.
