B. Catalogue Course Description:

“Examination of current educational issues relating to the selection and use of children’s and adolescent literature for teaching literacy in the PreK-Grade 12 classroom.”

This graduate course will engage you in the critical examination of a wide array of current educational issues relating to the use of children’s and adolescent, i.e., young adult, literature, in the PreK-Grade 12 classroom. You will develop, analyze, and clarify your knowledge base and personal beliefs regarding children's and adolescent literature use and selection.

C. Knowledge Base(s) and Rationale: This graduate level course is designed to engage students in the critical examination of current educational issues relating to the use of children's and adolescent, i.e., young adult, literature, in the PreK-Grade 12 classroom. Students will learn theory, practice, and design of literacy instruction for prospective and practicing teachers as well as instructional leaders who wish to develop and/or expand their knowledge, skills, and dispositions by studying multiple genres of literature and how to teach literacy skills and strategies with literature, effectively in PreK-12 school settings. Course content is informed by established research, policy, and practice resources, which focus on the role of reading as a process and product and its impact on teacher instructional practices and student literacy achievement outcomes in the area of reading a variety of literature. Course content incorporates the International Literacy Association (ILA) as well as the Texas Examination of Educator Standards (TExES) standards for the preparation of reading specialists/literacy coaches (ILA, 2010; TEA, 2006).

ILA standards pertain primarily to elements of:

Standard 1: Foundational Knowledge;

Standard 2: Curriculum and Instruction;

Standard 3: Assessment and Evaluation,

Standard 4: Diversity & Equity- Diversity Project (3 Issue Papers), & Character Study

Standard 5: Literate Environment.

TExES Standards pertain primarily to Domain 2: Instruction and Assessment-Components of Literacy, Domain 3: Instruction and Assessment: Resources and Procedures, and Domain 4: Professional Knowledge and Leadership

The 2021 International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) Standards are integrated throughout the course.

2.1 Educators: Educators continually improve their practice by learning from and with others and exploring proven and promising practices that leverage technology to improve student learning.

2.2. Leader Educators seek out opportunities for leadership to support student empowerment and success and to improve teaching and learning.

2.3 Citizen: Educators inspire students to positively contribute to and responsibly participate in the digital world.

2.4 Collaborator: Educators dedicate time to collaborate with both colleagues and students to improve practice, discover and share resources and ideas, and solve problems.

2.5 Designer: Educators design authentic, learner-driven activities and environments that recognize and accommodate learner variability.

2.6 Facilitator: Educators facilitate learning with technology to support student achievement of the ISTE Standards for Students.

2.7 Analyst: Educators understand and use data to drive their instruction and support students in achieving their learning goals.

Starting summer 2024 semester, candidates in READ 5302 will design a variety of learning contexts that include positive physical environment (e.g., tables, chairs, lighting, nooks, book options, anchor charts, audiobooks, plus time and routines for exploration), social literacy rich learning environments (e.g., students have opportunities to read, be read to, partner reading, develop strategies for selecting books for themselves, genre selection, book clubs, literature circles, and reading conferences), grouping structures (e.g., whole group, small group, partners, and individual), and social interactions such as collaboratively developed behavioral mores, opportunities for discussions in whole group, small group, and pairs to discuss books' language, authorial choices, illustrations, and more.

C. Course Goals; Student Learning Outcomes; Assessments; and Related International Literacy Reading Association (ILA)/National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) Standards:

Course Goals

You will have the opportunity to attain:

1. Increased awareness of both current and perennial issues relating to selection and use of children's and adolescent literature in PreK-Grade 12 classrooms. In addition to obtaining an increased understanding of current and perennial issues, you will clarify and develop your own positions on these issues.

2. Increased knowledge of children's and adolescent literature, including relatively new literary forms, e.g., graphica, and, also, increased awareness of the development, breadth, and cultural diversity of children's and adolescent literature, the defining characteristics of genre, the textual and visual elements of children's and adolescent literature, and salient works by key authors and illustrators.

3. Increased knowledge of how to design a variety of learning contexts that include positive physical environment (e.g., tables, chairs, lighting, nooks, book options, anchor charts, audio books, plus time and routines for exploration), social literacy rich learning environments (e.g., students have opportunities to read, be read to, partner reading, develop strategies for selecting books for themselves, genre selection, book clubs, literature circles, and reading conferences), grouping structures (e.g., whole group, small group, partners, and individual), and social interactions such as collaboratively developed behavioral mores, opportunities for discussions in whole group, small group, and pairs to discuss books' language, authorial. (ILA 5.4)

1. It is recommended that you read the books PRIOR to the class beginning. Each week, you will read two of the books required for this class. The books required are: The Hate U Give, Long Way Down; Before the Ever After; Farmer Boy; The Watsons Go to Birmingham; The Sign of the Beaver; Hunger Games; Hatchet; Charlotte's Web; order you read them in is up to you. You will write a total of three, informal 4-5 page Issues Papers relating to said book(s) (see due dates, guidelines, and criteria for writing Issues Papers separate from this syllabus). These papers will highlight that have culturally different protagonists or be of different cultural perspectives from one another, i.e., different from one another in terms of race, ethnicity, etc. (ILA 4.2)
2. Formulate and post your personal position regarding an issue relating to specific works of children's and adolescent literature raised in the course's CRITICAL ISSUES CLASS Discussion each week. (ILA 4.2)
3. After viewing each instructor-narrated PowerPoint lecture OR video, successfully complete a short, online, recall & comprehension-level quiz over its content, demonstrating understanding of the development, breadth, genre, elements, awards, and salient works of children's and adolescent literature (ILA/NCTE 1-11)
4. Participate in an informal, free exchange of ideas and feelings concerning children's and adolescent literature with your classmates by posting at least one significant response to the class

Canvas DISCUSSION FORUM and writing at least two responses each week to posts written by classmates.

Specific guidelines and grading criteria for each assignment are available on Canvas, separate from this syllabus.

D. Teaching Strategies:

Web 2.0 learning tools (blogs, discussion boards, etc.); online, narrated PowerPoint lectures, videos, etc.; cooperative/collaborative learning; readings from the Internet; multimedia components; distance learning, peer responses, etc. (Lectures have accompanying lecture notes in pdf form for you.)

☐ The Internet will be an additional resource for information on a wide array of current issues. You're encouraged to find, when possible/desirable, relevant articles from reliable sources on the Internet to support positions you may take or to illustrate points you may make as the course unfolds. I will post, in the Class Critical Issues Blog, articles pertinent to issues in selection and use of children's and adolescent literature.

☐ Recommended Children's and Young Adult Lit books available within modules in Canvas. These do not need to be purchased; you can get these from a library, etc. Books must be culturally diverse and must be targeted specifically to children, tweens, or teens. They shouldn't be crossovers, i.e., books written for adults but assigned to students. They must have a copyright date after 2004.

F. Technical Information and Requirements:

☐ You need Canvas access and sound capability!

☐ Please use Mozilla Firefox as your browser rather than Internet Explorer. Internet Explorer can still remain your default browser, but be sure to use Firefox every time you access the course on Blackboard. You can try Chrome, but at this point, we don't have enough data to know if it will work as smoothly as Firefox. Use of Internet Explorer will definitely make accessing course content more difficult.

☐ Be sure you have access to Patriot mail since you need to check it on a daily basis for announcements, and communications with me.

☐ Your issue papers must be turned as Word documents and submitted into our Canvas Assignments folder. Grades and instructor comments will be accessible to you via Canvas.

☐ You'll take short online quizzes on the lectures; be sure that you have good Internet connectivity where you are since no make-ups or retakes are possible.

☐ Technical Support: If you experience technical problems or have a technical question about this course, you can obtain assistance by emailing itsupport@patriots.utttyler.edu or you can phone the support desk at 903 565 5555 (Option 2). When you email or call IT Support, be sure to include a complete description of your question or problem including:

o the title and number of the course

o if you get an error message, a description and message number

o what you were doing at the time you got the error message

❑ Plug-ins and Helper Applications: UT Tyler fully online courses such as ours use Java, JavaScript, browser plug-ins, helper applications, and cookies. It is essential that you have these elements installed and enabled in your web browser for optimal viewing of the content and functions of your online course:

❑ Adobe Reader allows you to view, save, and print Portable Document Format (PDF) files.
<http://get.adobe.com/reader/>

❑ Java Runtime Environment (JRE) allows you to use interactive tools on the web.
<http://www.java.com/en/download/>

❑ Adobe Flash Player allows you to view content created with Flash such as interactive web applications and animations. <http://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/>

❑ QuickTime allows users to play back audio and video files.

- Attendance. Your attendance and participation are important and required to do well in this course. Make/Up exam. There will be NO make/up activities or exams for this course unless absence is due to an emergency. Students are expected to submit relevant documentation (e.g. doctor's note, funeral notice, tow-truck receipt, etc.) when requesting a make/up activity.

- Written Assignments. Written assignments MUST be typed using double spaced lines and have page numbers. In addition, work submitted should reflect a professional quality in terms of scope, depth, writing mechanics, and appearance that would be expected of students at a prestigious university. Proofread all assignments as only materials with minimal or no errors will receive high scores. Type assignments in an easily-readable 12 point (e.g. Times New Roman, Helvetica, Tahoma)

Late Assignments (turning in after due date) Assignments are due at the beginning of class.

Assignments that are one day late will be lowered 20%. Papers that are two days late will be lowered 50%. No assignments will be accepted after 48 hours unless arrangements have been made with the instructor.

- Academic Dishonesty. To be successful in this class, you must invest time for study. Honesty is expected. Academic dishonesty (cheating, plagiarism, collusion) will NOT be tolerated and will result in a grade of zero (0) for the assignment. A second infraction will result in automatic failure of the class. Dishonesty is defined as (i) the use of unauthorized materials, (ii) any communication with peers during quizzes, (iii) representing another's work as one's own (i.e. plagiarism) or (iv) fabricating information. The professor reserves the right to determine occurrences of cheating. Additional information on Academic Dishonesty is found in the Selected University Policies section of this syllabi.

Canvas: Students will access class notes, assignments, grades and course information through Canvas. Any changes to the course schedule, schedule of assignments, or any special assignments will be posted on Canvas. Students are expected to regularly check Canvas for updates and to download any class handouts.

Cell Phone / Pager / PDA / Blackberry usage: Cell phones, pagers, etc., are not to be used during class. Turn such devices off or on vibrate and do NOT access them during class. The use of cell phone or other electronic communication devices during exams is prohibited. Text messaging should be done before or after class!

Person First Language: Our language is a reflection of our attitudes. Always refer to persons with disabilities with respect. Degrading terminology will not be tolerated. In this class we will strive to use "people first" language at all times. "People First" language always refers to the person first and not as a label or a category. For example, refer to “a student with autism” and not “an autistic”.

- Teacher Candidate Dispositions. The University of Texas at Tyler School of Education has developed Teacher Candidate Disposition Assessment outlining professional behaviors educators are expected to demonstrate in their interactions with students, families, colleagues and communities. The process assumptions, dispositions to be assessed, and examples of deficiencies within each disposition assessment categories are available at the UT-Tyler School of Education website: www.uttyler.edu/education (access School of Education; School of Education Disposition Assessment). It is expected that all students enrolled in EDSP 4269 will adhere to and demonstrate these teacher candidate dispositions at all times.

Safe Zone The professor considers this classroom to be a place where you will be treated with respect as a human being - regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, political beliefs, age, or ability. Additionally, diversity of thought is appreciated and encouraged, provided you can agree to disagree. It is the professor's expectation that ALL students consider the classroom a safe environment.

International Reading Standards, Texas Essential Knowledge & Skills, are incorporated throughout the course lectures and assignments.

Domain I. Reading Pedagogy – Competencies 001-002

Domain II. Reading Development: Foundational Skills - Competencies 003-008

Vision: The College of Education and Psychology is nationally recognized and respected for its academic programs and opportunities. It is a center of academic excellence, scholarly inquiry, and public service. The College prepares leaders to meet the critical challenges of the 21st Century through productive contributions to local and global communities and toward individual and cultural equity.

Mission: The mission of the College of Education and Psychology is to provide a positive environment that fosters the acquisition of knowledge and skills. The mission is individually and collectively realized through a community of scholars that contributes to knowledge through scholarly inquiry; organizes knowledge for application, understanding and communication; and provides leadership and service. We affirm and promote global perspectives that value individual and cultural diversity to enhance learning, service, and scholarship.
