SPECIAL PROJECTS

2023 Masters of Learning Design and Technologies

Proposed Degree with Interdisciplinary Specialization Credentials (i.e., Health Technologies, Instructional Design, Computer Science, Educational Leadership)

2021-Present

The University of Texas at Tyler eSports Program-Research Coordinator

2018-2020

Learning across Generations: Connecting Students and the Elderly through Technology.

Provided training and iPads to older adults in independent living centers across the greater Tyler community. The goal of the project was to determine if iPad training with senior citizens could reduce their feelings of loneliness and social isolation and in doing so, create a model for higher education and community leaders to utilize in their work with the senior citizen population in their communities.
