Course Policies:

Attendance Policy: Attendance is essential. Points are earned on in-class activities. Three absences will result in lowering your final grade by 25 points. More than 3 absences will result in a failing grade. Arriving late or leaving early can also be unprofessional and distracting; therefore, two such events will be counted as an absence. Please refer to the link on Dispositions: <http://www.utt Tyler.edu/education/documents/Dispositions.pdf>

Preparation: Reading assignments are important and enable students to examine beliefs, explore theories, and debate ideas with fellow students and instructor. The assigned materials are to be read before coming to class, allowing you to be prepared to participate fully. Quiz questions will be taken from assigned reading material, presentations, and classroom discussions.

Participation: It is important that we listen and learn from each other; therefore, full and active participation is required as we create a community of learners. You are expected to add depth to discussions at each meeting. Lack of participation gives the appearance of lack of interest and/or preparation. Participation points may also be given during class at the instructor's discretion. Activities cannot be made up if you are absent.

Written Assignments: Teachers must speak and write effectively; therefore, all written assignments must be in good form: check spelling, proofread, and staple or paper clip pages. Points may be deducted for inappropriate content and form. Typed work is expected unless otherwise specified. It is generally recommended that students keep photocopies of work turned in.

Canvas: Students will access class notes, assignments, grades and course information through Canvas. Any changes to the course schedule, schedule of assignments, or any special assignments will be posted on Canvas. Students are expected to regularly check Canvas for updates and to download any class handouts. Please refer to <http://www.Canvas.uttyler.edu> for more information.

Timeliness: Complete all assignments by the due date listed on the Tentative Course Calendar. All assignments handed in past that date will result in a deduction of points.

I will make every effort to respond quickly to your emails. Communicating with you is a priority but I also want you to have realistic expectations in terms of a timely response. If it is a weekday and you haven't heard from me within 24 hours, I did not get your email and please send it again. If it is a weekend, please give me 36 hours to respond. Everyone deserves to have a little down time on the weekend. Know that when you have tasks due, I will be checking email frequently though. ☺ Also, my priority is communicating with you, so if there are problems, let me know and we will work to solve them together.

Concerns: Should problems or concerns arise it is your responsibility to solicit help. This is done before problems affect your grade, not afterwards.

Assignments:

1. Reading/Reflection Assignments (8 ASSIGNMENTS)

Read and reflect on textbook readings and handouts given in class. You will be required to read all chapter assignments prior coming to class. You will be required to reflect on 8 assigned readings. These readings will include scholarly articles, and/or websites that pertain to the current topic. You are to submit your reflections through Canvas. The reflections should be typed, 1 to 2 pages, doubled spaced with 12" font. No reflections will be accepted late. In order to earn the 10 points, you will need to reflect a clear and precise understanding of the topic.

2. Small Group Activities:

Each group will choose one area of creativity or physical education to present to the class. Student will bring materials necessary to do the activity with small groups of students. Be prepared for the number of students in the class. Bring a handout for each student written per specifications or email your handout to the instructor two days prior to class. Must be presented on the due date or will receive a grade no greater than 70. An example will be given in class by the instructor. There will be a peer evaluation with this.

3. Class Assignments:

There will be five graded classroom activities. During class an assignment will be given to the group to be completed and presented to the class. Students will be graded on PARTICIPATION, ENTHUSIASM, TEAMWORK, and CREATIVITY!! You MUST be present in class in order to receive these points. You will not be allowed to make these activities up, apart from an emergency or an event that has been cleared by the instructor.

Quizzes/Exams:

There will be 1 quiz = 20 points, given throughout the semester.

4. Arts and Physical Education Activity File:

Compile a file of art activities that can be integrated into content areas and physical activities for elementary aged children that can be integrated into each of the content areas. You will have 2 activities for each area, one for grades K-2 and one for grades 3-6.
