Required Text: Broderick, P. C., & Blewitt, P. (2015). The life span: Human development for helping professionals (4th edition). Upper Saddle River, NJ: Pearson Education Inc. ISBN-1: 978-0132942881.

Readings: Additional assigned readings, including relevant peer-reviewed journal articles and new articles relevant to that week's topic, will be posted weekly on Canvas to supplement the material in the textbook.

Course Description:

An advanced study of the physical, cognitive, social, and emotional development of humans across the lifespan, as well as the effects of important contexts (e.g., the family, schools, cultures, and peer groups) on developmental outcomes. Students will gain a deeper understanding of transitions between major life phases, and a broad knowledge of development within each life stage. Major theoretical perspectives in developmental psychology will be included as well. Additionally, both readings and in-class course content will incorporate applications of this knowledge in the helping professions.

A successful student in the course will be able to demonstrate that she/he can comprehend, define, synthesize, and apply constructs related to:

- a. Theories of individual and family development and transitions across the lifespan;
- b. Theories of learning and personality development, including current understandings of neurobiological behavior;
- c. Effects of crises, disasters, and other trauma-causing events on persons of all ages;
- d. Theories and models of individual, cultural, couple, family, and community resilience;
- e. A general framework for understanding exceptional abilities and strategies for differentiated interventions;
- f. Both normal and abnormal human development, including developmental crises, disability, psychopathology;
- g. Theories for facilitating optimal development and wellness over the life span.

Evaluation and Grading:

At-home Exams: There will be three take-home essay exams given out over the semester (dates are listed on the schedule at the end of the syllabus). The exams will be open book, open-notes essay exams. You may use any resource available to you on the exams except for your fellow classmates (that is, the exams are not collaborative). Because these exams are open source and you have a week to complete them, you can think of them as short papers, which means they should include appropriate in-text citations and references. Exams will be posted on Canvas, and once they are open you will have a week to complete them. Your answers should be typed and uploaded as a word document attachment. Because you have a week to complete the exams, late exams will not be accepted. Please plan your writing and submission accordingly.

Weekly Case Studies: Each week you will be assigned one of the relevant case studies from your textbook to analyze and discuss. The page number for each week's case study is posted in each unit on Canvas, as well as 2-3 questions that I want you to analyze for the case. I expect your answers to be a thoughtful and thorough analysis of the case (in other words, 1-2 sentences will not earn you very many points). This is an opportunity for you to practice applying developmental theory and research cases you might encounter in a counseling setting. Late submissions for your case study analyses will be accepted up to 3 days late, with a 10% penalty for each day it is late.

Empirical research proposal paper/presentation: Students will develop a hypothesis relevant to their interests at the intersection of developmental psychology and clinical psychology, write a literature review that synthesizes up-to-date empirical and theoretical knowledge in the field on that topic, and propose an empirical methodology that could test their hypothesis. The final paper should be 15 pages in length and include an APA-style introduction and method section. A brief, 5-minute presentation that summarizes your hypothesis and proposed methods for your study will be due during the last week of class. Students will record their presentation in Canvas Studio to share with the class.

ATTENDANCE: I will take attendance at each class meeting. Your attendance points contribute 5% to your final grade.

Class Grade Breakdown:

Assignment	Percentage of Grade
Exam 1	20%
Exam 2	20%
Exam 3	20%
Case Studies	15%
Empirical Research Proposal	20%
Research Proposal Presentation	5%
Total points	100%

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (Sept. 12th) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
