* In addition to the required text, extra readings will be assigned throughout the semester. These readings will be available on CANVAS.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION

This is an asynchronous online course. It is expected that you will spend an average of 6+ hours working on the modules for this course each week. The course materials will be housed on Canvas. This class will consist of a collaborative learning community in which all participants share responsibility for the learning process. The instructor will facilitate learning by guiding students to sources of knowledge and promoting independent development and discovery of new knowledge. Online learning requires participation and leadership from each student. Lectures, videos, assigned readings, and online activities will provide a basis for discussion. Academic integrity is expected from each student and plagiarism from any source will not be tolerated.

Canvas (<https://www.utt Tyler.edu/canvas/>)

Canvas will serve as the overall structure and launching pad for all our activities in this course. In Canvas, you will find announcements, assignments, course schedule, links to outside activities and so on. Within each module folder, the activities necessary to successfully complete that module are described in great detail. It is students' responsibility to examine each module and get in touch with the instructor immediately if they are not clear about the requirements prior to assignment due dates.

COURSE POLICIES

There are 11 modules (1 for each week) to be completed for this class. Each module contains class content videos, additional readings, a quiz, and different activities (e.g., discussion posts, videos, reflections, ethical dilemmas, skills recordings) which should be completed that week. Due to the online nature of this course, it is essential that you remain acutely aware of the due dates for assignments and modules. All modules (which includes module activities, assignments, and quizzes) are due by 11:59 pm Friday Central Time. I understand that this "due date" may not be ideal for everyone, but I wanted to give you the full week to complete your assignments and allow those of you who work full time to have the option to complete the assignments during the week or on the weekend. You have the personal choice to submit the assignments or complete the modules anytime throughout the week. Because of this flexibility, late assignments or late completion of modules and quizzes will not be accepted. The instructor will do her best to attend to all questions submitted via email (zsunal@uttyler.edu) in a timely manner but anything received after 5:00 pm on the Friday before an assignment is due may not be responded to in time. Because of this, I ask that you please be proactive in starting your assignments.

All assignments are submitted on CANVAS. Please DO NOT email or turn in hard copies of your assignments to the instructor. You are responsible for uploading the correct version of your assignment to the correct location on CANVAS. If you are having trouble logging onto Canvas or uploading assignments, please contact the Canvas helpdesk at (903)566-7439 or email them at itsupport@patriots.uttyler.edu. You can also receive help by using the Help tab located on the left side of your Canvas screen, using the Canvas guides, or contacting Canvas help at (844)214-6949.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

QUIZES: One in each module you will take eleven (11) quizzes in this course that will cover lecture material and reading assignments. The quizzes will review topics, vocabulary, and basic understanding and will be multiple choice, matching, and true/false in format. The quizzes will be available all week and you can choose anytime to take the quizzes until 11:59 pm of the week. Make sure to give yourself enough time to complete quizzes as all quizzes will stop at 11:59 pm regardless if you have completed it or not.

Your lowest scored quiz will be eliminated to give all of you a chance to get adjusted to the quizzes. In other words, there are 11 quizzes but you will only be graded on highest scored 10 quizzes for you. If you complete all 11 question with 100% of the possible points you will receive 1 point as extra credit.

You can take each quiz only once. Make sure to complete all the module materials before starting your quiz. There are no proctoring systems being used for the quizzes in this course, as such, I'm aware that you will have access to your class materials. Therefore, I'm limiting the time you have to complete each quiz. It will, therefore, be advantageous of you to complete all the module materials before taking the quizzes, because you will not have enough time to use your resources to help you with all items.

Please know, if I hear of students working together on the quizzes, sharing exam information, or being in contact with each other while taking the exam, you will earn an F in this course and not be permitted to take it for grade replacement.

ARTICLE REVIEW: This assignment designed to assess your skills on identifying a topic of interest, finding articles related to that topic from different methodologies.

You are expected to identify three peer-reviewed counseling articles on a counseling related topic that you are interested in. Each article should represent one of the research designs (one qualitative, one quantitative, and one mixed-method). These articles should be published within the last 10 years (oldest year accepted 2011) in a counseling journal (Journal of Counselor Development, Counselor Education and Supervision, etc. Please refer to the list of counseling journals if you need help identifying journals). The article review paper should be 1-2 pages (not including title page and references) follows APA 7 guidelines (title page, running head, in-text citation, references, formatting, etc.) and should include the information below for each article:

- Complete citation using APA 7
- A half-page description for each article addressing the following questions:
 - Why did you choose this article?
 - What is the research question?
 - What are the research design, data, and statistical analysis utilized?
 - Key findings
 - Strengths and limitations of the study

Make sure to select articles on a topic(s) that are interesting to you or you would like to learn more on because you will complete your final paper on one of these articles of your choice.

FINAL PAPER: This assignment is designed to assess skill acquisition in regards to being able to read, understand, and critique articles from the counseling field. More details of the final paper will be discussed in class. Each student will complete an article critique as the final paper. Articles may reflect a variety of research methodologies (i.e., quantitative or qualitative, mixed method). Students are expected to evaluate all sections of the article (i.e., the introduction/literature review, research design, sampling procedures, and measurement and data collection procedures of the study, results, and discussion/conclusion). Details for each section are described in the Final Paper Instructions (available on CANVAS).

EXTRA CREDIT OPPORTUNITIES

1. Mid-term feedback and final class evaluations are extra credit opportunities. Each option will reward student with 1 point when the student email a screenshot of completion page to the instructor. Mid-term feedback will be completed via the link instructor provides and final class evaluation will be completed through UT Tyler system. Further details will be discussed in class as their time approaches.
2. If a student receives full credit from all 11 quizzes, they will also receive an additional extra point.

GRADING

During the semester, you will have opportunities to earn up to 100 points. Grading is on the following scale: 100% - 90% = A; 89% - 80% = B; 79% - 70% = C; 69% or less = F.

The following number of points can be earned throughout this course:

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
