TEACHING STRATEGIES

The course will be hybrid in nature, meaning that it will meet partially face-to-face as well as online. The course consists of lecture and didactic learning methods, small group discussions, and in-class assignments, coupled with experiential learning and practical application. Students will interact with course material through role-plays, an abstinence project, visiting support groups, and receiving feedback with regard to a case study paper, and in-class assignments. Professor reserves the right to change the course and/or syllabus as deemed appropriate.

Canvas (<https://www.utttyler.edu/canvas/>)

Canvas will serve as the overall structure and launching pad for all our activities in this course. In Canvas, you will find announcements, assignments, course schedule, discussion boards, links to outside activities and so on. Within each module folder, the activities necessary to successfully complete that module are described in great detail. It is students' responsibility to examine each module and get in touch with the instructor immediately if they are not clear about the requirements prior to assignment due dates.

COURSE POLICIES

Informed Consent Statement

Faculty members are dedicated to the educational, personal, and professional growth and development of our students. Faculty are in a unique position as both instructors who assess students' academic skills and members of the counseling profession with an ethical obligation to the profession. In both of these roles, it is the faculty's responsibility to evaluate student competencies within the realm of professional counseling and to address any concerns regarding students' professional competence. As such, please be aware of the following information regarding this course:

- The counseling profession encourages that counselors fully integrate their own personal attributes and identity, as well as their strengths and weaknesses, into therapeutic processes. Therefore, self-awareness is critical because this knowledge relates to being an effective therapist.
- There will be an emphasis in many courses on self-awareness/exploration, as well as giving feedback to peers. Although uncomfortable at times, we encourage students to be open to self-exploration, since we frequently ask clients to do so.
- At times, class may include experiential and self-awareness exercises. It is important to distinguish between sharing one's emotional reactions to such experiential class activities and revealing information about one's personal history. Self-disclosure of personal history is not required in order to successfully pass any course; however, students may be expected to share their reactions to experiential activities.
- Self-disclosures will not be used as a basis for grading in any course. However, should a student disclose information indicating impairment or the potential for harm to clients, the faculty member may take appropriate action in accordance with the ACA Code of Ethics (2005).
- Students often experience personal growth as they progress through the program. However, the courses are not meant to be a means of personal therapy. The focus in classes is on self-awareness and the enhancement and growth of necessary counselor skills.
- Please be aware that, although all instructors strive to create a safe environment for any personal disclosures, we cannot guarantee that other students will maintain the confidentiality of any such disclosures that are made.
- It is each student's responsibility to determine an appropriate level of self-disclosure (i.e. the content and depth of personal information that you share) in experiential learning activities.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Due to the experiential nature of this course, attendance is essential. If necessary, students may miss one class with a valid excuse and not face penalties related to their grade (students are encouraged to save this absence for illness or emergencies that may arise). This absence may be during the live-class or to be used as an extension for the online module with permission from the instructor. Students must let the instructor know as soon as possible if they will be missing class. It is the students' responsibility to obtain all notes and handouts missed during their absence. A second absence will result in a deduction of 100 points from the total grade. In the event that a student misses three classes, they will receive a failing grade. Students who are not physically present and engaged for the entirety of the class will be considered absent from that class meeting. During zoom meetings, students are expected to be fully present, with both video and audio available. Students should attend zoom meetings in a private location and not while driving or engaging in other activities. Failure to do so will count as an absence.

Chronic tardiness or early departure will result in the lowering of a final grade at the instructor's discretion. Please note: it is the student's responsibility to drop this course, if necessary.

PARTICIPATION

The experiential nature of the course requires participation from all students. Class discussion, role-plays, experiential learning activities, and process groups will help the facilitation of new knowledge. Students are expected to come to class prepared to engage with the material and participate in activities. The instructor reserves the right to deduct points for a student's grade due to lack of participation on a weekly basis

READINGS AND ASSIGNMENTS

It is the students' responsibility to complete all required readings prior to coming to class. Lecture and class activities will not repeat the readings but rather add to them. Therefore, the readings provide necessary context for course material. All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date specified on the syllabus. No late assignments will be accepted. Extensions may be granted at the discretion of the instructor if requested by the student prior to the due date of the assignment. No extensions will be granted the day an assignment is due or after the due date.

LATE WORK

All assignments are due according to the timeline established by the syllabus, unless otherwise noted by the instructor. Late submissions will not be accepted.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

The use of cell phones and laptops for any reason other than taking notes is not permitted during class time. Students may check their phones during the break and before/after class. Student engagement in texting or perusing internet sites during class time may result in point deductions on final grade.

CONFIDENTIALITY LIMITATIONS

An essential element of this course is self-reflection and the integration of new knowledge into previously established paradigms. It is the students' responsibility to determine the appropriate level of self-disclosure for class discussion and reflection papers. The instructor cannot guarantee confidentiality of information shared. If the instructor acquires information relevant to a student's progress or performance in the program, she will contact the student for a meeting to discuss the issue.

PROFESSIONALISM

At all times, students are expected to demonstrate personal characteristics consistent with the characteristics of professional counselors (see Master's Student Handbook), engage in ethical behavior as defined in the American Counseling Association Code of Ethics, and adhere to UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy. As professionals, students also are responsible for coming to class prepared to discuss readings, making productive contributions to class discussions/activities, and attending respectfully to others when not contributing directly. Students who do not meet expectations regarding professional responsibilities will be evaluated as such. This evaluation may be reflected in a grade reduction, competency concern report, and/or request for other remediation per Counseling Program policies.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT

Students are expected to be sensitive to individual and multicultural differences and to treat one another with respect during their experience in this course. Sensitivity to gender/race/ethnicity/ability/sexuality is expected and disrespectful language and/or behavior will not be tolerated. The American Counseling Association has explicit policies, standards, and ethical guidelines regarding diversity issues. In this class, you will be expected to reflect the standards and ethics of the counseling profession, especially in the area of diversity. Any use of written or verbal language should be consistent with the respect and tolerance that are the cornerstone of the counseling profession and should reflect the ACA Human Rights Committee's 1987 statement on tolerance, which states: In order to guarantee that each individual is free to pursue their potential, each member of ACA is charged to (a) engage in ongoing examination of his/her own attitudes, feelings, stereotypic views, perceptions and behaviors that might have prejudicial or limiting impact on others; (b) contribute to an increased sensitivity on the part of other individuals, groups or institutions to the barriers to opportunity imposed by discrimination; (c) advocate equal rights for all individuals through concerted personal, professional, and political activity.

PATRIOT EMAIL

University policy requires that all e-mail correspondence between students and instructor be done via the Patriot account. Check your Patriot E-Mail frequently. Announcements pertaining to class or departmental business will be sent to the student's Patriot account. In accord with university policy your instructor will respond only to student correspondence sent via Patriot E- mail.

COURSE FEEDBACK AND EVALUATION

Your constructive assessment of this course plays an indispensable role in shaping education at University of Texas at Tyler. Upon completing the course, please take time to fill out the online course evaluation.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

*The professor reserves the right to make changes as deemed necessary to ensure student learning.

COURSE ENGAGEMENT (250 POINTS)

Due to the hybrid format of this course, students will engage in a variety of online and face-to-face activities to assess comprehension and engagement. Points will be a combination of in-class participation (via zoom) and exercise completion. These points will be earned throughout the duration of the course.

In class weeks, you will have Chapter Reading Reflections: Before each class, please upload to the weekly canvas module the following points and questions you generate based on the readings assigned each week:

- Summarize 2 key points/themes/topics of interest to you. Each key point should focus on the information you read (the content) and the reason this interested you.
- Generate 2 (thoughtful) questions/issues/concerns you are left with after the readings.

Online weeks, you will have Chapter Quizzes and Engagement Activities: You will complete short quizzes and engage in activities within your modules to ensure you are understanding the material.

HOOKED BOOK REFLECTION (100 POINTS)

Students will read Hooked: When Addiction Hits Home and complete a reflection journal (see Appendix A for formatting). This should be at least 4 pages in length (single spaced within the format) and reflect on your personal and professional reactions to the book. Every chapter (with the exception of the intro and conclusion) should have at least one entry in the second column. Students should submit a copy on Canvas as well as have a copy accessible to them while in class. This does not need to be in APA format.

SUPPORT GROUP ATTENDANCE AND REFLECTION (150 POINTS)

As part of your class experience, you are required to attend two different “Open” support groups. You may attend one online but in-person is preferable. You may attend any of the below groups or any other addiction-related support groups approved by the professor. See Appendix B for additional information on locating meetings. CACREP Standard Addressed: 5.C.3.c.

Examples of groups (not limited to):

Al-Anon	Alcoholics Anonymous	Celebrate Recovery
Codependents Anonymous	Emotions Anonymous	Gamblers Anonymous
Nar-Anon	Narcotics Anonymous	Overeaters Anonymous
Sexaholics Anonymous	SMART Recovery

Note: All meetings are "closed meetings" (for those that are addicted) unless “O” (open) is indicated.

Only attend Open meetings unless you meet the necessary criteria.

If going in person, you may attend the group in the company of one of your classmates. This reflection will have the following components. It will be double spaced and does not need to be in APA format:

An introduction – This one-to-two paragraph introduction will provide an overview of the two meetings that you attended (worth 50 points).

A summary paper – This is to be a minimum two paper describing (a) your overall thoughts and feelings about the meetings you attended, (b) what influenced your thoughts and feelings, and (c) what this exercise has taught you about what clients might experience, focusing on your thoughts and feelings (a) before the meeting, (b) during the meeting, and (c) following the meeting (worth 100 points).

ABSTINENCE PROJECT (250 POINTS)

This exercise is designed to help you experience some of the feelings/thoughts that addicted individuals experience when they quit their drug or behavior of choice. This exercise requires that you give up a substance (e.g., nicotine, caffeine, or alcohol) or a behavior (e.g., Internet use, eating sweets, playing video/computer games, watching television, cell-phone usage) for the semester (see dates at the end of this syllabus). For those of you who have difficulty identifying a substance or behavior, please contact me so we can discuss what might be a challenge for you to give up for this time period. The purpose of this project is to increase empathy for those who are asked to abstain from something desirable. The project does not serve to emulate recovery, but rather to increase empathy and foster insight into the psychological aspects of abstinence. Students will be put into support groups that will meet weekly. Students should brainstorm positive substitutes for the activity/item/behavior from which they are abstaining. In each weekly check-in, students are to address the abstinence project prompt provided on the course schedule. It is also expected that you describe your experience with the abstinence project in general (thus you are not limited to only addressing the prompt).

During this assignment you will (a) write an introductory letter to your substance/behavior, (b) check in weekly with “support group” (c) write a summary paper which will serve as the conclusion to the exercise. This assignment will have the following components:

“Letter to my Substance/Behavior” - Written in the first person to the substance/behavior from which you are abstaining, will be due before the abstinence period begins (the content for this letter can be found in Appendix C) (worth 100 points).

Support Group– Weekly, students will check in with their support group. Students will reflect and respond to the reflection questions provided and provide support to their peers to encourage accountability. Students will describe their feelings and reactions, especially focusing on times you “lapse” or experience temptation. It is especially important to indicate times when it was both difficult and easy to abstain, as well as those specific circumstances during which you “slipped” (birthdays, holidays, and weekends seem especially difficult).

Reflection paper – This is to be a minimum three-page paper describing the abstinence experience (e.g., did you succeed or fail, what influenced you, what was the process like for you, etc.) and will serve as the conclusion to your overall experience. Additionally, please reflect on your support group experience (worth 150 points).

CASE STUDY PAPER (250 POINTS)

Students will write a case-study paper based on a fictional character from an approved movie, TV show, book. Students may not use the same character, and will be approved on a first-come, first-serve basis. Character approvals will be submitted via a canvas discussion board so please be mindful to check other students’ submissions prior to submitting your request.

Students will address how they would work with their client using the knowledge obtained from the course. Students will identify a time in the character’s story to “freeze” time and insert themselves as a mental health professional working with this individual. Papers will address: client presenting concern, theory/model of addiction, information on addictive substances, diagnosis, screening, co-occurring disorders, a theoretical approach and treatment plan, level of treatment, stage of change, treatment plan (worksheet), and the counselor’s work with the client, the family, and group/12-step treatment modalities. All papers will be written in APA format with citations. Length is 6-8 pages not including title page or references (abstract not necessary). Please see Appendix D for outline. CACREP Standards Addressed: 2.F.3.d., 2.F.5.j., 5.C.1.d., 5.C.2.e.

GRADE REPLACEMENT/FORGIVENESS AND CENSUS DATE POLICIES

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through.

FINANCIAL AID STATE-MANDATED COURSE DROP POLICY

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Appendix B Support Groups

It is best to search to meetings online, although Internet information is not always up-to-date. Students are encouraged to call the contact person to confirm information.

Ensure that you find an OPEN meeting and double check that it is not male or female only if you are the opposite sex.

When attending a support group, it is imperative that you respect the members of the group. You may identify yourself as a “guest” or someone who is “here to learn.” The point of this experience is to expose yourself to a resource that you may use as a referral in the future.

When approached by members, be respectful and appreciative. You can share that you wanted to learn more about _____ as you think it is a great resource but you know little about it...or perhaps there are people in your life who struggle with addiction. If you go with someone from class, please limit it to only one other person so as to respect the members of the meeting. As a reminder—you represent the counseling program as well as UT Tyler in your activities outside of class. Any conduct that does not adhere to the standards of the Department or UT Tyler will be dealt with according to University and Departmental policy.

APPENDIX C

ABSTINENCE PROJECT

Purpose: To gain insight and cultivate empathy pertaining to the physical, psychological, social, and spiritual experience of being without something desirable.

Direction: Spend the next week monitoring what you turn to or rely upon to feel better, comfort/soothe yourself, and/or cope (i.e., mood altering substances/activities). Select a substance or activity that is least conducive to your personal wellness goals that you will abstain from for the duration of the course (examples include alcohol, nicotine, sugar, caffeine, video/computer games, texting, cell phone usage, internet usage, Facebook, Twitter, watching TV, gambling, swearing, etc.).

Support group: In class we will form support groups for individuals who share commonality in their abstinence behavior/substance. There will be times when you experience cravings for your substance/activity, please use this support group to assist you during these times and encourage you to maintain abstinence.

Substitutions: Removing a substance/activity from your life will undoubtedly leave a void. Contemplate healthy alternatives that you will turn to when you desire the substance/activity from which you are choosing to abstain. Examples include, healthy food options, exercise, spiritual/meditative practices, new or continued hobby or leisure activity, positive social interactions, etc.

GOOD BYE LETTER TO MY SUBSTANCE/BEHAVIOR

This 1 – 2 page paper is to be written to the substance or behavior from which you are abstaining. This is to be written in the first person (e.g., “caffeine, you have always been there for me in the morning...”) and should cover the following 5 areas:

- 1) How my addictive substance/behavior is loved and is considered a “friend”
- 2) How my addictive substance/behavior is sensual (appeals to my senses)
- 3) How my addictive substance/behavior provides “healing” or is a “balm” to my emotional wounds
- 4) How my addictive substance/behavior controls and promotes my feelings of helplessness and entrapment
- 5) How my addictive substance/behavior is hated – what it has “cost” me

APPENDIX C
Abstinence Project Support Group Possible Topics for Discussion

From what are you choosing to abstain? How did you arrive at this decision? Who are your support persons? What substitutions will you employ this semester?
What obstacles do you anticipate arising over the semester that may interfere with your goal of abstinence? How might you respond to these obstacles?
What triggers your craving for the substance/activity from which you are abstaining (consider internal triggers such as negative emotions or specific thoughts, as well as external triggers such as commercials, locations, and/or times of day)?
What emotions have come up since you began the abstinence project (pride, disappointment, fear, anger, etc.)? To whom/what are those feelings directed (professor, friends who were not abstaining, self, support system, etc.)?
How is abstaining impacting your life (consider your thought life, emotions, social life, physiology, spirituality/existential experience, relationships, etc.)?
How are others in your life responding to your abstinence project? Are they helpful? Supportive? Minimizing? Do they aid in rationalizing "use"?
Have you been tempted to ignore your abstinence contract? If you have "relapsed," describe what the experience was like for you (circumstances leading up to it, repercussions afterwards, emotions, thoughts, etc.). If you have not, in what ways have you maintained abstinence in light of cravings and/or opportunities to "relapse"?
How is abstaining impacting your life (consider your thought life, emotions, social life, physiology, spirituality/existential experience, relationships, etc.)?
How is your abstinence project impacting your empathy for those who are struggling with addiction? This project is for several weeks, what it may be like for a client who is trying to abstain without an "end date"?
What is in your "bag of tricks" regarding this abstinence project? Which defense mechanism have you noticed yourself employing this semester (i.e., rationalization, blaming, justification, minimization, isolation, denial, etc.)? Examples?
With a holiday approaching, what are some triggers you anticipate (people, places, things)? How will you ensure that you remain abstinent?
