Course Policies

Attendance Policy:

Students MUST attend all scheduled class meetings, including the group seminar meetings to equal 1 ½ hours per week. Please note that this is an accreditation requirement and that making up group hours is not possible. Please plan accordingly.

To ensure we are facilitating a meaningful virtual learning environment for all of you, we have the same expectations for students attending synchronous zoom classes that we would for students attending an in-person class.

- (1) We expect that students will fully attend each class from the start time to the end time of class. Being in attendance for a zoom class means that a student has their camera turned on for the entire duration of class.
- (2) We expect that students exhibit the same professional behaviors during class time that would be expected in an in-person class. That includes sitting up right (i.e., not laying down), being awake and alert, and participating during class.
- (3) We expect that students are able to find an appropriate environment to participate in class. An appropriate environment is one that is free from distraction and has privacy from other individuals (i.e., friends, family members, children). This is essential in clinical courses and courses with large group discussion components, as confidential information is discussed that is not appropriate for others to hear.

Course Assignments:

1. Attend one (1) hour of clinical supervision with the site supervisor each week.
2. Complete a minimum of 300 clock hours in a clinical mental health counseling setting under the supervision of a licensed professional counselor, including a minimum of 120 hours of direct client contact.
3. Complete a minimum of 10 clock hours (included in the total 120 direct hours) of group counseling between your two semesters of internship. Due to COVID 19, special accommodations may be made if group hours are not possible.
4. Maintain an internship log for weekly review and signature by the site supervisor and by the University supervisor.
5. Obtain and provide proof of professional liability insurance for counselors.
6. Present one counseling skill/psychoeducation activity.
7. Prepare and present one case presentation for discussion at designated class sessions. The case presentation will be presented in a formal format using the worksheet provided. If recorded, a copy of consent for Audio/Video Recording should be obtained and placed in the client's on-site file.
8. If you are unable to record a session as part of your case presentation, your on-site supervisor must observe two counseling sessions and complete documentation on tevera (<https://uttyler.tevera.app/#/logon>).
9. Write two assigned reflection papers.
10. Complete evaluation forms at the end of the semester.

Transitions from COUN 5396 Internship I to COUN 5397 Internship II

Students in COUN 5396 Internship I may be given a grade of In Progress (IP) and allowed to continue into COUN 5397 Internship II provided they have accrued at least 75% of their direct hours (75% of 120 direct hours = 90 direct hours) and have met all other requirements, including a total of at least 270 hours and all supervision and paperwork requirements. The remaining 30 direct hours will be added to the requirements for COUN 5397 Internship II (120+30 = 150 direct hours).

Students in COUN 5396 Internship I who do not accumulate at least 90 direct hours during the semester will not be allowed to continue into COUN 5397 Internship II. They may either earn a grade of In Progress (IP) or No Credit (NC), depending on the nature and magnitude of the shortfall and the status of other course requirements.

Students in COUN 5396 Internship I may continue to accrue hours for one week beyond the end of the semester with the permission of the university instructor and site supervisor. Students in COUN 5397 Internship II may begin to accrue hours for one week before the beginning of the semester with the permission of the university instructor and site supervisor. In both cases, the site supervisor must continue to provide the 1 hour per week of site supervision. Due to CACREP group supervision requirements, these timeframes may only be extended if university group supervision is provided. The university is under no obligation to provide such supervision outside the regular course structure.

Students in COUN 5397 Internship II must meet all CACREP, departmental, and course requirements for internships, including but not limited to 600 total hours with at least 240 direct hours, individual/triadic site supervision, and group university supervision mandates before credit will be awarded.

Course Policies

A. Diversity

Case studies and other examples inherent in this course will approach counseling from a cultural perspective. This course examines many sensitive areas. Because our student population is very diverse, sensitivity to gender/race/age/ethnicity/ability/sexuality is expected and disrespectful language and/or behavior will not be tolerated.

B. Attendance

Attendance is required for both class and supervision. CACREP requires particular clock hour standards for each of these settings. Failure to meet these requirements will result in a grade of no credit (NC).

C. Late Work

All assignments are due according to the timeline established by the syllabus, unless otherwise noted by the instructor. Late submissions will not be accepted.

D. Professional Liability Insurance Coverage

Professional liability insurance is a requirement of all field experiences. You may choose any insurance provider you wish for your liability coverage.

- As a student member of the American Counseling Association (ACA) enrolled in Master's-level coursework, you are eligible for free coverage. The website is www.counseling.org. Click on the "Student" tab.
- You may also obtain discounted coverage as a student member of the Texas Counseling Association (TCA). The website is www.txca.org.
- As a student member of the American School Counselor Association (ASCA), you may obtain free insurance. The website is www.schoolcounselor.org. Be sure to select student membership.
- Students have also found CPH & Associates and the Healthcare Providers Service Organization to be reliable providers of coverage. If you wish to purchase your insurance from CPH & Associates, go to www.cphins.com. HPSO can be found at www.hpso.com. You may also purchase from other appropriate providers if you wish as long as they provide coverage for you as a counselor, not a generic educator.

Again, you must provide proof of current coverage in order to see clients in COUN 5396/5397 and any other clinical course.

E. Informed Consent Statement for Counseling Courses

Faculty members are dedicated to the educational, personal, and professional growth and development of our students. Faculty members are in a unique position as both instructors who assess students' academic skills and members of the counseling profession with an ethical obligation to the profession. In both of these roles, it is the faculty's responsibility to evaluate student competencies within the realm of professional counseling and to address any concerns regarding students' professional competence. As such please be aware of the following information regarding this course:

- The counseling profession encourages that counselors fully integrate their own personal attributes and identity, as well as their strengths and weaknesses, into therapeutic processes. Therefore, self-awareness is critical because this knowledge relates to being an effective therapist.
- There will be an emphasis in many courses on self-awareness/exploration, as well as giving feedback to peers. Although uncomfortable at times, we encourage students to be open to self-exploration, since we frequently ask clients to do so.
- At times, class may include experiential and self-awareness exercises. It is important to distinguish between sharing one's emotional reactions to such experiential class activities and revealing information about one's personal history. Self-disclosure of personal history is not required in order to successfully pass any course; however, students may be expected to share their reactions to experiential activities.
- Self-disclosures will not be used as a basis for grading in any course. However, should a student disclose information indicating impairment or the potential for harm to clients, the faculty member may take appropriate action in accordance with the ACA Code of Ethics (2014).
- Students often experience personal growth as they progress through the program. However, the courses are not meant to be a means of personal therapy. The focus in classes is on self-awareness and the enhancement and growth of necessary counselor skills.
- Please be aware that, although all instructors strive to create a safe environment for any personal disclosures, we cannot guarantee that other students will maintain the confidentiality of any such disclosures that are made.
- It is each student's responsibility to determine an appropriate level of self-disclosure (i.e. the content and depth of personal information that you share) in experiential learning activities.

F. Psychology and Counseling Retention Policy

Faculty, training staff, supervisors, and administrators of the Psychology and Counseling graduate programs at the University of Texas at Tyler have a professional, ethical, and potentially legal obligation to: (a) establish criteria and methods through which aspects of competence other than, and in addition to, a student-trainee's knowledge or skills may be assessed (including, but not limited to, emotional stability and well-being, interpersonal skills, professional development, and personal fitness for practice); and, (b) ensure, insofar as possible, that the student-trainees who complete our programs are competent to manage future relationships (e.g., client, collegial, professional, public, scholarly, supervisory, teaching) in an effective and appropriate manner. Because of this commitment, and within the parameters of our administrative authority, our faculty, training staff, supervisors, and administrators strive not to advance, recommend, or graduate students or trainees with demonstrable problems (e.g., cognitive, emotional, psychological, interpersonal, technical, and ethical) that may interfere with professional competence to other programs, the profession, employers, or the public at large.

As such, within a developmental framework, and with due regard for the inherent power difference between students and faculty, students and trainees should know that the faculty, training staff, and supervisors of our programs will evaluate their competence in areas other than, and in addition to, coursework, seminars, scholarship, or related program requirements. These evaluative areas include, but are not limited to, demonstration of sufficient: (a) interpersonal and professional competence (e.g., the ways in which student trainees relate to clients, peers, faculty, allied professionals, the public, and individuals from diverse backgrounds or histories); (b) self-awareness, self-reflection, and self-evaluation (e.g., knowledge of the content and potential impact of one's own beliefs and values on clients, peers, faculty, allied professionals, the public, and individuals from diverse backgrounds or histories); (c) openness to processes of supervision (e.g., the ability and willingness to explore issues that either interfere with the appropriate provision of care or impede professional development or functioning); and (d) resolution of issues or problems that interfere with professional development or functioning in a satisfactory manner (e.g., by responding constructively to feedback from supervisors or program faculty; by the successful completion of remediation plans; by participating in personal counseling/therapy in order to resolve issues or problems). [Adapted from the Comprehensive Evaluation of Student-Trainee Competence in Professional Psychology Programs statement developed by the Student Competence Task Force of the APA Council of Chairs of Training Councils (CCTC), (<http://www.apa.org/ed/graduate/cctc.html>), approved March 25, 2004. (2012-2014 Graduate Catalog)

Evaluating Student Fitness and Performance

Members of the faculty, using professional judgment, continuously evaluate each student's fitness and performance. Students receive information related to their fitness and performance from faculty members, their advisors, and their supervisors. The criteria used by the faculty to make such judgments include instructor's observations of course performance, evaluations of students' performances in simulated practice situations, supervisors' evaluations of students' performances in practice situations, and the disciplines' codes of ethics. Students are formally evaluated at least annually by the program faculty. Detailed information about procedures for student evaluations, progress review, retention, and for addressing concerns about student progress are available at the department website: <http://www.uttyler.edu/psychology/>.

Students who are not making satisfactory progress or who are not meeting program standards should consider withdrawing from the program. In this context, the term "unsatisfactory progress in the program" refers to an academic judgment made regarding the student's fitness and performance. It is a determination that the student has failed to meet academic and/or professional standards.

G. Other

Students are strongly encouraged to read The University of Texas at Tyler's Graduate Catalog especially regarding issues such as academic grievance, plagiarism and cheating, etc. The policies stipulated in the catalog will be strictly enforced.

Please turn all cell phones, pagers, and other electronic equipment to off, silent, or vibrate when you enter class. To create a respectful class environment, please refrain from texting, checking messages, etc. In the case of an emergency, please alert the instructor prior to class.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Presenting Problem: Describe why the client is seeking or referred for counseling. Briefly describe your initial assessment including client presentation (affect, mood, level of functioning, etc.), complaints, and clinical impressions. Be sure and address level of intellectual functioning or alcohol and drug history if applicable.

Family History: Describe family of origin and family of creation (where appropriate) including current living situation. Describe client resources and support systems.

Assessment Instruments: Include a list (2 minimum) of assessment instruments that you would like to use with this client or the clients family. Remember you can use the Mental Measurements Yearbook to help you decide on assessments. Describe why you might consider this assessment, are there any cultural considerations around this assessment, and what impressions that you may confirm or discard as a result of using the assessment. If you have an opportunity to use an assessment with the permission and supervision of your site supervisor, include the assessment and your interpretation of it. Remember that you cannot ask a client to do an assessment without giving the client feedback.

- Preparation for case study
 - Presentation materials (completeness)
 - Group facilitation skills
- Case Presentations should last 30 minutes.

General Notes Related to Case Studies

- A case study is a synopsis of a client and your treatment of that client. Include only information which has bearing on the case or is consistent with established reporting procedures (i.e. family history, behavioral observations).
- Be as thorough as possible while being succinct. Often, you will have only a few minutes to paint a picture of the client for the staffing team. What you present and how you choose to present it will affect their understanding of the client.
- Consider what points need to be emphasized in your oral presentation. Placing an emphasis on one area (family) while underemphasizing something that was equally important during the clinical interview (medical history) will skew the treatment team's interpretation of the case.
- For the purposes of this course, seek professional consultation outside of your faculty supervisor. Include in your presentation how these consults affected your decisions about treatment.
