

Marketable Skills for School of Nursing

Degree and Major: MSN-EDU

After completing the Master of Science in Nursing: Education degree program at UT Tyler, the student can

Soft Skills:	Hard Skills:	Unique Features of Program (what separates UT Tyler's program from others)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Address challenging problems and issues through: creative thinking, inquiry, innovation, analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information including numerical data or observable facts.</li> </ul>	Create a curriculum. Write student learning outcomes. Create valid and reliable exams. Design appropriate assignments for each level of nursing student. Construct a course syllabus. Design and implement academic education courses for nurses.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Career supports throughout the entire degree program.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Respond in an ethical manner by connecting data, behavior, choices, consequences to ethical theories.</li> </ul>	Integrate nursing education theories with current nursing practice.	UTT MSN Education faculty use a strength based program that allows students to learn by developing their individual strengths and applying them to the learning process.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Communicate ideas effective through written, oral, and visual delivery modes.</li> </ul>	Conduct course, clinical, and program evaluations based on national standards.	UTT MSN Education faculty act as a liaison between the student and the Dean at the practicum site to secure practicum placements for each student.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Work effectively in teams.</li> </ul>	Collaborates effectively with students, faculty, practicing nurses, and other healthcare professionals in the classroom and clinical environment.	UTT MSN Education faculty promote the use of Problem Based Learning that allows students to work in small teams to solve problems while enhancing their critical thinking skills.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Advance the human condition through learned international cultural competence, knowledge of civil responsibility, and a foundational knowledge of human behavior.</li> </ul>	Apply teaching, service, and scholarship to the advanced practice role of nurse educators.	UTT MSN Education faculty use a caring philosophy to promote a safe and positive learning environment based on respect for all students.