EXCELLENT ACADEMICS & CAREER FOCUS

Pursue your passion.

From cancer treatments to political polling, undergraduate students have unique opportunities to conduct research that truly impacts lives in East Texas and beyond. By participating in research at UT Tyler, you will help solve real-world problems, gain valuable insight into your chosen field and build skills that employers seek, giving you an edge in finding a great career after graduation.
How to Succeed as a Patriot...

PASS THE TEST
95% of our nursing graduates passed the NCLEX-RN licensure exam on the first try, which is higher than the state (90%) and national (87%) pass rates in 2018.

NETWORK
Our Association of Technology, Management and Applied Engineering student organization has earned the national Outstanding Chapter award five times in the last 10 years.

BUILD A RÉSUMÉ
From career fairs, to our Career Success Conference, to the career coaches in every college—our Office of Career Success and Alumni Engagement is committed to helping you find a career you’re passionate about.

LAND THE JOB
Our engineering graduates are ranked at the top in gainful employment among all Texas public universities with programs in civil, electrical and mechanical engineering, according to the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board in 2016.

Research opportunities

UT Tyler students are contributing to advancements in their fields of interest through research as early as their freshman year. Work alongside professors like Dr. Dustin Patterson in biochemistry, who is developing cell-specific drug delivery strategies in the fight against cancer; or Dr. Amy Hayes in psychology, who is researching the interaction between emotional intelligence, gender and academic achievement.

Change Lives

Electrical engineering majors assist Dr. Premananda Indic in designing wearable biosensors to address life-threatening situations among infants and the mentally ill in rural areas. The research focuses on developing small inexpensive wearable sensors that monitor the vital signs of vulnerable people in rural areas where healthcare is not always readily accessible.

Make Headlines

More than 100 students from various areas in the College of Arts & Sciences take part in UT Tyler’s Center for Opinion Research—and they’re making national and international headlines for their findings. The polling center conducted one of the nation’s most accurate polls in a high-profile Texas U.S. Senate race in 2018.
A big part of the college experience is what you do with your time outside the classroom. Get involved in our thriving campus life and make lifelong friendships, explore new interests, develop skills, serve the community, enhance your health or advance your career.
“I had an amazing experience at freshman orientation and camp, which inspired me to become a leader the next summer. I love the opportunity to better develop my leadership skills and help people any way that I can.”
