

Josephine Erickson, BSN, RN

Professional Summary

Oncology Registered Nurse experienced in delivering independent, evidence-based care in complex clinical settings. Skilled in utilizing the nursing process to manage acute and chronic oncologic conditions, including high-risk treatments and end-of-life care. Demonstrates strong clinical judgment, effective delegation, and the ability to manage evolving patient situations. Committed to patient-centered care, interdisciplinary collaboration, and supporting patients and families through all stages of illness.

Licensure & Certifications

Registered Nurse (RN)

BLS Certified

ACLS Certified

ONS/ONCC Chemotherapy & Immunotherapy Certified

Professional Experience

Bone Marrow Transplant / Oncology Nurse

Baylor Scott & White Medical Center – Dallas, TX (Oct 2025 – Present)

- Practice independently in a high-acuity oncology setting.
- Utilize the nursing process to deliver evidence-based care.
- Administer chemotherapy, immunotherapy, and blood products.
- Delegate tasks appropriately and maintain accountability.
- Provide patient and family education.
- Document care accurately and timely.

Medical-Surgical Oncology Nurse

UT Health East Texas – Tyler, TX (Aug 2023 – Present)

- Deliver routine and complex nursing care.
- Administer medications and monitor for side effects.
- Educate patients and families.
- Collaborate with interdisciplinary teams.
- Maintain accurate documentation.

Nurse Extern

UT Health East Texas – Tyler, TX (Jan 2023 – Aug 2023)

- Assisted in patient care.
- Monitored vital signs.
- Provided emotional support.
- Documented patient information.

Education

Master of Science in Nursing (MSN), Nursing Education – The University of Texas at Tyler
(Expected Aug 2026)

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) – The University of Texas at Tyler (2023)