Text: Juan Rulfo. El llano en llamas

Course Description and Learning Outcomes: The narrative Juan Rulfo occupies a prominent place in the history of Spanish American literature even though Rulfo wrote only two main works—the short story collection El llano en llamas (1953) and the novella Pedro Páramo (1955). Such a characterization is justified in that each work is a masterpiece combining innovative narrative techniques and splendid thematics of rural and universal implications. This summer we will study in this course El llano en llamas.

- entender la influencia de El llano en llamas en el desarrollo de la narrativa hispanoamericana.
- entender mejor las condiciones sociales y culturales necesarias para el comentario de la obra.
- practicar la crítica literaria.

Course Requirements and Grading Distribution/Weights: The course will entail reading three (3) short stories from the collection El llano en llamas (1953) by the Mexican author Juan Rulfo: “Nos han dado la tierra,” “Es que somos muy pobres,” and “Talpa”. The final grade will be based on the following components (their percentage of the final grade is also stated): 1) discussion of the indicated short stories with the instructor by Zoom on or about Wednesday, 17 June with a weight of 20 % of final course grade (note: a Zoom link will be sent); 2) the completion of homework exercises over the short stories, with a due date of Friday, 26 June, with a weight of 40% of the course grade; and 3) the completion of a take-home examination (to be distributed by 20 June) over the indicated short stories with a due date of Thursday, 2 July, with a weight of 40 % of the course grade.

Homework Questions/Exercises: For each short story, please answer the following (in Spanish). Your responses should be typed. Answers should be fairly substantial.

1. ¿Qué tipo de narrador hay (primera, tercera persona)? ¿Es el narrador digno confianza?
2. ¿Quiénes son los personajes centrales? ¿Cómo son?
3. En relación con el cuento, comenta los siguientes elementos: 1) la exposición; 2) el desarrollo; 3) el punto decisivo; 4) el clímax; 5) el desenlace. Si falta uno de los elementos, explica por qué.
4. Describe el ambiente y el tono del cuento.
5. Comenta el tema (o temas) del cuento. ¿Hay un tema implícito?
6. ¿Hay elementos irónicos en el cuento?

Consequently, an AI tool should not be considered a substitute for traditional approaches to research. You are ultimately responsible for the quality and content of the information you submit. Misusing AI tools that violate the guidelines specified for this course is considered a breach of academic integrity. The student will be subject to disciplinary actions as outlined in UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy. Refer to the About This Course section of the UT Tyler Syllabus Module for specific information on appropriate use of AI in your course(s).

Final Exam Policy

Final examinations are administered as scheduled. If unusual circumstances require that special arrangements be made for an individual student or class, the Dean of the appropriate college, after consultation with the faculty member involved, may authorize an exception to the schedule. Faculty members must maintain student final examination papers for a minimum of three months following the examination date.

Incomplete Grade Policy

If a student, because of extenuating circumstances, is unable to complete all of the requirements for a course by the end of the semester, then the instructor may recommend an Incomplete (I) for the course. The "I" may be assigned in place of a grade only when all of the following conditions are met: (a) the student has been making satisfactory progress in the course; (b) the student is unable to complete all coursework or final exam due to unusual circumstances that are beyond personal control and are acceptable to the instructor, and (c) the student presents these reasons before the time that the final grade roster is due. The semester credit hours for an Incomplete will not be used to calculate the grade point average.

The student and the instructor must submit an Incomplete Form detailing the work required and the time by which the work must be completed to their respective department chair or college dean for approval. The time limit established must not exceed one year. Should the student fail to meet all of the work for the course within the time limit, then the instructor may assign zeros to the unfinished work, compute the course average for the student, and assign the appropriate grade. If a grade has yet to be assigned within one year, then the Incomplete will be changed to an F, or NC. If the course was initially taken under the CR/NC grading basis, this may adversely affect the student's academic standing.

Grade Appeal Policy

Disputes regarding grades must be initiated within sixty (60) days from the date of receiving the final course grade by filing a Grade Appeal Form with the instructor who assigned the grade. A grade appeal should be used when the student thinks the final course grade awarded does not reflect the grades earned on assessments or follow the grading scale as documented in the syllabus. The student should provide the rationale for the grade appeal and attach supporting document about the grades earned. The form should be sent via email to the faculty member who assigned the grade. The faculty member reviews the rationale and supporting documentation and completes the instruction section of the form. The instructor should return the form to the student, even if a grade change is made at this level. If the student is not satisfied with the decision, the student may appeal in writing to the Chairperson of the department from which the grade was issued. In situations where there is an allegation of capricious grading, discrimination, or unlawful actions, appeals may go beyond the Chairperson to the Dean or the Dean's designee of the college from which the grade was issued, with that decision being final. The Grade Appeal form is found in the Registrar's Form Library.

NOTE: The Grade Appeal Form is different from the Application for Appeal form submitted to the Student Appeals Committee, which does not rule on grade disputes as described in this policy.
