Course Objectives and Learning Outcomes

- Improve piano performance skills involved in ensemble playing and accompanying
- Develop an awareness of accompanying styles and techniques for each historical period
- At the conclusion of this course, students will have demonstrated the ability to perform in collaboration with other students in areas of voice, winds, strings, or piano

Attendance and Requirements

Attendance is required for all private lessons, accompanying classes, rehearsals and 30-minute lessons with soloists. The first month will be a 30-minute private lesson focusing on duet repertoire, sight - reading and accompanying coaching. After accompanying assignments are made, 30-minute lessons will continue until all assigned repertoire has been learned and graded. You will have to schedule an additional lesson to bring in your soloist for their 30-minute. Please check your schedule each week as it will be subject to change, especially as you begin working with other students. For each student assigned, you must schedule and begin rehearsals one month prior to the recital date.

There will be 4 mandatory studio classes, where accompanists will perform with their assigned students. Please mark your calendar for October 15, October 29, November 12 and November 19 at 12:30 in Braithwaite Recital Hall.

A minimum of 4 rehearsals - after the first 2 rehearsals on your own, you may count attending student's lessons, performing for instrumental studio class, or making a video for vocal students as rehearsals. I encourage you to take advantage of every opportunity available.

2 lessons (30-minutes) with your soloist with me – scheduled 2 and 3 weeks before recital date

An accompanying studio class performance on the Thursday before the recital date (unless otherwise assigned). Mark your calendar now for studio class in the recital hall on Thursday at 12:30 the week before each student recital date.

It is your responsibility to make sure that the person you are accompanying knows when they should come to lessons or studio classes. For your protection, make it a habit to send them a reminder the day before each rehearsal, lesson or class that they should attend. It is easy for them to forget since it is not part of their weekly schedule!

Artificial Intelligence Statement

We encourage discussing AI tools' ethical, societal, philosophical, and disciplinary implications. All uses of AI should be acknowledged as this aligns with our commitment to honor and integrity, as noted in UT Tyler's Honor Code. Faculty and students must not use protected information, data, or copyrighted materials when using any AI tool. Additionally, users should be aware that AI tools rely on predictive models to generate content that may appear correct but is sometimes shown to be incomplete, inaccurate, taken without attribution from other sources, and/or biased. Consequently, an AI tool should not be considered a substitute for traditional approaches to research. You are ultimately responsible for the quality and content of the information you submit. Misusing AI tools that violate the guidelines specified for this course is considered a breach of academic integrity. The student will be subject to disciplinary actions as outlined in UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy. Refer to the About This Course section of the UT Tyler Syllabus Module for specific information on appropriate use of AI in your course(s).

Final Exam Policy

Final examinations are administered as scheduled. If unusual circumstances require that special arrangements be made for an individual student or class, the Dean of the appropriate college, after consultation with the faculty member involved, may authorize an exception to the schedule. Faculty members must maintain student final examination papers for a minimum of three months following the examination date.

Incomplete Grade Policy

If a student, because of extenuating circumstances, is unable to complete all of the requirements for a course by the end of the semester, then the instructor may recommend an Incomplete (I) for the course. The "I" may be assigned in place of a grade *only when all of the following conditions are met: (a) the student has been making satisfactory progress in the course; (b) the student is unable to complete all coursework or final exam due to unusual circumstances that are beyond personal control and are acceptable to the instructor, and (c) the student presents these reasons before the time that the final grade roster is due. The semester credit hours for an Incomplete will not be used to calculate the grade point average.

The student and the instructor must submit an Incomplete Form detailing the work required and the time by which the work must be completed to their respective department chair or college dean for approval. The time limit established must not exceed one year. Should the student fail to meet all of the work for the course within the time limit, then the instructor may assign zeros to the unfinished work, compute the course average for the student, and assign the appropriate grade. If a grade has yet to be assigned within one year, then the Incomplete will be changed to an F, or NC. If the course was initially taken under the CR/NC grading basis, this may adversely affect the student's academic standing.

Grade Appeal Policy

Disputes regarding grades must be initiated within sixty (60) days from the date of receiving the final course grade by filing a Grade Appeal Form with the instructor who assigned the grade. A grade appeal should be used when the student thinks the final course grade awarded does not reflect the grades earned on assessments or follow the grading scale as documented in the syllabus. The student should provide the rationale for the grade appeal and attach supporting document about the grades earned. The form should be sent via email to the faculty member who assigned the grade. The faculty member reviews the rationale and supporting documentation and completes the instruction section of the form. The instructor should return the form to the student, even if a grade change is made at this level. If the student is not satisfied with the decision, the student may appeal in writing to the Chairperson of the department from which the grade was issued. In situations where there is an allegation of capricious grading, discrimination, or unlawful actions, appeals may go beyond the Chairperson to the Dean or the Dean's designee of the college from which the grade was issued, with that decision being final. The Grade Appeal form is found in the Registrar's Form Library.

NOTE: The Grade Appeal Form is different from the Application for Appeal form submitted to the Student Appeals Committee, which does not rule on grade disputes as described in this policy.
