GRADING

Credit (CR): The student has shown evidence of learning and development and has met the minimal learning required to proceed to the next sequence of clinical skill development, either a more advanced internship or internship; There are no major concerns about the student's learning progress and/ or advancement in the program. Professional and/or skill development concerns will be discussed during individual supervision.

No Credit (NC): The core clinical mental health and school counseling faculty recommends that the student be placed on a remediation plan and not be admitted to the next sequenced clinical learning experience. The expectation is that the student genuinely aspires to learn and meet the standards of best practice in counseling, which requires awareness and use of ACA policies (e.g., ACA Code of Ethics).

The semester cumulative log is due at the end of the course. These documents are located in the Introductory module on Canvas.

Goal Setting/Vision Board (20 points):

Purpose

Internship is an opportunity to move from learning about school counseling to actively practicing the skills, knowledge, and professional behaviors of a school counselor. At the beginning of your internship, you will identify 3–5 professional goals that you would like to work toward during your internship experience.

Your goals should reflect areas where you want to grow, gain experience, strengthen your skills, or develop greater confidence as a school counselor.

Choose Your Format

You may present your internship goals in a format that best represents you and your learning style. Choose one of the following:

Narrative Format

Write a brief narrative describing your 3–5 goals and why each goal is important to your professional development.

Creative Format

Present your goals in a creative format such as a:

- Vision board
- Digital collage
- Infographic
- Video
- Slideshow
- Canva presentation
- Other creative format approved by your instructor

Regardless of the format you choose, your submission should clearly identify your 3–5 internship goals and explain what you hope to learn, develop, or accomplish through each goal.

Counseling Philosophy Paper (20 points):

This paper explains your personal approach to developing professional helping relationships with students who seek counseling for psychological or relationship concerns.

Your paper may include the following areas:

- Introduction: Introduce your approach to counseling and the purpose of the paper.
- View of Human Nature: Explain your beliefs about people and how they develop.
- Nature of Client Problems: Describe how you understand the causes or influences of clients' problems.
- Change and Growth: Explain how and why you believe clients are able to change and grow.
- Role of the Counselor: Describe the counselor's role and responsibilities in the counseling process.
- Theoretical Approach: Explain the counseling theory or approach that best fits your beliefs about counseling.
- Ethical and Legal Responsibilities: Discuss the ethical and legal responsibilities that guide your work as a counselor.

Use these areas to explain your developing philosophy of counseling and how you would apply it when working with clients.

Informal Observations:

Each student will submit three (3) 15-minute individual counseling sessions for informal observations. For each session, the student will complete and submit a Counseling Skills Identification and Analysis form.

Formal TEA Observation:

First Formal observation (classroom guidance) conducted by designated field supervisor within the first six weeks of the semester.

Case Study Presentation:

Using the Case Presentation Format document, students will present a case study describing a student on their campus that they are currently working with. The case study will be presented in class. Students are required to present using a slide deck and are encouraged to include a short video of one of the sessions.

Attendance & Participation

Students are expected to attend class by checking in online at least once a week to listen to lectures and participate in class assignments. Students are also expected to participate in the synchronous meetings on Zoom at the assigned dates mentioned in the course calendar.

Students are required to attend all synchronous meetings. Due to the abbreviated nature of our live meetings, one unexcused absence from a live class will result in a full letter grade reduction AND a remedial assignment, and two absences will result in a failing grade for this course. Students who arrive to a live class more than 20 minutes late or leave more than 20 minutes early will not receive attendance credit for the class.

During Zoom Classes:

Develop your professional presence.

As counselors and counselor educators increasingly use technology for counseling, consultation, supervision, and professional collaboration, developing a professional presence in virtual environments is an important skill. Consider your appearance, background, lighting, camera placement, body language, facial expressions, and communication style. The goal is not perfection; rather, it is intentionality and professionalism.

Life happens.

Graduate students are balancing coursework with work, family, and other responsibilities. I understand that unexpected circumstances occur. If something interferes with your ability to participate fully in a class session, communicate with me as soon as reasonably possible. My goal is to maintain a professional and engaged learning environment while also recognizing that you are human beings with lives outside of this course.

INTERNSHIP COURSE POLICIES

Case Notes and Record Keeping:

Client files and case notes must be complete and maintained with confidentiality. Please only use the specific forms the site supervisor and/or instructor indicated. Work with your site supervisor to devise a plan to secure the records according to the procedures used at your internship site.

Video recording sessions is a requirement for this class to assess your clinical skills. You will utilize these recordings with your site supervisor and group supervision during your weekly supervision. You cannot complete or pass an internship if you do not record your sessions regularly (i.e., weekly).

DEPARTMENT AND CLASSROOM POLICIES

Cell Phones and Other Distractions:

Please turn all cell phones and other electronic equipment off or on silent (not vibrate) when you enter class. To create a respectful class environment, please refrain from texting, checking messages, etc. In case of an emergency when you must use your cell phone, please alert the instructor before class. Students who are caught texting during class will be called on specifically to answer questions concerning class lectures or discussions and will be asked to turn off their phones. Repeated offenses warrant a private discussion with the instructor and may impact your course grade.

Patriot E-Mail:

University policy requires that all e-mail correspondence between students and instructor be done via the Patriot account. Check your Patriot E-Mail frequently. Announcements pertaining to class or departmental business will be sent to the student's Patriot account. In accord with university policy your instructor will respond only to student correspondence sent via Patriot E-mail. Please do not contact the instructor via the Canvas messaging system.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS & INFORMATION

Insurance: Professional liability insurance is required. All students must obtain professional liability insurance, prior to commencing any counseling activity. You may choose any insurance provider you wish for your liability coverage. As a student member of ASCA, you receive insurance through ASCA at no cost to you through their website.

Ethical Behavior and Professional Conduct:

Professional conduct is expected of all students in the performance of counseling and related activities. Students must adhere to the ACA code of ethics, the laws governing counselors (LPCs) in Texas, and the policies of the UT Tyler Psychology and Counseling department. It is assumed that you have completed the ethics course prior to this class and that you know the ACA and ASCA ethical codes, understand the concept of “standard of care/practice”, and are familiar with Texas laws governing your obligation as a mandated reporter (CPS reporting). If you are unfamiliar with these basics, inform the instructor during the first class session. Required remedial activities, a grade of incomplete, a failing grade, or dismissal from the class are potential consequences for engaging in unprofessional behavior.

Emergencies:

Within the first three days of beginning your site assignment, you must review the campus and district emergency policies and procedures including the suicide policy and procedures. You will be required to submit the acknowledgement and/or procedures to Canvas.

This must be discussed with your site supervisor and documented in your weekly log. We will also review in class how to evaluate client emergencies and make appropriate referrals.

Emergency procedures will include a minimum of the following:

1. Immediately contact the site supervisor and/or the school administration.
2. Documentation every 30 minutes throughout the incident (ex: time, date, client interaction, counselor actions, directions given by site supervisor and/or school administration, interaction with student's guardians, appropriate referral sources, etc.).
3. Summary of incident including outcome, referral, etc.

Security of Records:

You are responsible for the CONFIDENTIALITY and security of all client records both written and electronic according to HIPAA, FERPA and IDEA regulations. Clients' records should always remain secured in their appropriate location. All records will comply with HIPAA, FERPA and IDEA regulations. You must also comply with the school and district confidentiality policies and procedures. Do not e-mail any client records or other identifying information. Email is not a secure method of communication.

INFORMED CONSENT STATEMENT FOR COUNSELING COURSES

Faculty members are dedicated to the educational, personal, and professional growth and development of our students. Faculty members are in a unique position as both instructors who assess students' academic skills and members of the counseling profession with an ethical obligation to the profession. In both of these roles, it is the faculty's responsibility to evaluate student competencies within the realm of professional counseling and to address any concerns regarding students' professional competence. As such please be aware of the following information regarding this course: 1. The counseling profession encourages that counselors fully integrate their own personal attributes and identity, as well as their strengths and weaknesses, into therapeutic processes.

1. Therefore, self-awareness is critical because this knowledge relates to being an effective therapist.
2. There will be an emphasis in many courses on self-awareness/exploration and giving feedback to peers. Although uncomfortable, we often encourage students to be open to self-exploration, since

- we frequently ask clients to do so.
3. At times, class may include experiential and self-awareness exercises. It is important to distinguish between sharing one's emotional reactions to such experiential class activities and revealing information about one's personal history. Self-disclosure of personal history is not required to successfully pass any course; however, students may be expected to share their reactions to experiential activities.
 4. Self-disclosures will not be used as a basis for grading in any course. However, should a student disclose information indicating impairment or the potential for harm to clients, the faculty member may take appropriate action in accordance with the ACA Code of Ethics (2014).
 5. Students often experience personal growth as they progress through the program. However, the courses are not meant to be a means of personal therapy. The focus in classes is on self-awareness and the enhancement and growth of necessary counselor skills.
 6. Please be aware that although all instructors strive to create a safe environment for any personal disclosures, we cannot guarantee that other students will maintain the confidentiality of any such disclosures.
 7. It is each student's responsibility to determine an appropriate level of self-disclosure (i.e. the content and depth of personal information that you share) in experiential learning activities.

PSYCHOLOGY AND COUNSELING RETENTION POLICY

Faculty, training staff, supervisors, and administrators of the Psychology and Counseling graduate programs at the University of Texas at Tyler have a professional, ethical, and potentially legal obligation to: (a) establish criteria and methods through which aspects of competence other than, and in addition to, a student-trainee's knowledge or skills may be assessed (including, but not limited to, emotional stability and well-being, interpersonal skills, professional development, and personal fitness for practice); and, (b) ensure, insofar as possible, that the student-trainees who complete our programs are competent to manage future relationships (e.g., client, collegial, professional, public, scholarly, supervisory, teaching) in an effective and appropriate manner. Because of this commitment, and within the parameters of our administrative authority, our faculty, training staff, supervisors, and administrators strive not to advance, recommend, or graduate students or trainees with demonstrable problems (e.g., cognitive, emotional, psychological, interpersonal, technical, and ethical) that may interfere with professional competence to other programs, the profession, employers, or the public at large.

As such, within a developmental framework, and with due regard for the inherent power difference between students and faculty, students and trainees should know that the faculty, training staff, and supervisors of our programs will evaluate their competence in areas other than, and in addition to, coursework, seminars, scholarship, or related program requirements. These evaluative areas include, but are not limited to, demonstration of sufficient: (a) interpersonal and professional competence (e.g., the ways in which student trainees relate to clients, peers, faculty, allied professionals, the public, and individuals from diverse backgrounds or histories); (b) self-awareness, self-reflection, and self-evaluation (e.g., knowledge of the content and potential impact of one's own beliefs and values on clients, peers, faculty, allied professionals, the public, and individuals from diverse backgrounds or histories); openness to processes of supervision (e.g., the ability and willingness to explore issues that either interfere with the appropriate provision of care or impede professional development or functioning); and (d) resolution of issues or problems that interfere with professional development or functioning in a satisfactory manner (e.g., by responding constructively to feedback from supervisors or program faculty; by the successful completion of remediation plans; by participating in personal counseling/therapy in order to resolve issues or problems). [Adapted from the Comprehensive Evaluation of Student-Trainee Competence in Professional Psychology Programs statement developed by the Student Competence Task Force of the APA Council of Chairs of Training Councils (CCTC), (<http://www.apa.org/ed/graduate/cctc.html>), approved March 25, 2004 (2012-2014 Graduate Catalog).

EVALUATING STUDENT FITNESS AND PERFORMANCE

Members of the faculty, using professional judgment, continuously evaluate each student's fitness and performance. Students receive information related to their fitness and performance from faculty members, their advisors, and their supervisors. The criteria used by the faculty to make such judgments include instructor's observations of course performance, evaluations of students' performances in simulated practice situations, supervisors' evaluations of students' performances in practice situations, and the disciplines' codes of ethics. Students are formally evaluated at least annually by the program faculty. Detailed information about procedures for student evaluations, progress review, retention, and for addressing concerns about student progress are available at the department website: <http://www.uttyler.edu/psychology/>.

Students who are not making satisfactory progress or who are not meeting program standards should consider withdrawing from the program. In this context, the term "unsatisfactory progress in the program" refers to an academic judgment made regarding the student's fitness and performance. It is a determination that the student has failed to meet academic and/or professional standards.

OTHER

Students are strongly encouraged to read The University of Texas at Tyler's Graduate Catalog especially regarding issues such as academic grievance, plagiarism and cheating, etc. The policies stipulated in the catalog will be strictly enforced. Papers and presentations are expected to follow APA format. Please see Canvas course content or the APA Publication Manual, 7th edition, for more information. If you do not have a copy of the APA Manual, please obtain a copy as soon as possible. Do not solely rely on your word processing program for APA formatting.

Many assignments for this course will be electronically submitted through a plagiarism checker. It is strongly suggested that students check their papers for plagiarism and grammatical errors and make any necessary adjustments before submitting them. For help writing papers without plagiarism, please consult the APA Publication Manual, 6th edition, or visit the Writing Center.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies:

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

1. Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail, or Credit/No Credit.
2. Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date.)
3. Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade.)
4. Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment.
5. Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy:

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4- year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See the Academic Calendar for the specific date.) Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog.

Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Artificial Intelligence: UT Tyler is committed to exploring and using artificial intelligence (AI) tools as appropriate for the discipline and task undertaken. We encourage discussing AI tools' ethical, societal, philosophical, and disciplinary implications. All uses of AI should be acknowledged as this aligns with our commitment to honor and integrity, as noted in UT Tyler's Honor Code. Faculty and students must not use protected information, data, or copyrighted materials when using any AI tool. Additionally, users should be aware that AI tools rely on predictive models to generate content that may appear correct but is sometimes shown to be incomplete, inaccurate, taken without attribution from other sources, and/or biased. Consequently, an AI tool should not be considered a substitute for traditional approaches to research. You are ultimately responsible for the quality and content of the information you submit. Misusing AI tools that violate the guidelines specified for this course is considered a breach of academic integrity. The student will be subject to disciplinary actions as outlined in UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy.

For this course, students can use AI platforms to help prepare for assignments and projects. You can use AI tools to revise and edit your work (e.g., identify flaws in reasoning, spot confusing or underdeveloped paragraphs, or correct citations). When submitting work, students must identify any writing, text, or media generated by AI. In this course, sections of assignments generated by AI should appear in a different colored font, and the relationship between those sections and student contributions should be discussed in a cover letter that accompanies the assignment when submitted.

Generative AI Disclosure: Students are required to disclose their use of generative AI when completing course assignments. AI disclosure forms are required for designated assignments but are not separately graded. Failure to disclose AI use may be addressed as an academic integrity concern.

Internship Services Distribution

Direct Services

Direct hours are comprised of time spent in direct contact with clients in a counseling situation. This includes family sessions, group sessions, individual sessions, etc. Specific examples of direct hours include face-to-face:

- Work with individuals (IND)
 - Individual counseling
 - Intake interviews with clients – intake interview, psychosocial history, etc. with client and/or family
 - Marriage, family, couples counseling
 - Sessions with parents on a student's behalf
 - Career counseling
 - Co-counseling
 - Face-to-face student scheduling
 - Psychological testing – suicide assessments, etc., but not academic/placement testing
- Work with groups (GRP)
 - Group counseling – counseling interaction with two or more clients with a specific goal or mutual direction
 - Any of the IND activities conducted in group settings
- Work in group guidance (GG)
 - Classroom guidance, character development, and psychoeducation
- Consultation with other professionals (CON)
 - Case consultation with appropriate professionals related to the review of or progress towards goal achievement
- Other activities as approved by your university supervisor prior to the activity taking place

Indirect Services

Indirect hours consist of time spent preparing for or processing after delivery of clinical services, as well as supervision. Indirect contact includes:

- Case Notes – Preparation of case notes for client files
- Session Preparation – Session preparation may include creating activities for clients, locating credible resources, preparing homework assignments, etc.
- Workshops/trainings related to clinical work
- Testing/Assessment – all non-psychological testing
- On the job training
- Shadowing
- Research and readings as it relates to internship duties
- Professional presentations
- Other activities related to client services that are relevant to internship duties
- Other activities as approved by your university supervisor prior to the activity taking place

Remember: Time that is spent engaged in the role of a professional counselor is allowable and should be recorded on both the weekly log and the semester summary log. For the purposes of internship logs, time is recorded in 15-minute increments (quarter-hours). Thus, each activity takes a minimum of .25 hours, though the total time recorded for a day should not exceed the actual number of clock-hours spent in a counseling role. Students are expected to demonstrate honesty and integrity when reporting their hours. Both students and their site supervisors sign the weekly logs verifying the hours accrued for the week. These logs are then submitted to the university supervisor and are placed in students' files. All time spent acting in the role of a counselor should be counted. When in doubt, check with your site or university supervisor. Students who fulfill their clock-hour requirements before the end of the semester are obligated to remain at their internship site and to continue recording clock-hours until the end of the university semester.

Supervision and Support

As an internship student, you will receive supervision and support through several sources:

- Site supervision: One hour of individual supervision each week with your site supervisor.
- University class: One and a half hours of internship class each week with your university supervisor and classmates.
- Individual university consultation: Individual meetings with your university supervisor or another university faculty member to discuss a specific client situation, counseling concerns, or professional issues.

The time spent with your site supervisor and in group supervision (class) counts toward your indirect hour totals and your overall 200 hours.

Hours That Do Not Count as Direct or Indirect Hours

While potentially related to your educational experience and preparation as a counselor, these activities are not directly related to your practicum and/or internship duties and therefore do not count as direct or indirect services, nor towards your required hours.

- Travel to and from your site
- Time spent engaged in class work
- Time spent in any class other than COUN 5386

Case Presentation Format

Client: (“name”; use a pseudonym)

Age:

Gender:

Race:

Session #:

Anticipated Sessions:

Presenting Problem: Describe why the client is seeking or referred for counseling. Briefly describe your initial assessment including client presentation (affect, mood, level of functioning, etc.), complaints, and clinical impressions. This should include symptoms (what they are, frequency, and duration). Is the client currently taking medication; if so, what is it and what is it for? Be sure and address level of intellectual functioning or alcohol and drug history if applicable.

Family History: Describe family of origin and family of creation (where appropriate) including current living situation. Describe client resources and support systems.

Assessment Instruments: Include a list (3 minimum) of assessment instruments that you would like to use with this client or the clients family. Remember you can use the Mental Measurements Yearbook to help you decide on assessments. Describe why you might consider this assessment, are there any cultural considerations around this assessment, and what impressions that you may confirm or discard as a result of using the assessment. If you have an opportunity to use an assessment with the permission and supervision of your site supervisor, include the assessment and your interpretation of it. Remember that you cannot ask a client to do an assessment without giving the client feedback.

Diagnostic Impression: What is this client’s diagnosis or what is your impression of a diagnosis that is appropriate for this client? Why is this diagnosis appropriate? If more than one diagnosis should be ruled in or out explain what they are and how you will know if the criteria are met.

Clinical Focus: Describe your focus of clinical attention, what will you treat first, including specific interventions and rationale. Will this client be on any psychotropic medications? If so, what are they? What are your treatment goals?

Professional Consultation: Discuss this case with at least two counseling-related professionals. Describe who you consulted with and how these consults have affected your treatment plan. What were the suggestions and why are you choosing to implement them?

Anticipated Results: Describe what you reasonably expect from your treatment interventions (What are you looking for to know if this client is improving?)

Note: Remember that you are directing this case presentation and will be evaluated on the following:

- Preparation for case study
- Presentation materials (completeness)
- Group facilitation skills

General Notes Related to Case Studies

- A case study is a synopsis of a client and your treatment of that client. Include only information which has bearing on the case or is consistent with established reporting procedures (i.e. family history, behavioral observations).
- Be as thorough as possible while being succinct. Often, you will have only a few minutes to paint a picture of the client for the staffing team. What you present and how you choose to present it will affect their understanding of the client.
- Consider what points need to be emphasized in your oral presentation. Placing an emphasis on one area (family) while underemphasizing something that was equally important during the clinical interview (medical history) will skew the treatment team's interpretation of the case.

Counseling Skills Identification & Analysis

DIRECTIONS:

Watch your observation video. Identify 5 interactions to use that display your best skills. Fill out an identification and analysis box for each interaction.

*You can copy & paste this format into a new document.

Example

Time in Video	2.35 mins
Client Statement (the client's last 1-3 sentences)	"He dumped a banana split on top of my head! I couldn't believe it. I was so ticked off."
Counselor Response (1-3 sentences)	"You felt angry when he did that."
Counseling Skill Used (see list)	Reflection of feeling
How was your response helpful? Why did it work?	It labeled his emotion as anger. It helped him feel heard. It communicated empathy. It encouraged him to talk more about his emotions.
What would you do differently?	I would have said it with more emotional emphasis to mirror his emotions. Ex: "Wow! You were angry when he did that!"
What other skill could you have used? (list 2-3 skills & response)	Minimal Encourager- "Wow!" Prompt & closed question- "What did you do?" Paraphrase- "He actually dumped a banana split on your head right there in Dairy Queen."
Give an example of a "coffee shop talk" response that would NOT be helpful!	"What a Jerk! You should have socked him a good one right on the mouth!"
Anything else you would like to add?	Anger is a repeated theme in his stories. I would like to explore this more and help him find ways to positively cope with his anger.

Consentimiento para Observación Electrónica en Vivo

Estimado alumno y padre(s)/tutor(es):

Gracias por trabajar con un consejero-en-formación de la University of Texas at Tyler. Estos consejeros-en-formación son supervisados por ambos: un consejero celiificado y empleado por el distrito escolar, y un miembro de la facultad de asesoramiento con credenciales debidamente calificado y empleado por la universidad.

En Texas, la ley estatal requiere la observación de cada estudiante consejero-en-formación por parte de un empleado de la universidad debidamente calificado y con credenciales. Para facilitar este proceso, el empleado de la universidad (miembro de la facultad) observa las sesiones de asesoramiento en tiempo real a través de la transmisión por cámara web, utilizando un programa seguro con licencia de la universidad. Esta no es una grabación, y no hay grabación de audio o video de la actividad. El miembro de la facultad de la universidad mira la sesión mientras se lleva a cabo.

Para proteger la confidencialidad de los estudiantes que participan en estas sesiones observadas, la cámara web se centra en el consejero-en-formación. Ningun estudiante se muestra en la cámara web. Los estudiantes son escuchados, pero no vistos.

Por la presente, acepto permitir la observación electrónica en vivo de la actividad de mi hijo(a) con
