Readings as assigned on Canvas

TEACHING STRATEGIES

This is a face-to face course and in this course, we will utilize lecture, discussion, reading and writing assignments, and experiential activities. Self-reflection, self-evaluation, and offering and receiving feedback are also important instructional methods in this course.

Canvas (<https://www.uttyler.edu/canvas/>)

Canvas will serve as the overall structure and launching pad for all our activities in this course. In Canvas, you will find announcements, assignments, course schedule, discussion boards, links to outside activities and so on. Within each module folder, the activities necessary to successfully complete that module are described in great detail. It is students’ responsibility to examine each module and get in touch with the instructor immediately if they are not clear about the requirements prior to assignment due dates.

As part of this course, students will be placed into Learning Communities (LCs) designed to reflect the collaborative dynamics often encountered in professional counseling settings. Each LC will include a diverse mix of experiences and backgrounds, and students may not be grouped with peers they have worked with frequently in the past. This intentional grouping is meant to simulate post-graduation realities, where counselors often work alongside colleagues from varied settings and perspectives. The goal is to enhance students’ adaptability, communication, and teamwork skills as they prepare to transition into the field.

COURSE POLICIES AND REQUIREMENTS

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Student attendance in this class is critical. It is expected that students will attend all classes. If there is an extenuating circumstance or emergency that will require you to miss a class, you should notify the professor ahead of time. You may then be asked to write a letter, and/or provide documentation that substantiates the extenuating circumstances which prevented you from coming to class. The instructor will then decide if the absence is excusable. In case of missed class students will lose participation and professionalism points. After the first excused missed class, along with missing participation and professionalism points, for each missed class students will lose additional 10 points from their overall grade. All absences must be discussed with the instructor prior to the class missed. Missing more than one class may result in an "IP" or "NC" for the class unless otherwise determined by the instructor.

CLASS PUNCTUALITY

Students are expected to approach punctuality in the classroom as they would with a client in a counseling session. Essentially, students should be on time, including being seated and ready to engage in learning in a non-disruptive manner at the time class begins. Students who are consistently late at the beginning of class will have points deducted from their participation grade. Late behavior in excess of one class will result in a drop of attendance and participation points for each incident.

LATE POLICY

Assignments are expected to be turned into Canvas by the assigned due date. Technology failures will not be accepted as a reason for missed assignment due dates. Therefore, do not leave anything to the last minute. Back up files frequently and in various locations so work is not lost. Assignments turned in after the due date/time, up to two (2) calendar days, will be accepted with automatic deductions as follows:

- 24 hours or less late: automatic reduction in grade for assignment by 10%
- More than 24 hours late, but less than 48 hours late: automatic reduction in grade for assignment by 20%
- More than 48 hours late: automatic reduction in grade to 0 points.

ZOOM PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIORS

Students should attend online zoom synchronous classes in the same manner that they would attend in-person classes. Students should be professionally dressed and sitting in an appropriate position for learning. Students must keep their video cameras on for the entirety of class. Students are not permitted to be engaging in other activities while attending class (e.g., driving a car, working a job, attending an appointment, etc.). Students will need to find a quiet and private location in which to attend class. It is also essential that students are able to secure a good internet connection.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY

Cell phones are to be turned off or put in silent mode during class. Cell phones should not be visible during class, so please keep them in your pants, purse, backpack, etc. If you are experiencing an emergency or extenuating circumstance where you need to check your phone during class, please inform me of this before class begins. Please be respectful and do not send or read text messages during class. Students who choose to use a laptop computer should only do so for taking notes. Students who use laptop computers are prohibited from (a) surfing the internet, (b) checking email, and (c) working on other assignments during class. If the instructor becomes aware of a student using their laptop for any reason other than taking notes, they may ask that student to cease bringing their computer into the classroom.

Given the potential for discussion of sensitive content during class, recording of class is strictly prohibited except where accommodations are arranged through SAR. Additionally, students are strictly prohibited from going "live" on social media platforms such as TikTok during class. The ability to uphold confidentiality is a core tenet of professional counseling as supported by the ACA Code of Ethics. As a counselor-in-training, you are expected to demonstrate the ability to honor confidentiality.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE USE POLICY

I expect all work students submit for this course to be their own. I have carefully designed all assignments and class activities to support your learning. Doing your own work, without human or artificial intelligence assistance, is best for your efforts in mastering course learning objectives. For this course, I expressly forbid using ChatGPT or any other artificial intelligence (AI) tools for any stages of the work process, including brainstorming. Deviations from these guidelines will be considered a violation of UT Tyler's Honor Code and academic honesty values. Please note: One assignment for this course does have you interact with AI, using AI as a counselor. Interacting with AI for that assignment is acceptable. However, you would should not use AI to write the associated microassignment.

I will use the University's Turnitin platform, embedded in Canvas, to screen ALL assignments for AI. Any AI detection over 30% may result in a full rewrite for partial credit. Any required rewrite must be completed within the timeframe determined by the instructor. No late submissions will be allowed. For me to consider the rewrite for credit, it must result in an AI detection of 30% or less. Furthermore, if AI above 30% is detected for more than one assignment or more than once on the same assignment, I will follow the University's policies for reporting academic dishonesty. Please note that AI use is strictly forbidden in this course. Therefore, citing AI use will NOT protect AI use.

COMMUNICATION POLICY

University policy requires that all e-mail correspondence between students and instructor be done via the Patriot account. Check your Patriot E-Mail frequently. Announcements pertaining to class or departmental business will be sent to the student's Patriot account. In accordance with university policy your instructor will respond only to student correspondence sent via Patriot E-mail. Please do not contact the instructor via the Canvas messaging system. My email address is dsmedley@uttyler.edu. Do not send emails to any other email address, as I will not receive them.

ONLINE COMMUNICATION

Part of your preparation as a professional counselor is the ability to communicate with future colleagues and clients clearly and professionally. All written communication (e.g., emails, discussion board postings, etc.) that takes place within this course must adhere to the rules of written etiquette. Please remember that you are in a graduate program and are earning a professional degree, therefore please respond to your instructor and your colleagues in a professional manner. Please refrain from using texting language (i.e. lol, btw, omg) and/or emoticons (i.e. :- / , :-)) in your discussion responses and in communication with your instructor and colleagues. Other things to keep in mind:

- Open your email with a salutation (e.g., Hi, Hello, Dear Dr. or Ms. X) and finish with a closing (e.g., Best, Regards, Thank you, your name). Introductory emails should address your instructor more formally (e.g., Dear Dr. Smedley:).
- Use complete sentences and avoid jargon, especially text-type words (e.g. C U). This is especially important when sending messages from mobile devices.
- Be aware that using capital letters to express yourself is considered SHOUTING.
- Maintain a professional tone.
- Avoid sending email in anger or frustration. Walk away from the computer and wait at least 24 hours. Threats or attacks towards faculty or peers, even via written communication, will not be tolerated.
- Whether in writing or in person, derogatory or prejudiced remarks are still considered bad manners and discussion that contains such comments will be addressed by the instructor.
- Please refrain from sending junk mail, forwards, or advertisements to the class.

INFORMED CONSENT STATEMENT

Faculty members are dedicated to the educational, personal, and professional growth and development of our students. Faculty are in a unique position as both instructors who assess students' academic skills and members of the counseling profession with an ethical obligation to the profession. In both of these roles, it is the faculty's responsibility to evaluate student competencies within the realm of professional counseling and to address any concerns regarding students' professional competence. As such, please be aware of the following information regarding this course:

- The counseling profession encourages that counselors fully integrate their own personal attributes and identity, as well as their strengths and weaknesses, into therapeutic processes. Therefore, self-awareness is critical because this knowledge relates to being an effective therapist.
- There will be an emphasis in many courses on self-awareness/exploration, as well as giving feedback to peers. Although uncomfortable at times, we encourage students to be open to self-exploration, since we frequently ask clients to do so.
- At times, class may include experiential and self-awareness exercises. It is important to distinguish between sharing one's emotional reactions to such experiential class activities and revealing information about one's personal history. Self-disclosure of personal history is not required in order to successfully pass any course; however, students may be expected to share their reactions to experiential activities.
- Self-disclosures will not be used as a basis for grading in any course. However, should a student disclose information indicating impairment or the potential for harm to clients, the faculty member may take appropriate action in accordance with the ACA Code of Ethics (2014).
- Students often experience personal growth as they progress through the program. However, the courses are not meant to be a means of personal therapy. The focus in classes is on self-awareness and the enhancement and growth of necessary counselor skills.
- Please be aware that, although all instructors strive to create a safe environment for any personal disclosures, we cannot guarantee that other students will maintain the confidentiality of any such disclosures that are made.
- It is each student's responsibility to determine an appropriate level of self-disclosure (i.e., the content and depth of personal information that you share) in experiential learning activities.

COURSE FEEDBACK AND EVALUATION

Your constructive assessment of this course plays an indispensable role in shaping education at University of Texas at Tyler. Upon completing the course, please take time to fill out the online course evaluation.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

MICROLEARNING ACTIVITIES – 165 POINTS – DUE THE FOLLOWING WEEK AT NOON ON WEDNESDAY

Students will complete 11 microassignments each worth 15 points. Students will be given a prompt or task to complete that requires them to put into action a piece of knowledge developed from the course readings/discussions/activities. Students will submit evidence of completion of the task in the Canvas assignment submission. These microassignments can be completed individually or in your learning community. However, EACH student must turn in an assignment for themselves, regardless of how the assignment was completed. This assignment assesses CACREP standards: 3.A.2.; 3.A.3.; 3.A.5.; 3.A.6.; 3.A.7.; 3.A.8.; 3.A.9.; 3.A.10; 3.A.12.; 3.E.5.; 5.C.3.; 5.C.7.; and 5.C.8.

PROFESSIONAL DISCLOSURE & INFORMED CONSENT – 40 POINTS – Due on 06/19/2026 at noon

Students will develop their own professional disclosure (PD) and informed consent (IC) that includes specific introduction components and the regulatory requirements as set by BHEC & TSBEP during the semester the course is taken. Students should write their PD and IC to accurately reflect their status as a student intern. Both the PD and IC should be one fluid document. Additional details on specific components of the PD and IC will be presented during the lecture on this topic.

LEARNING COMMUNITY (LC) ASSIGNMENT: ETHICS CASE STUDY – 120 POINTS – Due on 07/24/2026 at noon

As an LC, your group will collaboratively identify one real-world ethical dilemma experienced by a member at their current or recent clinical site. As a group, decide which dilemma to use for this assignment. Drawing on your collective insights, you will work through the ethical dilemma using Forrester-Miller & Davis's model, the ACA Code of Ethics, BHEC/TSBEPC regulations, and any additional relevant professional guidelines or resources.

Your group will produce a formal manuscript that details each step of the ethical decision-making model used, providing a clear rationale for your final decision. The paper should demonstrate thoughtful engagement with ethical standards, cultural considerations, and professional responsibilities. Each claim or step in your decision-making process should be substantiated with appropriate citations from the ACA Code of Ethics, BHEC/TSBEPC regulations, and any scholarly literature that informed your group's reasoning. The manuscript must adhere to APA 7th edition style and be no more than 10 pages in length, excluding the title page and reference list. See Appendix A for the grading rubric. Your group will designate one person to turn in the final manuscript. Make sure all group members' names are on the title page.

END-OF-PROGRAM PORTFOLIO – 45 POINTS – Due on 08/05/2026 at noon

Students will create a folder in their UT Tyler OneDrive and share the folder with Dr. Smedley. The folder should be labeled "LPC Licensure Documentation" and must contain the following items:

- Email confirmation signing up for LPC Board updates (Do not use your UT Tyler email)
- List of questions to ask during supervisor interviews
- Checklist of Application Materials
- CPCE Scores
- NCE Scores
- Practicum Documentation Form
- Human Trafficking Training Completion Certificate
- Texas Jurisprudence Exam Completion Certificate (if applying for licensure within 6 months)

It is expected that you will not have all of these items fully completed. For items that you do not have completed, you have some options. You can use a blank or partially completed document (e.g., Practicum Documentation Form and Application Materials Checklist) or you can type up an explanation of how you plan to complete the item (e.g., explanation regarding NCE, CPCE, Jurisprudence, etc.). Additionally, this assignment assumes you plan to obtain licensure in Texas. If you do not plan to obtain licensure in Texas, please contact me early in the semester to discuss how you can complete this assignment.

PARTICIPATION & PROFESSIONALISM – 30 POINTS

Learning is a dynamic social process. In this class, your presence and active engagement are essential. Students are required to read all assigned course materials before class begins, so that they can actively engage with course content. Students are expected to regularly participate in class. Participation in discussion and class activities is an important component of learning. Active, meaningful engagement with your peers is expected.

Students are expected to attend classes on time, ready to engage in learning at the time class begins. Students who are consistently late at the beginning of class will have points deducted from their participation grade. Being on time means arriving at class at least 10 minutes before the scheduled class time and being in your seat and ready for class to begin. Furthermore, the Assessment of Professional Counseling Dispositions (APCD) is used as a guideline to assess and score professionalism in this course and throughout the CMHC program. A score below 2 in ANY single domain of the APCD could result in the loss of all participation and professionalism points for the semester. Students should refer to this document for a clearer understanding of professionalism expectations in this course and eventually as a professional counselor. Professionalism represents a way of being made up of appearance, manner, communication, interacting, attitudes, approach, skills, and openness to grow. As part of this class, students are expected to demonstrate professionalism during in person, clinic, and online interactions with their peers and the instructor. You are expected to be fully engaged in the course, invested in your own learning and the learning of others, and eager to participate. Concretely, active participation and professionalism means but is NOT limited to:

- Reading required materials and being prepared to work
- Demonstrating knowledge of reading assignment material
- Actively taking part in class activities
- Interacting well with peers
- Showing respect and courtesy toward peers and instructor
- Exhibiting a professional demeanor
- Actively engaging in learning opportunities

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
