Assignments/Grading

Myth-Busting Reading Reactions/Participation

Students are required to participate in discussions about the readings and lectures. The discussions serve two purposes: (1) to apply course material through critical thinking and (2) demonstrate your understanding of the major psychological perspectives on abnormal behavior and familiarity with diagnostics and etiological factors. Discussions will require you to either generate a post about a myth you have heard related to the readings and lectures for the week or generate a post related to a myth posted by your instructor.

There will be weekly discussions, totaling 5 discussions, in which 100 points can be earned by participation in the discussions. Students participating fully, with thoughtful relevant comments will be given full credit (questions/comments that go beyond the text or powerpoints). Minimal and/or redundant comments will earn partial credit. Posts should elaborate on course material and also provide at least one thoughtful question. Posts need to be at least 50 words and fewer than 150 words. Replies need to be between 15 to 50 words. Each discussion will require students to create at least 1 post and 2 replies to other students' posts. Extra posts/replies will not be granted extra credit.

➤ Post = 15 pts

Replies = 5 pts. (2.5 each)

Case Study

You will receive a case study. You will be expected to write a case formulation, diagnosis, and treatment for each case. You will be graded on the considerations of development in intersections with diagnostic accuracy. You will also be graded on the conceptualization and integration of research and supporting literature you used in discussing developmental features related to psychopathology. You will also be graded on the research used to support your suggested treatment. Therefore, it is important to discuss how you derived your conclusions. Along with your case study write-up, you will have some discussion questions for each case that you will need to answer. You will receive additional instructions can be found on Canvas.

- Failure to complete the project on the assigned due date will result in a zero.
- While consultation is very important in the profession, you must do this assignment alone.
- The value of this assignment is to see your conceptualization and understanding of the material.
- Writing must be in APA style.

Development Interview/Observation

You will complete a project throughout the class where you are to interview/observe someone who is in a different stage of development from your own area of development or someone that you will likely work with in your career. You will observe/interview the person for about 45 min. to 1 hour. You must get permission from the person to observe or interview them. If the person is under the age of 18, you will need to get their permission along with consent from their legal guardian or parent. Afterwards, you will write a 6-12 page paper that depicts developmental milestones learned from class that you observed from the person. You will need to address the physical, cognitive (i.e., Piaget), and social/emotional (i.e., Erickson) descriptors of the individual interviewed/observed and some marker for that developmental stage (e.g., object permanence). You will need to integrate 10 relevant research articles related to observed areas of development. Rubrics are posted in Canvas.

Exam

There will be 1 final, comprehensive exam given at the end of the course. The final exam will consist of true/false and multiple-choice questions that will cover material from lectures, readings, activities, and class discussions from the entire semester.

Make up policy for exams: Make up exams will ONLY be allowed for emergency situations (in other words, a doctor's appointment is not an emergency). It is the student's responsibility (BY EMAIL WHEN POSSIBLE) to contact the professor within 24 hours to reschedule. Failure to do so will result in a zero on the exam. Make up exams will be scheduled at the convenience of the instructor and will be scheduled as quickly as possible. Make-up exams will cover the same material, but are in a format of the instructor's choice, such as ORAL or comprehensive fill in the blank/essay exams.

Course Expectations

Professionalism

Students are expected to strive for professionalism in and outside of the class. Students should strive for professionalism defined by Competency Benchmarks in Professional Psychology:

- Integrity
- Deportment
- Accountability

- Concern for the welfare of others
- Professional identity

Failure to adhere to these professional areas could result in speaking with the instructor, a remediation plan, a reduction in letter grade, failing the course, and/or being dismissed from the program. It is expected that each student will have the required reading completed before the class during which we will discuss the material (see course schedule). Some material in the text may be challenging upon first read, but lectures will be easier to follow if you have read the chapter.

* A crucial part of being a professional is keeping with commitments and attendance. Missing a day of clients could be unprofessional, especially if not communicating with the clients. Class sessions are 3 hours once per week. Missing 1 class is equivalent to missing an entire week. Thus, missing more than 1 class without a documented medical reason will result in the drop of a letter grade.

Policies/Expectations

1. Read the syllabus If anything is unclear, then read the syllabus. If you still have concerns, then contact the professor.
2. Students are expected to take responsibility for their success in the course. You are encouraged to be active participants in the education process by asking questions and being alert in class.
3. If you have any concerns related to this class, you are encouraged to speak with your instructor in a timely manner. As a general rule, you should raise any issues within one week of receiving a grade or completing a given
4. Students will be expected to access their email and Canvas online classroom on a regular basis for announcements, course materials, assignments, and
5. The instructor reserves the right to use plagiarism prevention software
6. Students may not use AI to write any parts of their essays or exams. Use of AI to write your essay or exam will result in a zero for the exam and may even result in a failing grade for the course as well as potentially being dismissed from the program.

Class Sessions

- The majority of the class will be lecture and discussion.
- Class attendance is mandatory. This is a graduate level class and as such, it is expected that you will attend each class and contribute to class discussions and group activities. In order to have meaningful class discussions you must come to class having read the assigned material.
- You MUST take your own notes in class
- Media presentations and demonstrations may be used to help illustrate the concepts
- Classes may include discussions, group projects, films, and activities.
- Questions and comments are always welcome! (Please be respectful)

*DISCLAIMER: This class examines a variety of cultural and personal issues and may expose students to ideas and material that they may find disagreeable. If students are unable or unwilling to tolerate other perspectives or their own value systems in the context of the class, then they are encouraged to speak with the instructor regarding their concerns and may wish to reconsider their enrollment in the course. Should you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions at any time during the semester, please feel free to contact me.

Communication

Email is the best way to contact your professor. All emails should include the course title or number in the subject and should include your first and last name.

University Policies and Information

Withdrawing from Class

Students may withdraw (drop) from this course using the Withdrawal Portal. Withdrawing (dropping) this course can impact your Financial Aid, Scholarships, Veteran Benefits, Exemptions, Waivers, International Student Status, housing, and degree progress. Please speak with your instructors, consider your options, speak with your advisor, and visit the One-Stop Service Center (STE 230) or email enroll@uttyler.edu to get a complete review of your student account and the possible impacts to withdrawing. We want you to make an informed decision. UT Tyler faculty and staff are here for you and often can provide additional support options or assistance. Make sure to carefully read the implications for withdrawing from a course and the instructions on using the Withdrawal portal.

Texas law prohibits students from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career*. The six courses dropped includes those from other 2-year or 4-year Texas public colleges and universities. Consider the impact withdrawing from this class has on your academic progress and other areas, such as financial implications. We encourage you to consult your advisor(s) and Enrollment Services for additional guidance. CAUTION #1: Withdrawing before census day does not mean you get a full refund. Please see the Tuition and Fee Refund Schedule. CAUTION #2: All international students must check with the Office of International Programs before withdrawing. All international students are required to enroll full-time for fall and spring terms. CAUTION #3: All UT Tyler Athletes must check with the Athletic Academic Coordinator before withdrawing from a course. CAUTION #4: All veterans or military-affiliated students should consult with the Military and Veterans Success Center.

* Students who began college for the first time before 2007 are exempt from this law.

Artificial Intelligence Statement

UT Tyler is committed to exploring and using artificial intelligence (AI) tools as appropriate for the discipline and task undertaken. We encourage discussing AI tools' ethical, societal, philosophical, and disciplinary implications. All uses of AI should be acknowledged as this aligns with our commitment to honor and integrity, as noted in UT Tyler's Honor Code. Faculty and students must not use protected information, data, or copyrighted materials when using any AI tool. Additionally, users should be aware that AI tools rely on predictive models to generate content that may appear correct but is sometimes shown to be incomplete, inaccurate, taken without attribution from other sources, and/or biased. Consequently, an AI tool should not be considered a substitute for traditional approaches to research. You are ultimately responsible for the quality and content of the information you submit. Misusing AI tools that violate the guidelines specified for this course is considered a breach of academic integrity. The student will be subject to disciplinary actions as outlined in UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy.

AI is not permitted in this course at all.

I expect all work students submit for this course to be their own. I have carefully designed all assignments and class activities to support your learning. Doing your own work, without human or artificial intelligence assistance, is best for your efforts in mastering course learning objectives. For this course, I expressly forbid using ChatGPT or any other artificial intelligence (AI) tools for any stages of the work process, including brainstorming. Deviations from these guidelines will be considered a violation of UT Tyler's Honor Code and academic honesty values.

Final Exam Policy

Final examinations are administered as scheduled. If unusual circumstances require that special arrangements be made for an individual student or class, the Dean of the appropriate college, after consultation with the faculty member involved, may authorize an exception to the schedule. Faculty members must maintain student final examination papers for a minimum of three months following the examination date.

Incomplete Grade Policy

If a student, because of extenuating circumstances, is unable to complete all of the requirements for a course by the end of the semester, then the instructor may recommend an Incomplete (I) for the course. The "I" may be assigned in place of a grade only when all of the following conditions are met: (a) the student has been making satisfactory progress in the course; (b) the student is unable to complete all coursework or final exam due to unusual circumstances that are beyond personal control and are acceptable to the instructor, and (c) the student presents these reasons before the time that the final grade roster is due. The semester credit hours for an Incomplete will not be used to calculate the grade point average.

The student and the instructor must submit an Incomplete Form detailing the work required and the time by which the work must be completed to their respective department chair or college dean for approval. The time limit established must not exceed one year. Should the student fail to meet all of the work for the course within the time limit, then the instructor may assign zeros to the unfinished work, compute the course average for the student, and assign the appropriate grade. If a grade has yet to be assigned within one year, then the Incomplete will be changed to an F, or NC. If the course was initially taken under the CR/NC grading basis, this may adversely affect the student's academic standing.

Grade Appeal Policy

Disputes regarding grades must be initiated within sixty (60) days from the date of receiving the final course grade by filing a Grade Appeal Form with the instructor who assigned the grade. A grade appeal should be used when the student thinks the final course grade awarded does not reflect the grades earned on assessments or follow the grading scale as documented in the syllabus. The student should provide the rationale for the grade appeal and attach supporting document about the grades earned. The form should be sent via email to the faculty member who assigned the grade. The faculty member reviews the rationale and supporting documentation and completes the instruction section of the form. The instructor should return the form to the student, even if a grade change is made at this level. If the student is not satisfied with the decision, the student may appeal in writing to the Chairperson of the department from which the grade was issued. In situations where there is an allegation of capricious grading, discrimination, or unlawful actions, appeals may go beyond the Chairperson to the Dean or the Dean's designee of the college from which the grade was issued, with that decision being final. The Grade Appeal form is found in the Registrar's Form Library.

NOTE: The Grade Appeal Form is different from the Application for Appeal form submitted to the Student Appeals Committee, which does not rule on grade disputes as described in this policy.
